

[54] ELECTRONIC TRANSMITTER DEVICE FOR USE IN THE OPENING OR CLOSING OF GARAGE DOORS

[75] Inventor: John F. Wahl, Sterling, Ill.

[73] Assignee: Mallard Manufacturing Corporation, Sterling, Ill.

[] Term: 14 Years

[21] Appl. No.: 601,351

[22] Filed: Aug. 4, 1975

[51] Int. Cl. D14-03

[52] U.S. Cl. D14/95

[58] Field of Search 325/37, 111, 119; D26/14 K, 13 C, 13 R

[56]

References Cited

U.S. PATENT DOCUMENTS

3,289,085	11/1966	Leland	325/119
3,906,369	9/1975	Pitman	325/111
D. 212,003	8/1968	Roberts	D26/14 K
D. 212,005	8/1968	Roberts	D26/14 K
D. 215,661	10/1969	Richards	D26/14 K

Primary Examiner—Bernard Ansher

Attorney, Agent, or Firm—Carl C. Batz

[57]

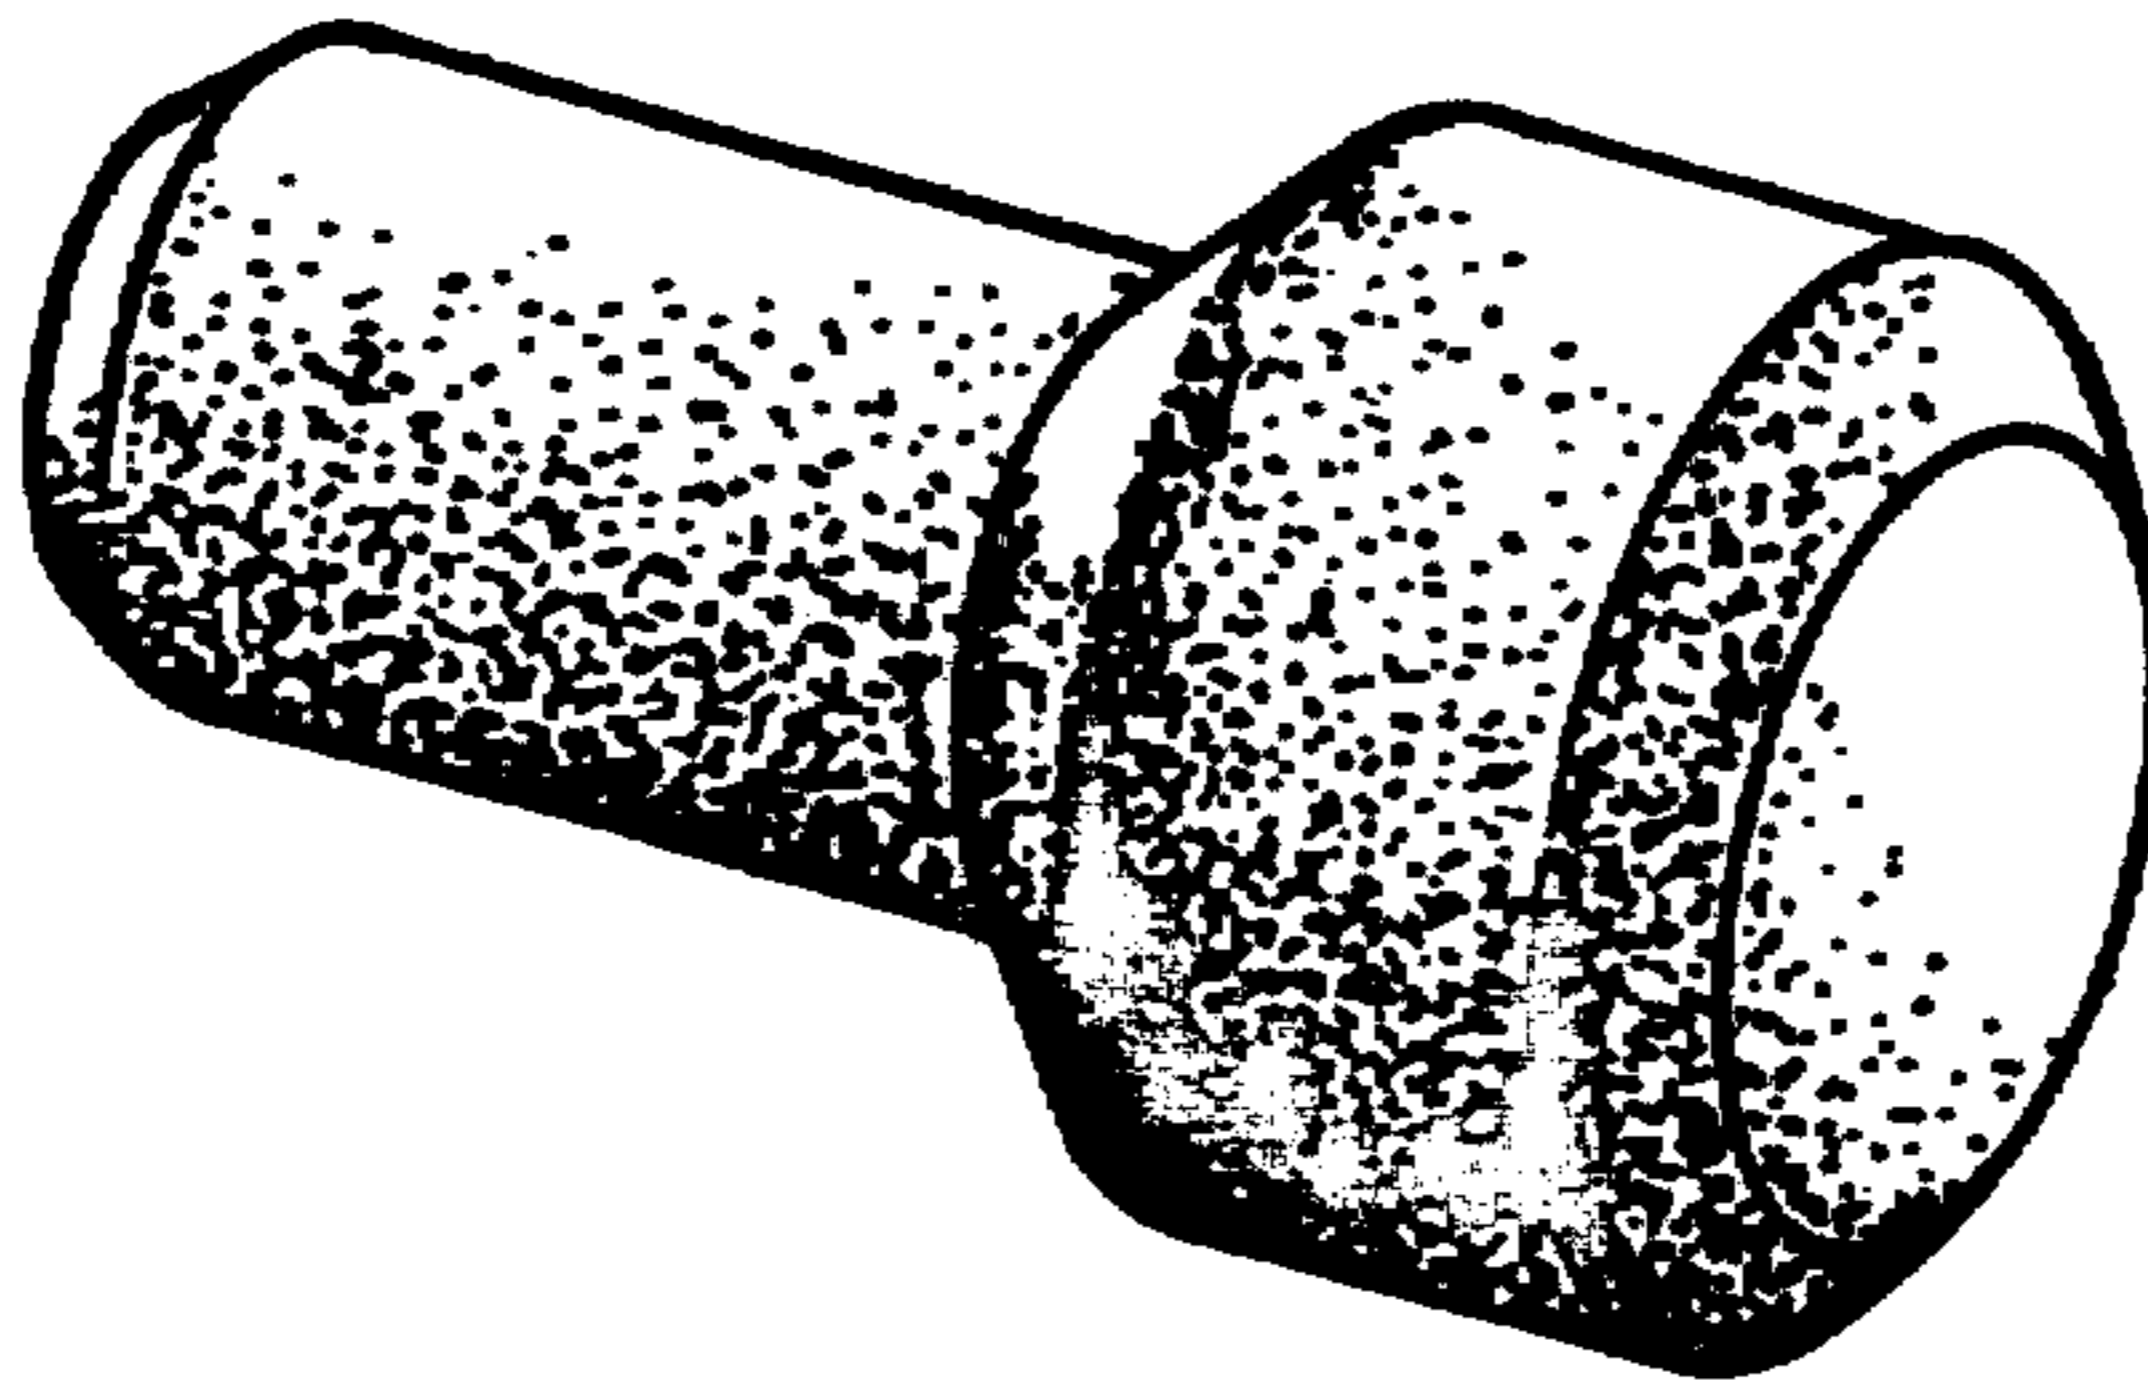

