CLAIM

The ornamental design for tab cards for a card file, as shown and described.

DESCRIPTION

FIG. 1 is a front elevational view of a tab card for a card file showing my new design, said card having a left-hand tab, and
 FIG. 2 is a front elevational view of an alternate form of the tab card for a card file, said card having a right-hand tab.
 The rear elevational views of the tab card of FIGS. 1 and 2 are mirror images respectively of the front elevational views shown in FIGS. 1 and 2.
 The tab card for a card file is of conventional thickness. The design is characterized by the curved top of the card in combination with the inclined arrangement of the tab.
