

United States Patent Office.

ROBERT DOBBINS, OF BINGHAMTON, NEW YORK.

Letters Patent No. 109,599, dated November 29, 1870.

IMPROVEMENT IN HEALING-SALVES.

The Schedule referred to in these Letters Patent and making part of the same.

I, ROBERT DOBBINS, of the city of Binghamton, in the county of Broome and State of New York, have invented a certain compound, called "Dobbin's Healing Salve," for burns, wounds, bruises, sores, disease of the scalp, or dandruff, &c.

The nature of the invention consists in mixing suet, beeswax, and French olive oil in certain proportions.

To prepare this salve, take four pounds of rendered suet, and place on the fire and boil the same for about twenty minutes, then put in one-half pound of beeswax and boil until the wax is thoroughly mixed with the suet, then pour in a pint of the best olive oil, and keep stirring the whole over a good quick fire for about half an hour, after which the salve is ready for boxing.

I claim—

The invention of the manufacture or preparation of a compound, which is denominated Dobbin's healing salve, of the ingredients, in the proportions, and for the purposes set forth.

ROBERT DOBBINS.
