[57] CLAIM

The ornamental design for a bed canopy frame side rail, as shown and described.

DESCRIPTION

FIG. 1 is a top and side perspective view of a bed canopy frame side rail showing my new design;

FIG. 2 is an elevational view of the side of the rail opposite that of FIG. 1;

FIG. 3 is an enlarged fragmentary elevational view of an end of the rail; and

FIG. 4 is a fragmentary bottom perspective view of the end of the portion of the rail shown in FIG. 3.

The characteristic features of my design are the simulated wood-graining on the sides and the end configuration.