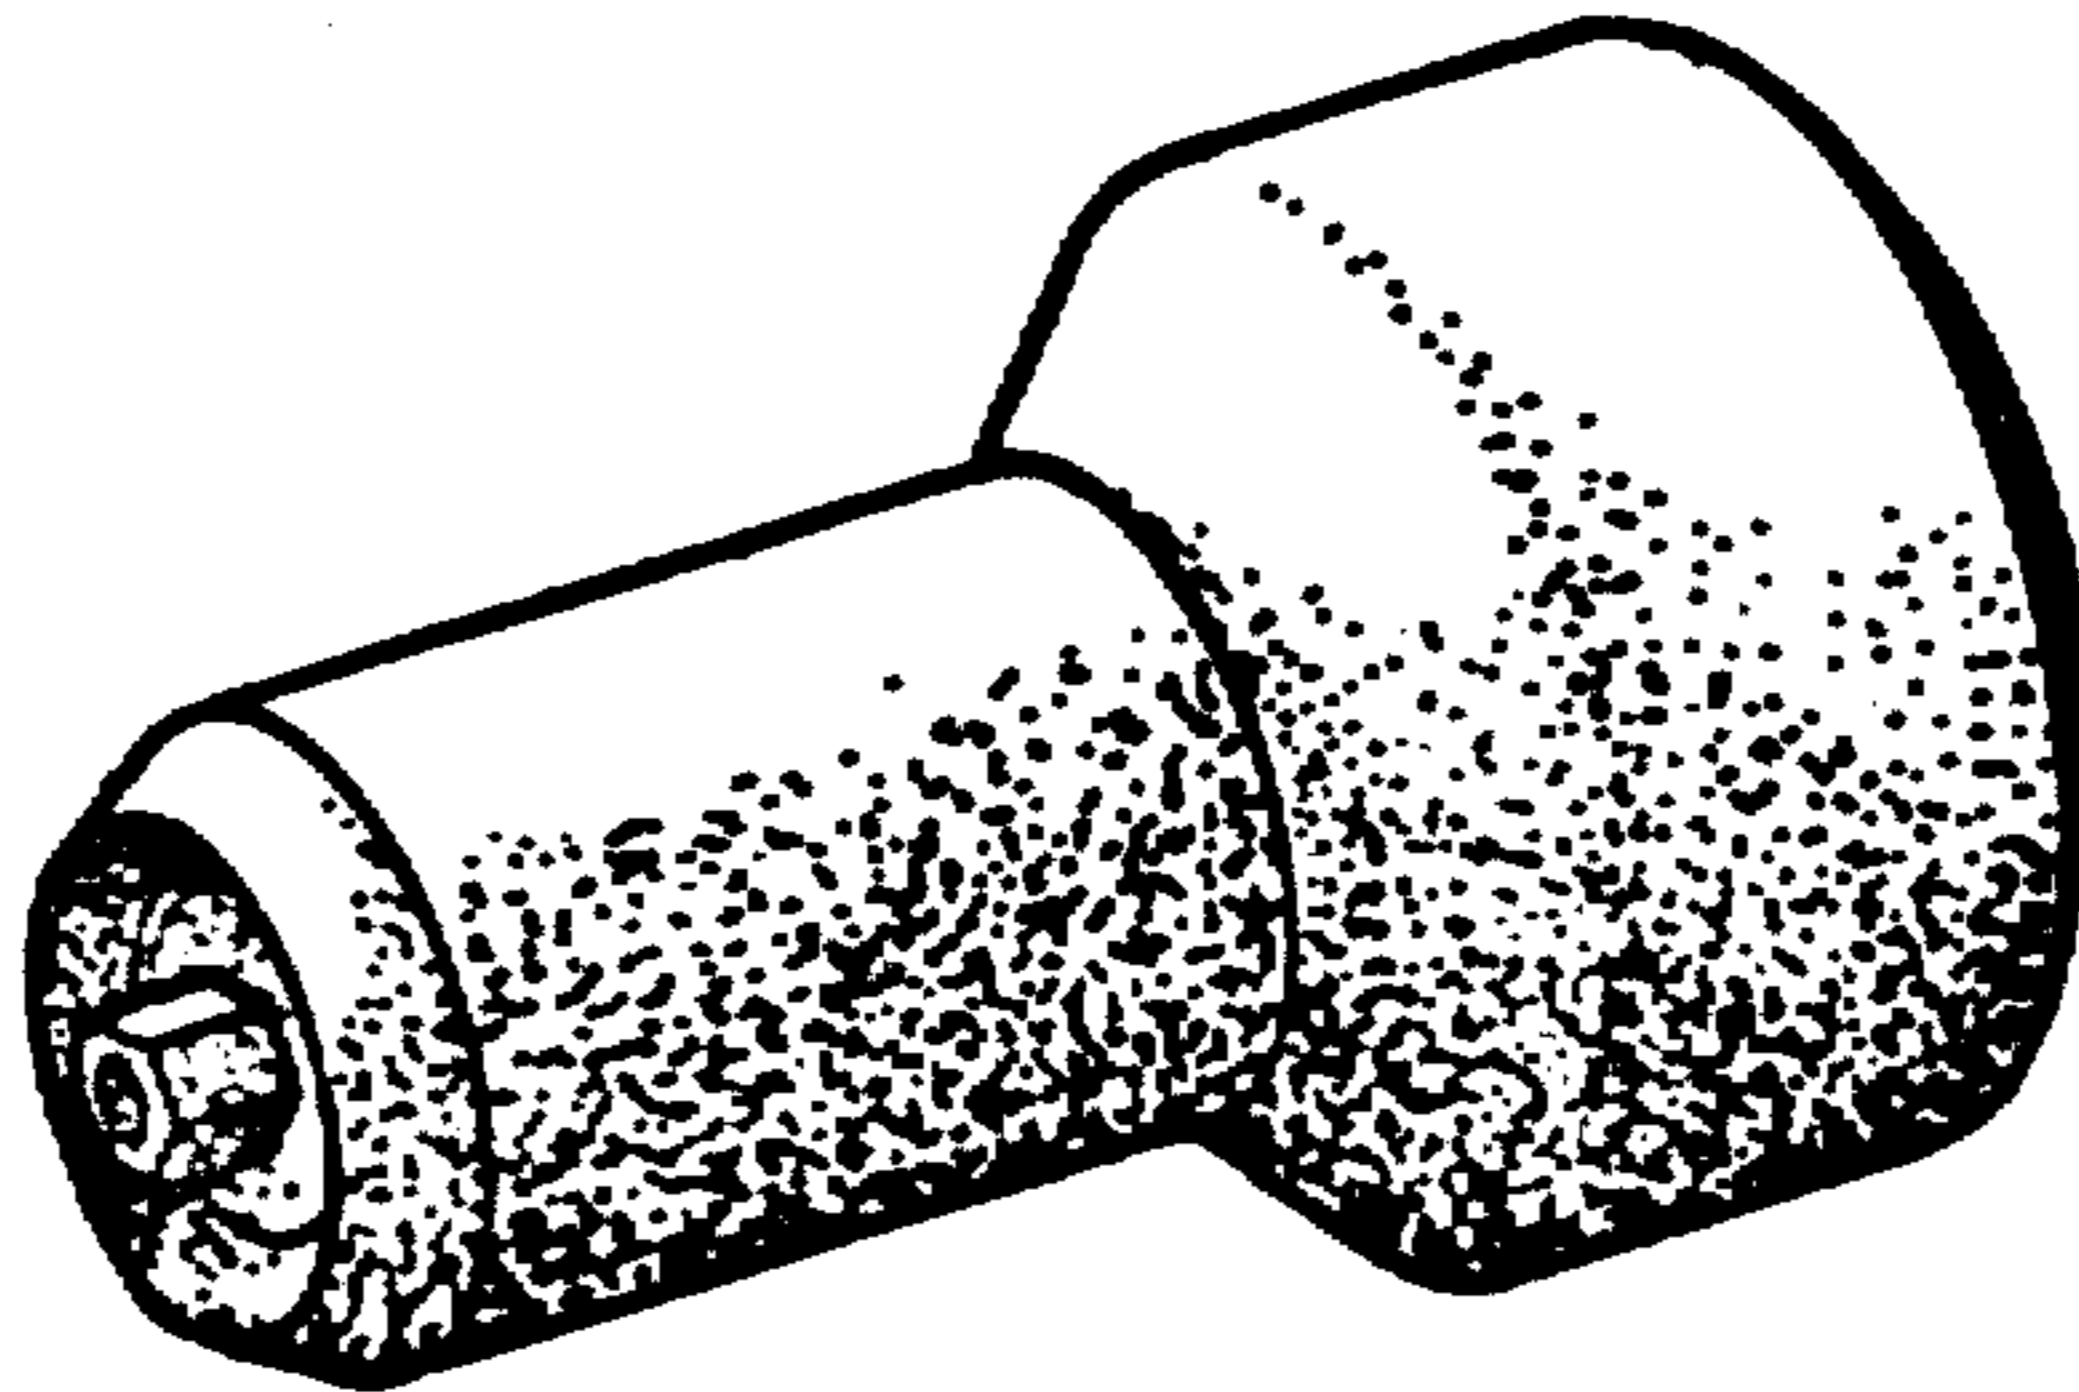

CLAIM

The ornamental design for an electronic transmitter device for use in the opening or closing of garage doors, as shown.

