[57] CLAIM

The ornamental design for a portable expanding file case, as shown and described.

DESCRIPTION

FIG. 1 is a front perspective view of the portable expanding file case showing my new design;
FIG. 2 is a rear perspective view of the portable expanding file case;
FIG. 3 is a side elevational view of the portable expanding file case; and
FIG. 4 is an end view of the portable expanding file case.

The design of the portable expanding file case is characterized by a handle and closing catch and concertina side walls capable of expansion and contraction. A metal reinforcing strip is provided on the closing flap of the case.
