[57] CLAIM

The ornamental design for a skirt for agricultural machines for moving fodder, as shown and described.

DESCRIPTION

FIG. 1 is a top plan view of a skirt for agricultural machines for moving fodder, showing my new design; FIG. 2 is a top plan view of a skirt for agricultural machines for moving fodder, showing a second embodiment of my new design; FIG. 3 is a side elevational view of the embodiment of FIG. 1; and FIG. 4 is a side elevational view of the embodiment of FIG. 2.

The bottom of the two embodiments of the skirt is understood to be plain and unornamented and the circumferentially opposing bottom serrated edges of the skirt have been omitted in the side elevational views of FIGS. 3 and 4 for convenience of illustration.
