[57] CLAIM

The ornamental design for a drill tool or the like, as shown and described.

DESCRIPTION

FIG. 1 is a side elevational view of the drill tool or the like illustrating one embodiment of the new design and showing the cutting portion of the tool in phantom;

FIG. 2 is a top end view of the tool of FIG. 1;

FIG. 3 is a sectional view taken along the lines 3—3 of FIG. 1;

FIG. 4 is a partial elevational view of the right side of the tool of FIG. 1;

FIG. 5 is a side elevational view of the tool illustrating a second embodiment of the new design and showing the cutting portion of the tool of the type shown in FIG. 1 partially in phantom;

FIG. 6 is a top end view of the tool of FIG. 5;

FIG. 7 is a sectional view taken along the line 7—7 of FIG. 5; and

FIG. 8 is a partial elevational view of the left side of the tool of FIG. 5.

The phantom representation of the cutting portion of a drill bit is made in the drawings merely for the purpose of illustrating the environment in which this invention is used. The structure shown in broken lines is not part of the design sought to be patented.
