[57] CLAIM

The ornamental design for a snubber for a retractable boat daggerboard, as shown and described.

DESCRIPTION

FIG. 1 is a rear perspective view of a snubber for a retractable boat dagger board showing my new design; FIG. 2 is a rear elevational view of FIG. 1; FIG. 3 is a front elevational view of FIG. 1; FIG. 4 is a top plan view of FIG. 1; FIG. 5 is a bottom plan view of FIG. 1; FIG. 6 is an elevational view of one side of FIG. 1, the opposite side being a mirror image, the broken horizontal line representing the deck of a boat and the broken vertical line representing the adjacent surface of a daggerboard being for illustrative purposes only and forming no part of the design; and FIG. 7 is a median vertical sectional view taken on the line 7-7 in FIG. 2, but with the cam rocked forwardly for jamming engagement between the resilient teeth on the front of the cam and the adjacent surface of a daggerboard represented by the broken vertical line, the broken vertical line and the broken horizontal line forming no part of the design.
