The ornamental design for a resuscitator for newborn animals, as shown and described.

[22] Filed: Jun. 3, 1983

DESCRIPTION

[52] U.S. Cl. D29/7; D23/161; D24/8; D24/62; D24/99; D29/8; D30/99

FIG. 1 is a side elevation view of a resuscitator for newborn animals showing my new design; FIG. 2 is a left-hand end view thereof; and FIG. 3 is a right-hand end view thereof.

[58] Field of Search D29/7, 8; D30/99; D23/161; D24/8, 62, 99, 23; 128/205.13, 205.17, 914; 272/99 R

Except for the appearance of the hexagonal nut in FIG. 1, the appearance of the elevation view of the design as shown in FIG. 1 is the same when viewed from any angle about the longitudinal axis thereof. The plate between the bellows and the central member is plain on both sides; the surface of the right end of the central member adjacent the hexagonal nut is plain; and the surface of the left-hand end of the right-hand member is plain.