DESCRIPTION

FIG. 1 is a perspective view of the device taken from one end thereof, and

FIG. 2 is a perspective view of the device taken from the other end thereof.

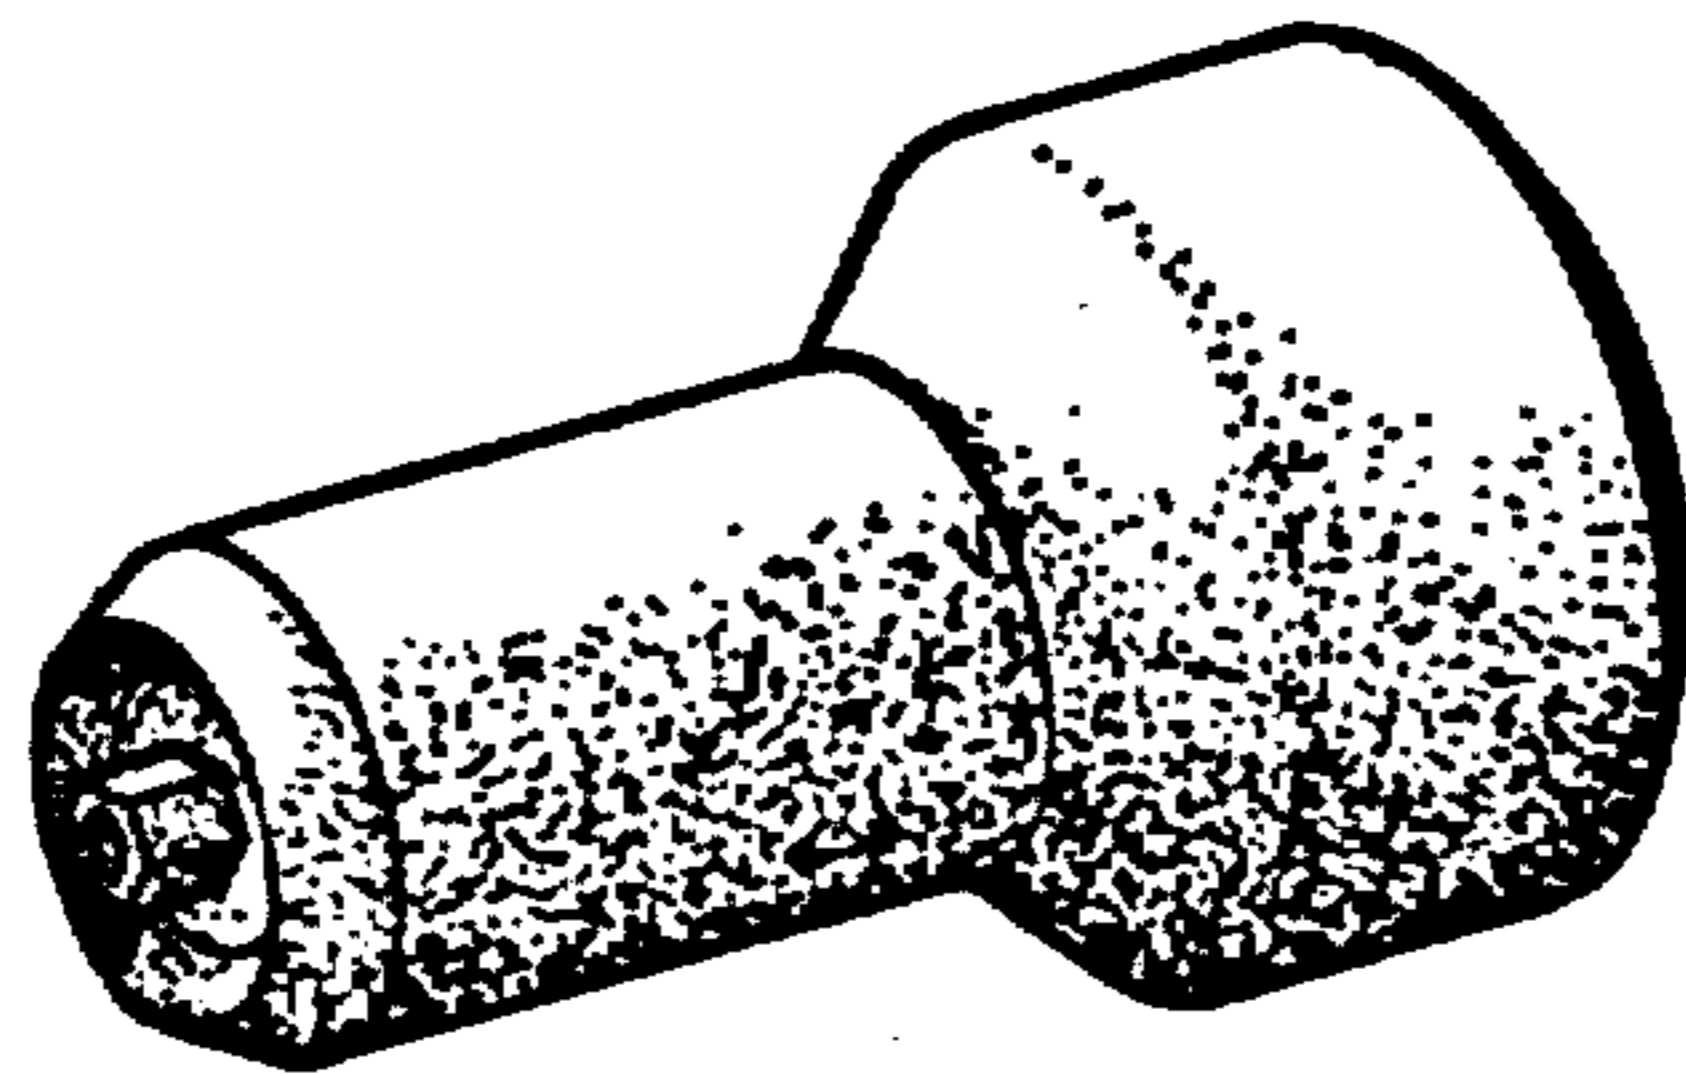

FIG. 1

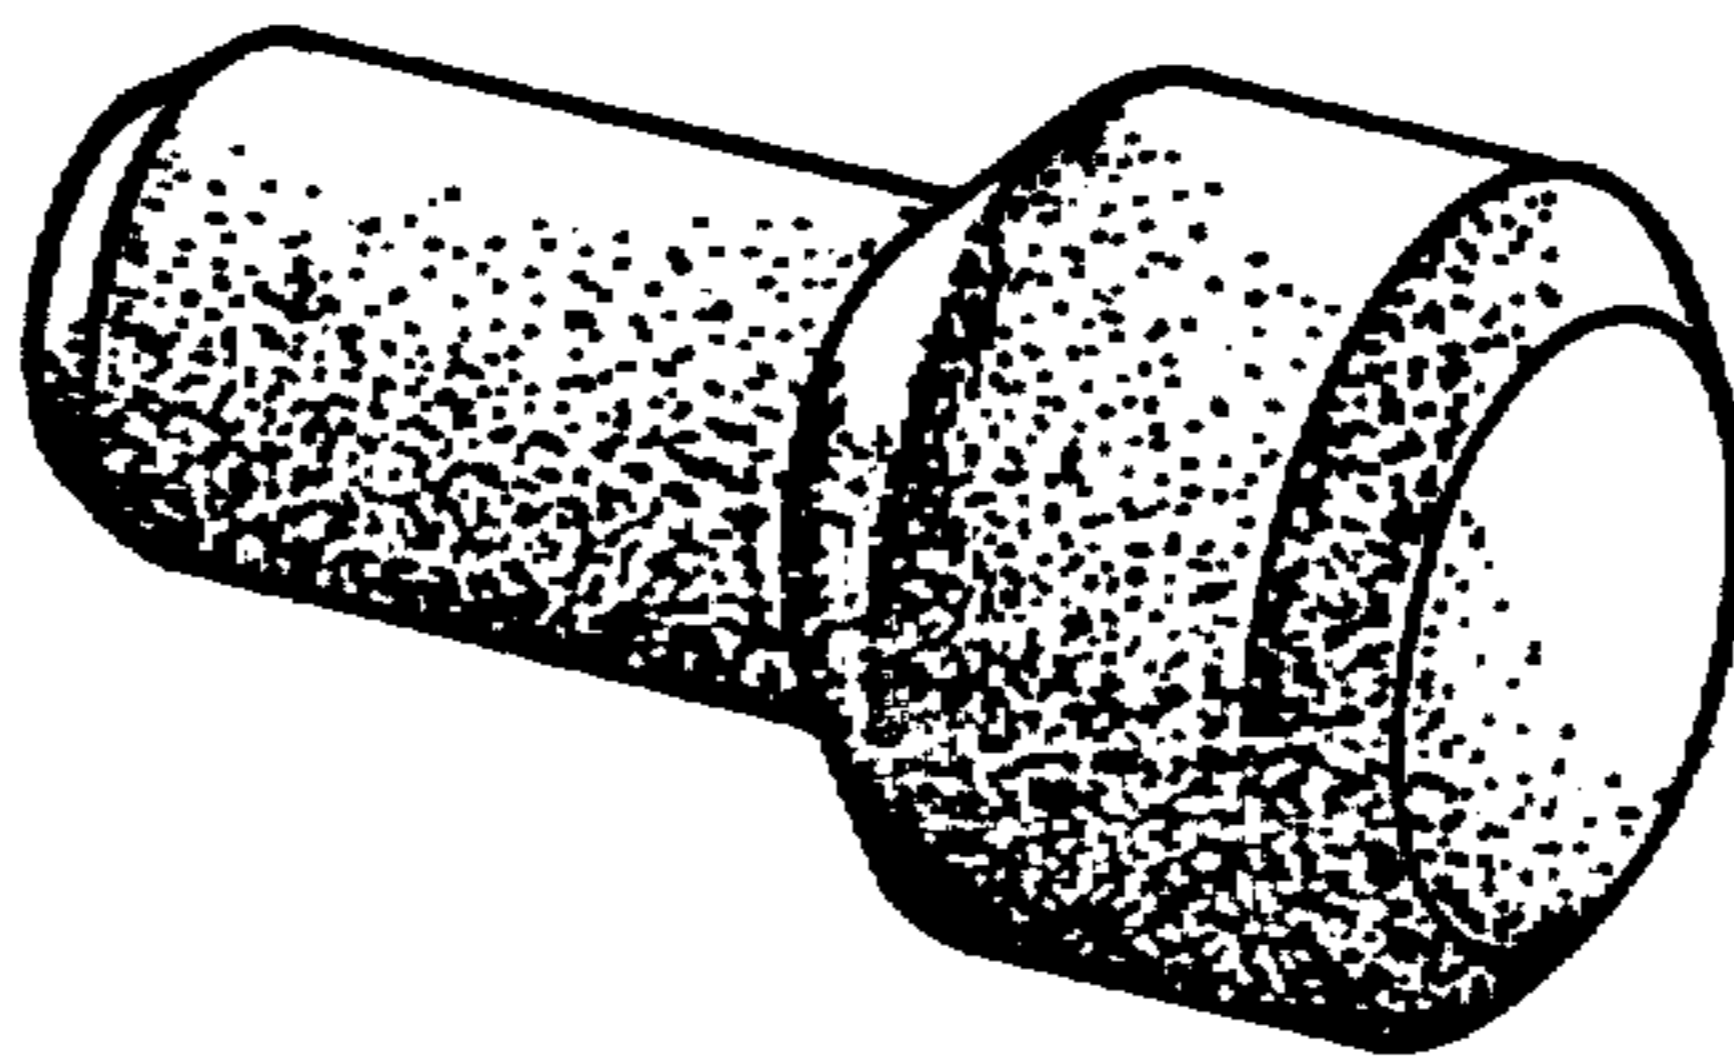

FIG. 2