THOMAS DOLAN, OF PHILADELPHIA, PENNSYLVANIA.

Design No. 3,350, dated January 26, 1869.

DESIGN FOR A STOCKING-FABRIC.

The Schedule referred to in these Letters Patent and making part of the same

To all whom it may concern:

Be it known that I, THOMAS DOLAN, of Philadelphia, county of Philadelphia, State of Pennsylvania, have originated a new Design for a Stocking-Fabric; and I do hereby declare that the accompanying drawing, and following explanation thereof, form a full, clear, and exact description of the said design.

In the drawing, the figure represents sufficient of the stocking-fabric to illustrate the design, the most prominent features of which are the two figures A A, between which are the two zigzag stripes b b.

The two main figures, A A, consist each of a central zigzag stripe, a, on each side of which is arranged a number of narrower zigzag stripes, the arrangement and form of which are clearly shown in the drawing.

Irrespective of the colors employed,

I claim the design for a stocking-fabric, substantially as described, and represented in and by the accompanying drawing.

In testimony whereof, I have signed my name to this specification, in the presence of two subscribing witnesses.

THOMAS DOLAN.
