[57] CLAIM

The ornamental design for an expandable multi-compartment bag, as shown and described.

DESCRIPTION

FIG. 1 is a side elevational view of one side of an expandable multi-compartment bag showing my new design in its folded and closed position;

FIG. 2 is a side elevational view of the other side of the bag, the bag being shown in its folded and closed position;

FIG. 3 is a left end view of the bag as shown in its folded and closed position;

FIG. 4 is a right end view of the bag as shown in its folded and closed position;

FIG. 5 is a top plan view of the bag as shown in its folded and closed position;

FIG. 6 is a bottom plan view of the bag as shown in its folded and closed position;

FIG. 7 is a side elevational view of one side of the bag in its unfolded and expanded position, the bag being shown with a shoulder strap;

FIG. 8 is a side elevational view of the other side of the bag, the bag being shown in its unfolded and expanded position, but with the shoulder strap being broken away;

FIG. 9 is an end view of the bag in its unfolded and expanded position, but with the shoulder strap being broken away, other end view of the bag being a mirror image of this view;

FIG. 10 is a top plan view of the bag in its unfolded and expanded position but with the shoulder strap being omitted; and

FIG. 11 is a bottom plan view of the bag in its unfolded and expanded position.
