(57) CLAIM

The ornamental design for a device for fire pit, as shown and described.

DESCRIPTION

FIG. 1 is a top perspective view of a device for fire pit showing our new design according to a first embodiment;

FIG. 2 is a top view of the first embodiment;
FIG. 3 is a bottom view of the first embodiment;
FIG. 4 is a front view of the first embodiment;
FIG. 5 is a rear view of the first embodiment;
FIG. 6 is a left side view of the first embodiment;
FIG. 7 is a right side view of the first embodiment; and
FIG. 8 is a bottom perspective view of the first embodiment.
FIG. 9 is a top perspective view of the device for fire pit showing our new design according to a second embodiment, the second embodiment being identical to the first embodiment except that the second embodiment has an indeterminate diameter as indicated in FIG. 9.

FIG. 10 is a view similar to FIG. 4 but with additional broken lines; and,

FIG. 11 is a view similar to FIG. 4 but with additional broken lines.

The broken lines shown in FIGS. 1-11 illustrate unclaimed portions of the device for fire pit and form no part of the claimed design.

The surface shadings and contour lines shown in FIGS. 1-11 represent the three-dimensional character and contour of the device for fire pit.

In FIG. 9, the second embodiment of the device for fire pit is shown with break lines to indicate the indeterminate diameter in FIG. 9; the appearance of any portion of the second embodiment of the device for fire pit between the break lines forms no part of the claimed design.

The additional broken lines in FIG. 10 show unclaimed environmental structure that forms no part of the claimed design, which unclaimed environmental structure includes a fire pit and legs for supporting the device for fire pit on the fire pit.

Similarly, the additional broken lines in FIG. 11 show unclaimed environmental structure that forms no part of the claimed design, which unclaimed environmental structure includes a fire pit and a stand for supporting the device for fire pit on the fire pit.

The device for fire pit illustrated in FIGS. 1-11 may be, for example, a heat deflector.
