[57] CLAIM

The ornamental design for a chair, as shown and described.

DESCRIPTION

FIG. 1 is a front perspective view of a chair showing my design;

FIG. 2 is a front perspective view of a second embodiment thereof;

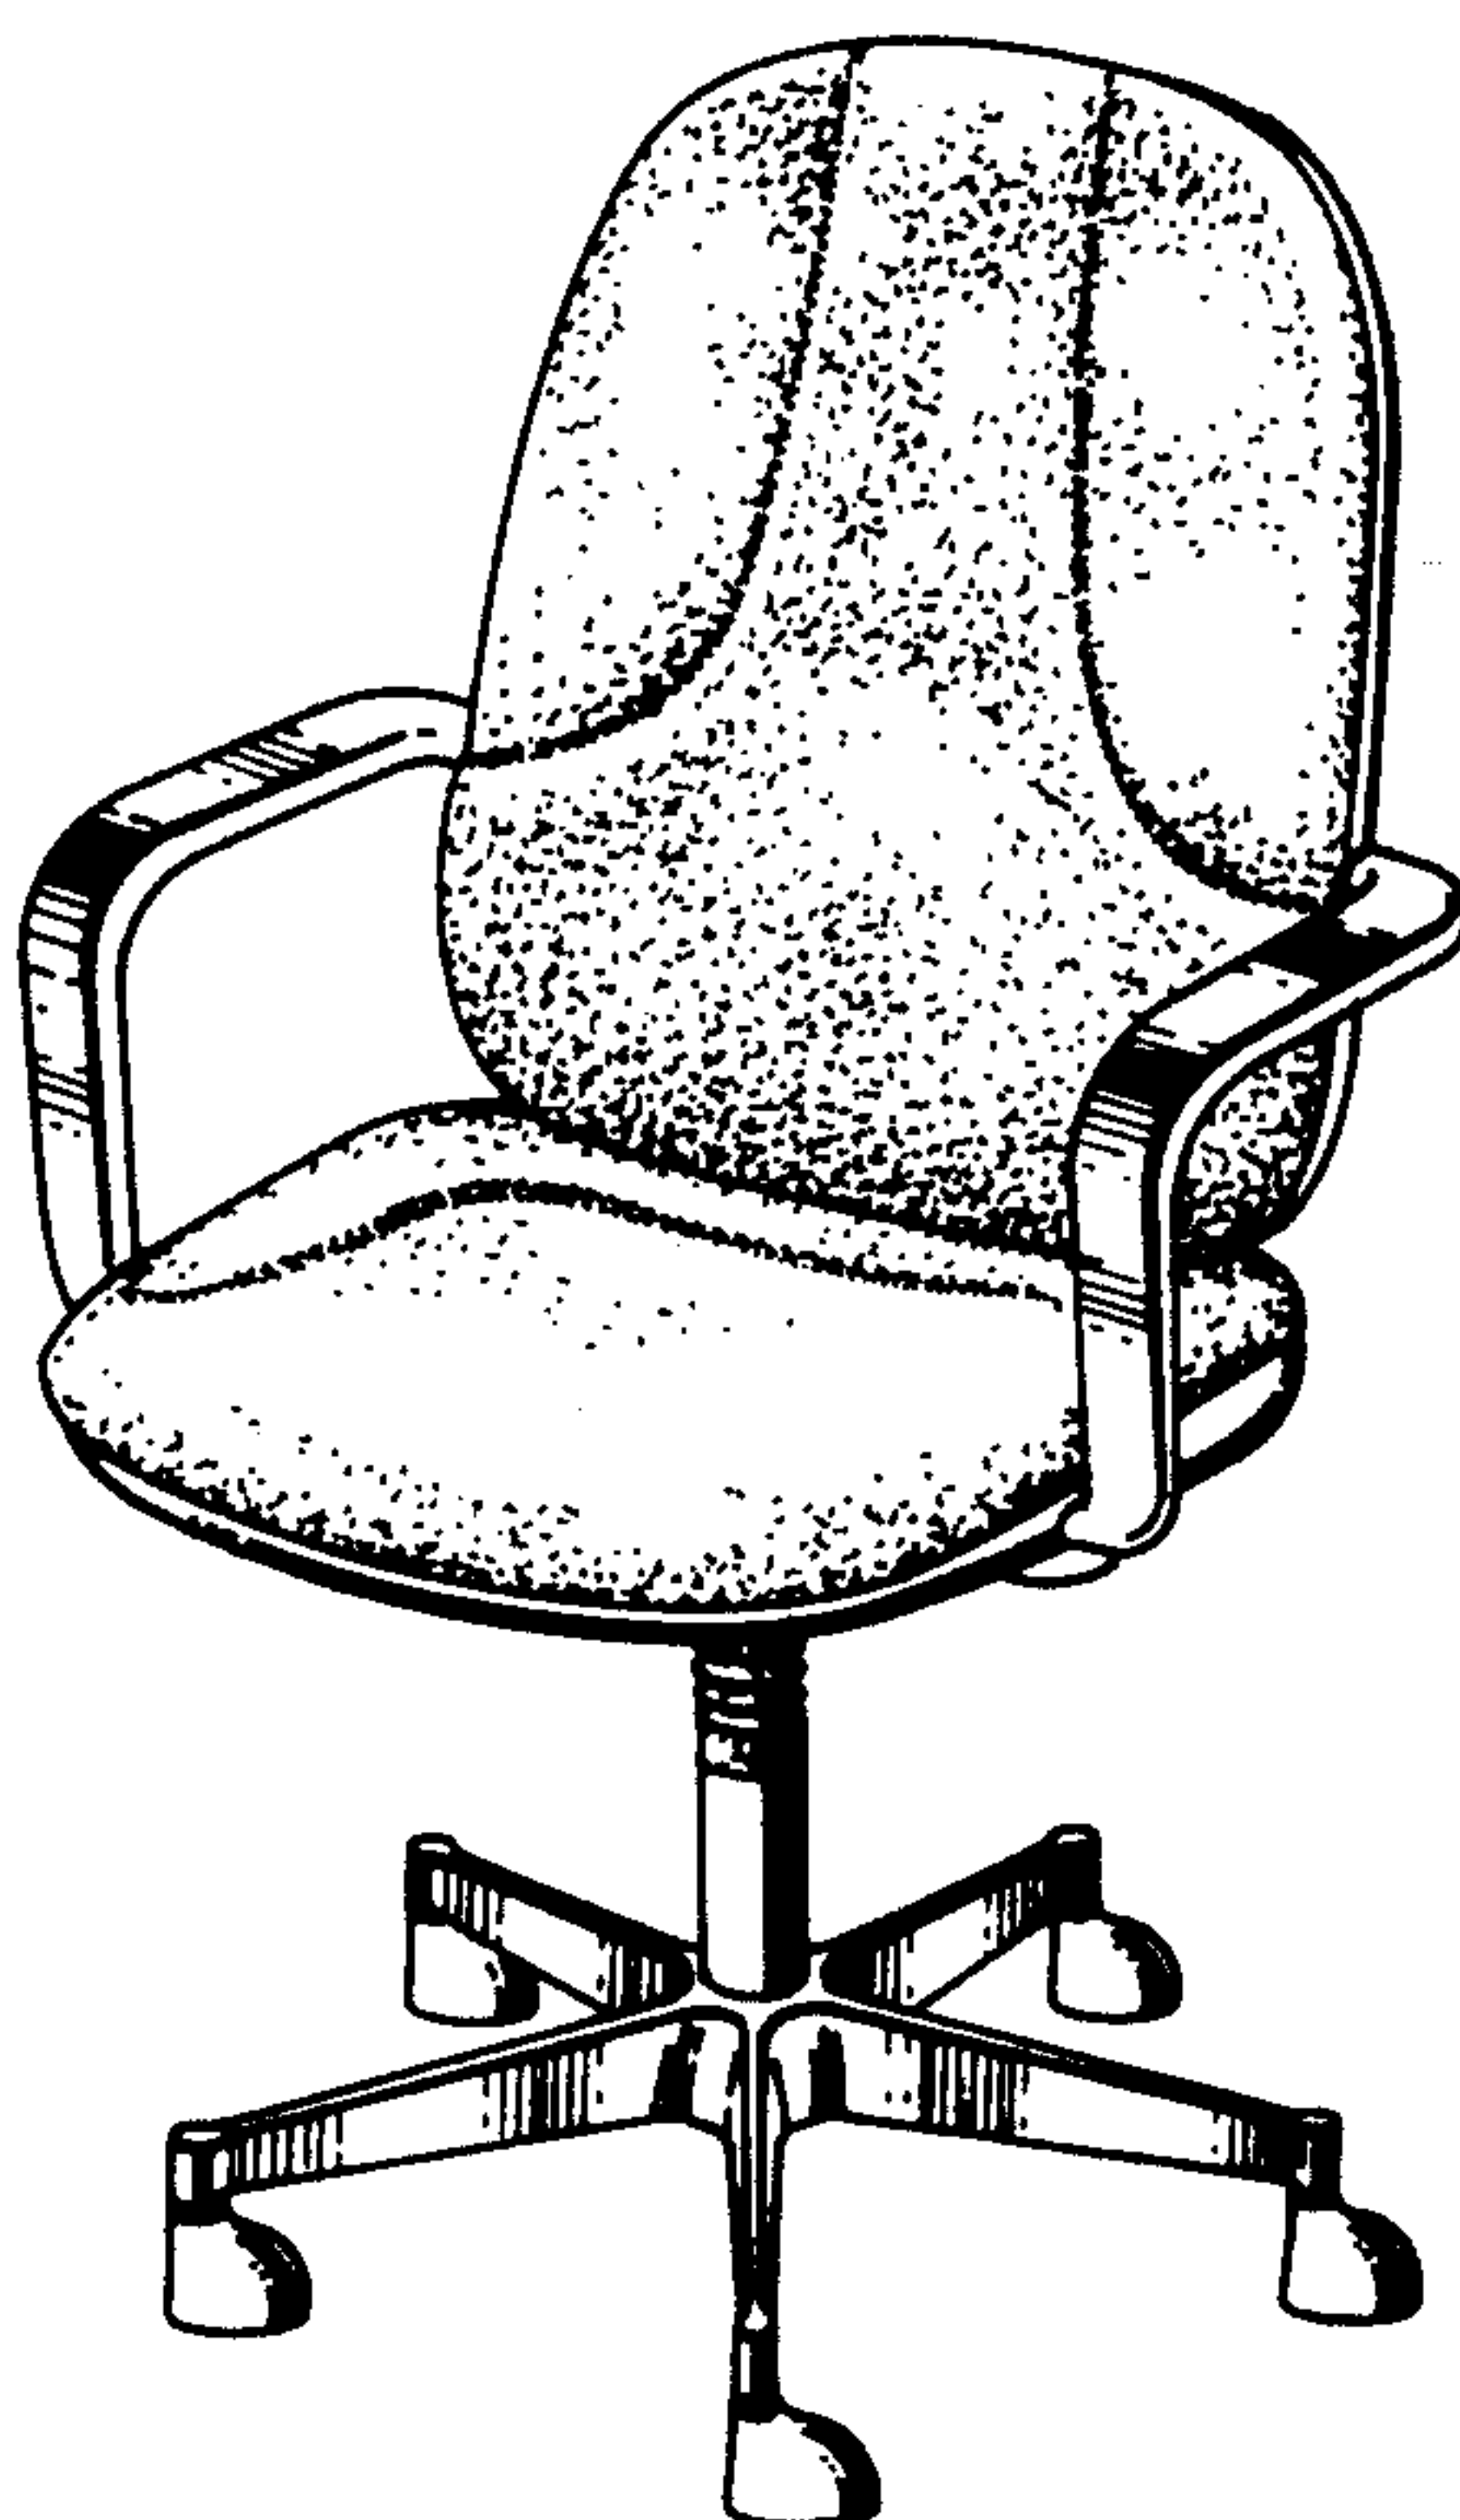

FIG. 3 is a front perspective view of a third embodiment of the chair being similar to the chair of FIG. 2 but wherein the armrests have been omitted;

FIG. 4 is an opposite hand front perspective view of the embodiment shown in FIG. 1; and

FIG. 5 is a rear perspective view of the chair embodiment shown in FIG. 3 but drawn to a reduced scale.

The appearance of the back rests not shown in FIGS. 1, 2 and 4 is similar to that shown in FIG. 5.

The invention is characterized by the ornamental design of its upholstered back cushion in which symmetrically contoured depressions extend from the central portion of the side edges of the back cushion smoothly inward toward its center and then up to its top edges, and of its seat cushions in which a symmetrically contoured raised portion extends partially along its side edges and beneath the back cushion.
