[57] CLAIM

The ornamental design for a pitching horseshoe, substantially as shown and described.

DESCRIPTION

FIG. 1 is a perspective view of a pitching horseshoe showing my new design.

FIG. 2 is a side elevation thereof.

FIG. 3 is an end elevation taken from the right of FIG. 2.

The side opposite FIG. 1 is unornamented. The characteristic feature of my design resides in the calkers being on the opposite side of the horseshow from the toe plate.
