[57] CLAIM

The ornamental design for an enclosure for data processing system, as shown and described.

DESCRIPTION

FIG. 1 is a perspective view of an enclosure for a data processing system showing our new design; FIG. 2 is a second embodiment thereof. The top, rear, unshown side, and bottom of the illustrated enclosures for the data processing system of FIGS. 1 and 2 are substantially plain and unornamental, except for the front (as shown) edges of the top and bottom which follow the respective contours defined by the illustrated front panels.
