

[54] NECKTIE

D. 175,465 8/1955 Gilson D10/33 X

[76] Inventor: John Joseph Knapman, Jays, 49A
Cricketers Lane, Herongate,
Brentwood, Essex CM13 3QB,
England

OTHER PUBLICATIONS

Interiors, 3-54, p. 55, Fabric "#74890 series."
Hosiery & Underwear Review, 8-59, p. 60, top left corner
Fabric, ice cream parlor print theme on fabric.
"A Man's World Gallery of Gifts" cat., p. 13, item
#A1809, Cuff Links.

[] Term: 14 Years

[21] Appl. No.: 725,362

[22] Filed: Sep. 22, 1976

Primary Examiner—Joel Stearman
Assistant Examiner—J. Corrigan
Attorney, Agent, or Firm—Hans Berman

[30] Foreign Application Priority Data

Mar. 29, 1976 [GB] United Kingdom 975100

[57] CLAIM

[51] Int. Cl. D2-05

[52] U.S. Cl. D2/357

[58] Field of Search D10/33; D2/343, 344,
D2/346-348, 350-356, 208, 209, 357; D6/265;
D59/1, 2 R, 2 B, 2 C; D92/1 R

The ornamental design for a necktie, as shown and described.

DESCRIPTION

The FIGURE is a front elevational view of a necktie showing my new design, the top being broken off for convenience of illustration. The essential feature of my design is the pattern outlined by intersecting broken lines, which pattern is repeated continuously on the necktie.

[56] References Cited

U.S. PATENT DOCUMENTS

D. 165,095 11/1951 Mitchell D2/357

