[57] CLAIM

The ornamental design of an closet rod support, substantially as shown and described.

DESCRIPTION

FIG. 1 is a front perspective view of a closet rod support of my design showing one front side surface; FIG. 2 is an enlarged partial rear side elevational view of the upper portion of the design of the closet rod support shown in FIG. 1, with intermediate parts and lower parts broken away for convenience, and is a mirror image of the front side surface with the exception of an enlarged flat surface boss area immediately below the hook portion; FIG. 3 is an enlarged partial rear side elevational view of a second embodiment of the design of a closet rod support of FIGS. 1 and 2, shown broken away for convenience, the only difference being the use of a circular closed opening for the upper suspension means; FIG. 4 is a front side elevational view of the second embodiment of the design of the closet rod support of FIG. 3 having a circular closed opening for the upper suspension means; FIG. 5 is an enlarged partial front side elevational view of the lower portion of the closet rod support of FIGS. 1-4, with parts broken away for convenience; FIG. 6 is a sectional view taken in the direction of the arrows on line 6-6 of FIG. 5; and FIG. 7 is a sectional view taken in the direction of the arrows on line 7-7 of FIG. 5.
