

United States Patent Office.

SAMUEL GUY WALLIS, OF WATERFORD, PENNSYLVANIA.

Letters Patent No. 80,101, dated July 21, 1868.

IMPROVED BALM.

The Schedule referred to in these Letters Patent and making part of the same.

TO ALL WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:

Be it known that I, SAMUEL GUY WALLIS, of Waterford, in the county of Erie, and State of Pennsylvania, have invented a new medicine or composition of matter, called Improved Magic Balm.

To enable others skilled in the compounding of medicines to understand my invention, I will proceed to describe the same, as follows:

In two gallons and one quart of alcohol, I put three ounces of capsicum. To this I add the following ingredients, to wit:

- Oil hemlock, three ounces.
- Oil cedar, three ounces.
- Oil sassafras, three ounces.
- Oil fireweed, three ounces.
- Oil pennyroyal, three ounces.
- Oil amber, one and one-half ounce.
- Oil rosemary, three ounces.
- Spirits terebinth, three ounces.
- Tincture camphor, six ounces.
- Tincture opium, three ounces.
- Tincture gum-guaiacum, three ounces.
- Tincture myrrh, three ounces.
- Tincture colchicum, three ounces.
- Tincture blood-root, three ounces.
- Tincture iodine, three ounces.
- Aqua ammonia, three ounces.
- Chloroform, three ounces by measure.

Ammonia and chloroform are to be added when all these are combined.

What I claim as my invention, and desire to secure by Letters Patent of the United States, is as follows, to wit:

I claim the improved magic balm, when composed of the above ingredients in the proportions above mentioned, for the purposes set forth.

S. G. WALLIS.
