CLAIM

[57] The ornamental design for a desk telephone set, as shown and described.

DESCRIPTION

FIG. 1 is a front, top and right side perspective view of a desk telephone set showing our new design;

FIG. 2 is a top plan view thereof;

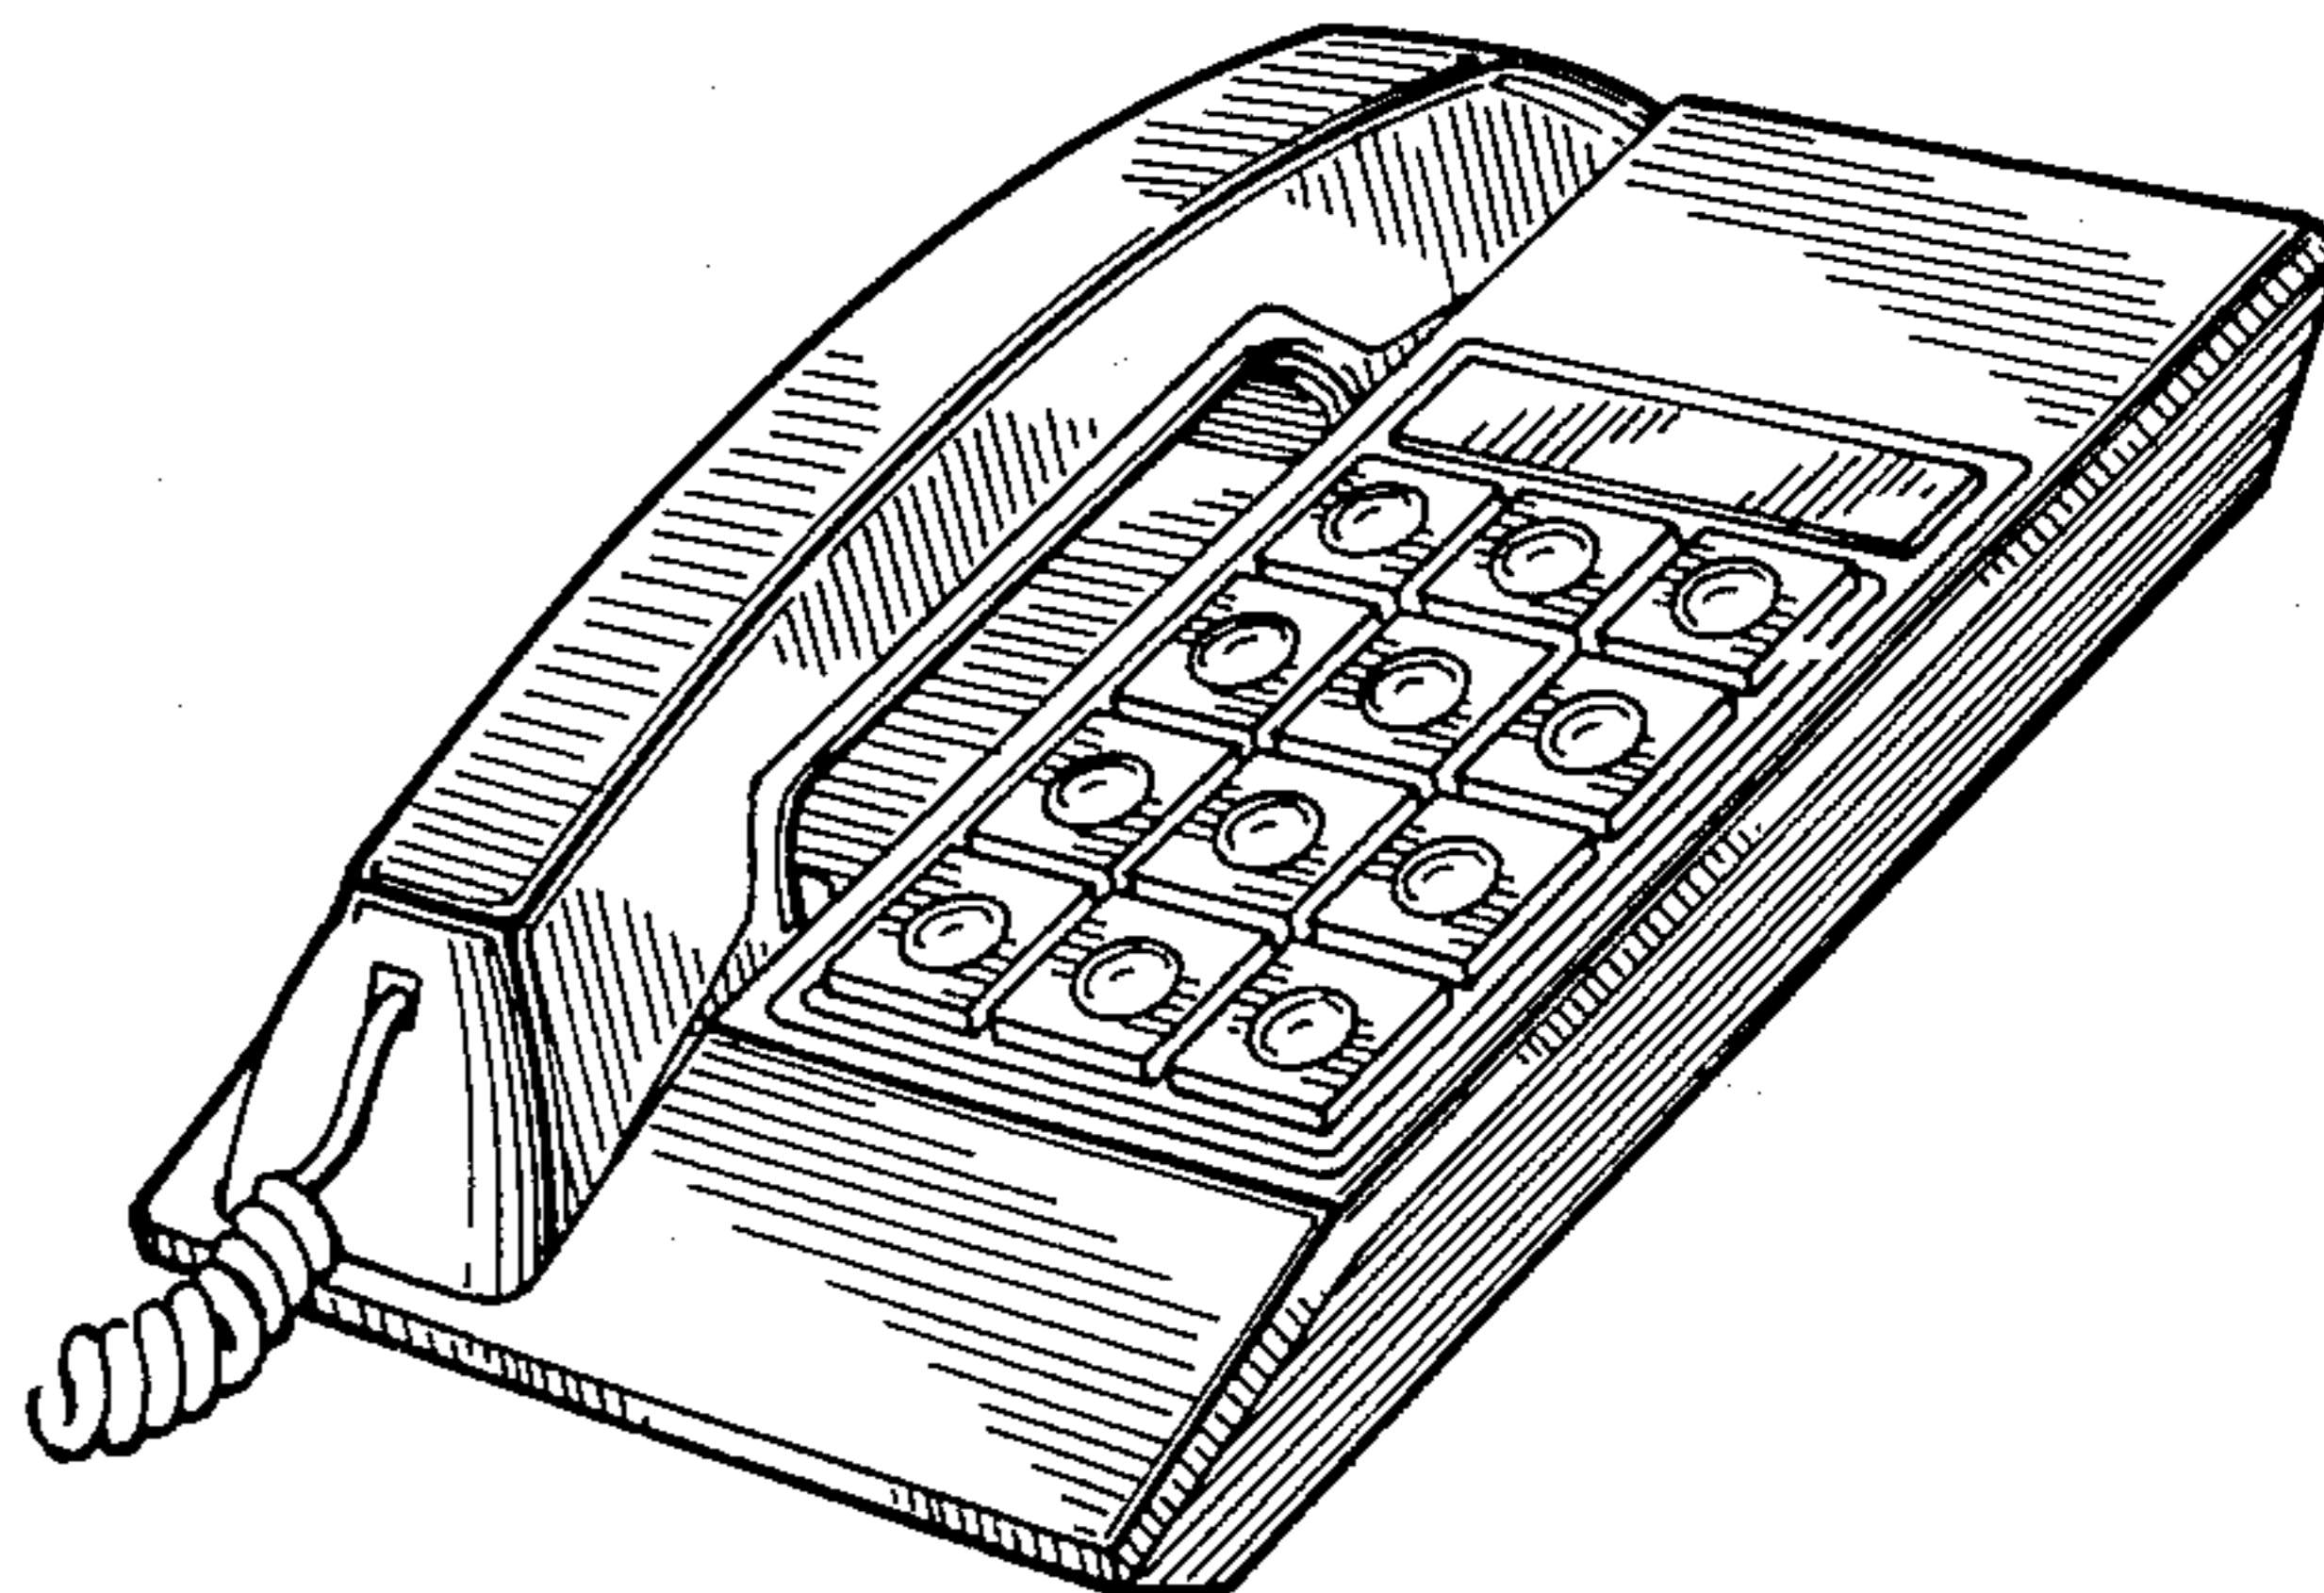

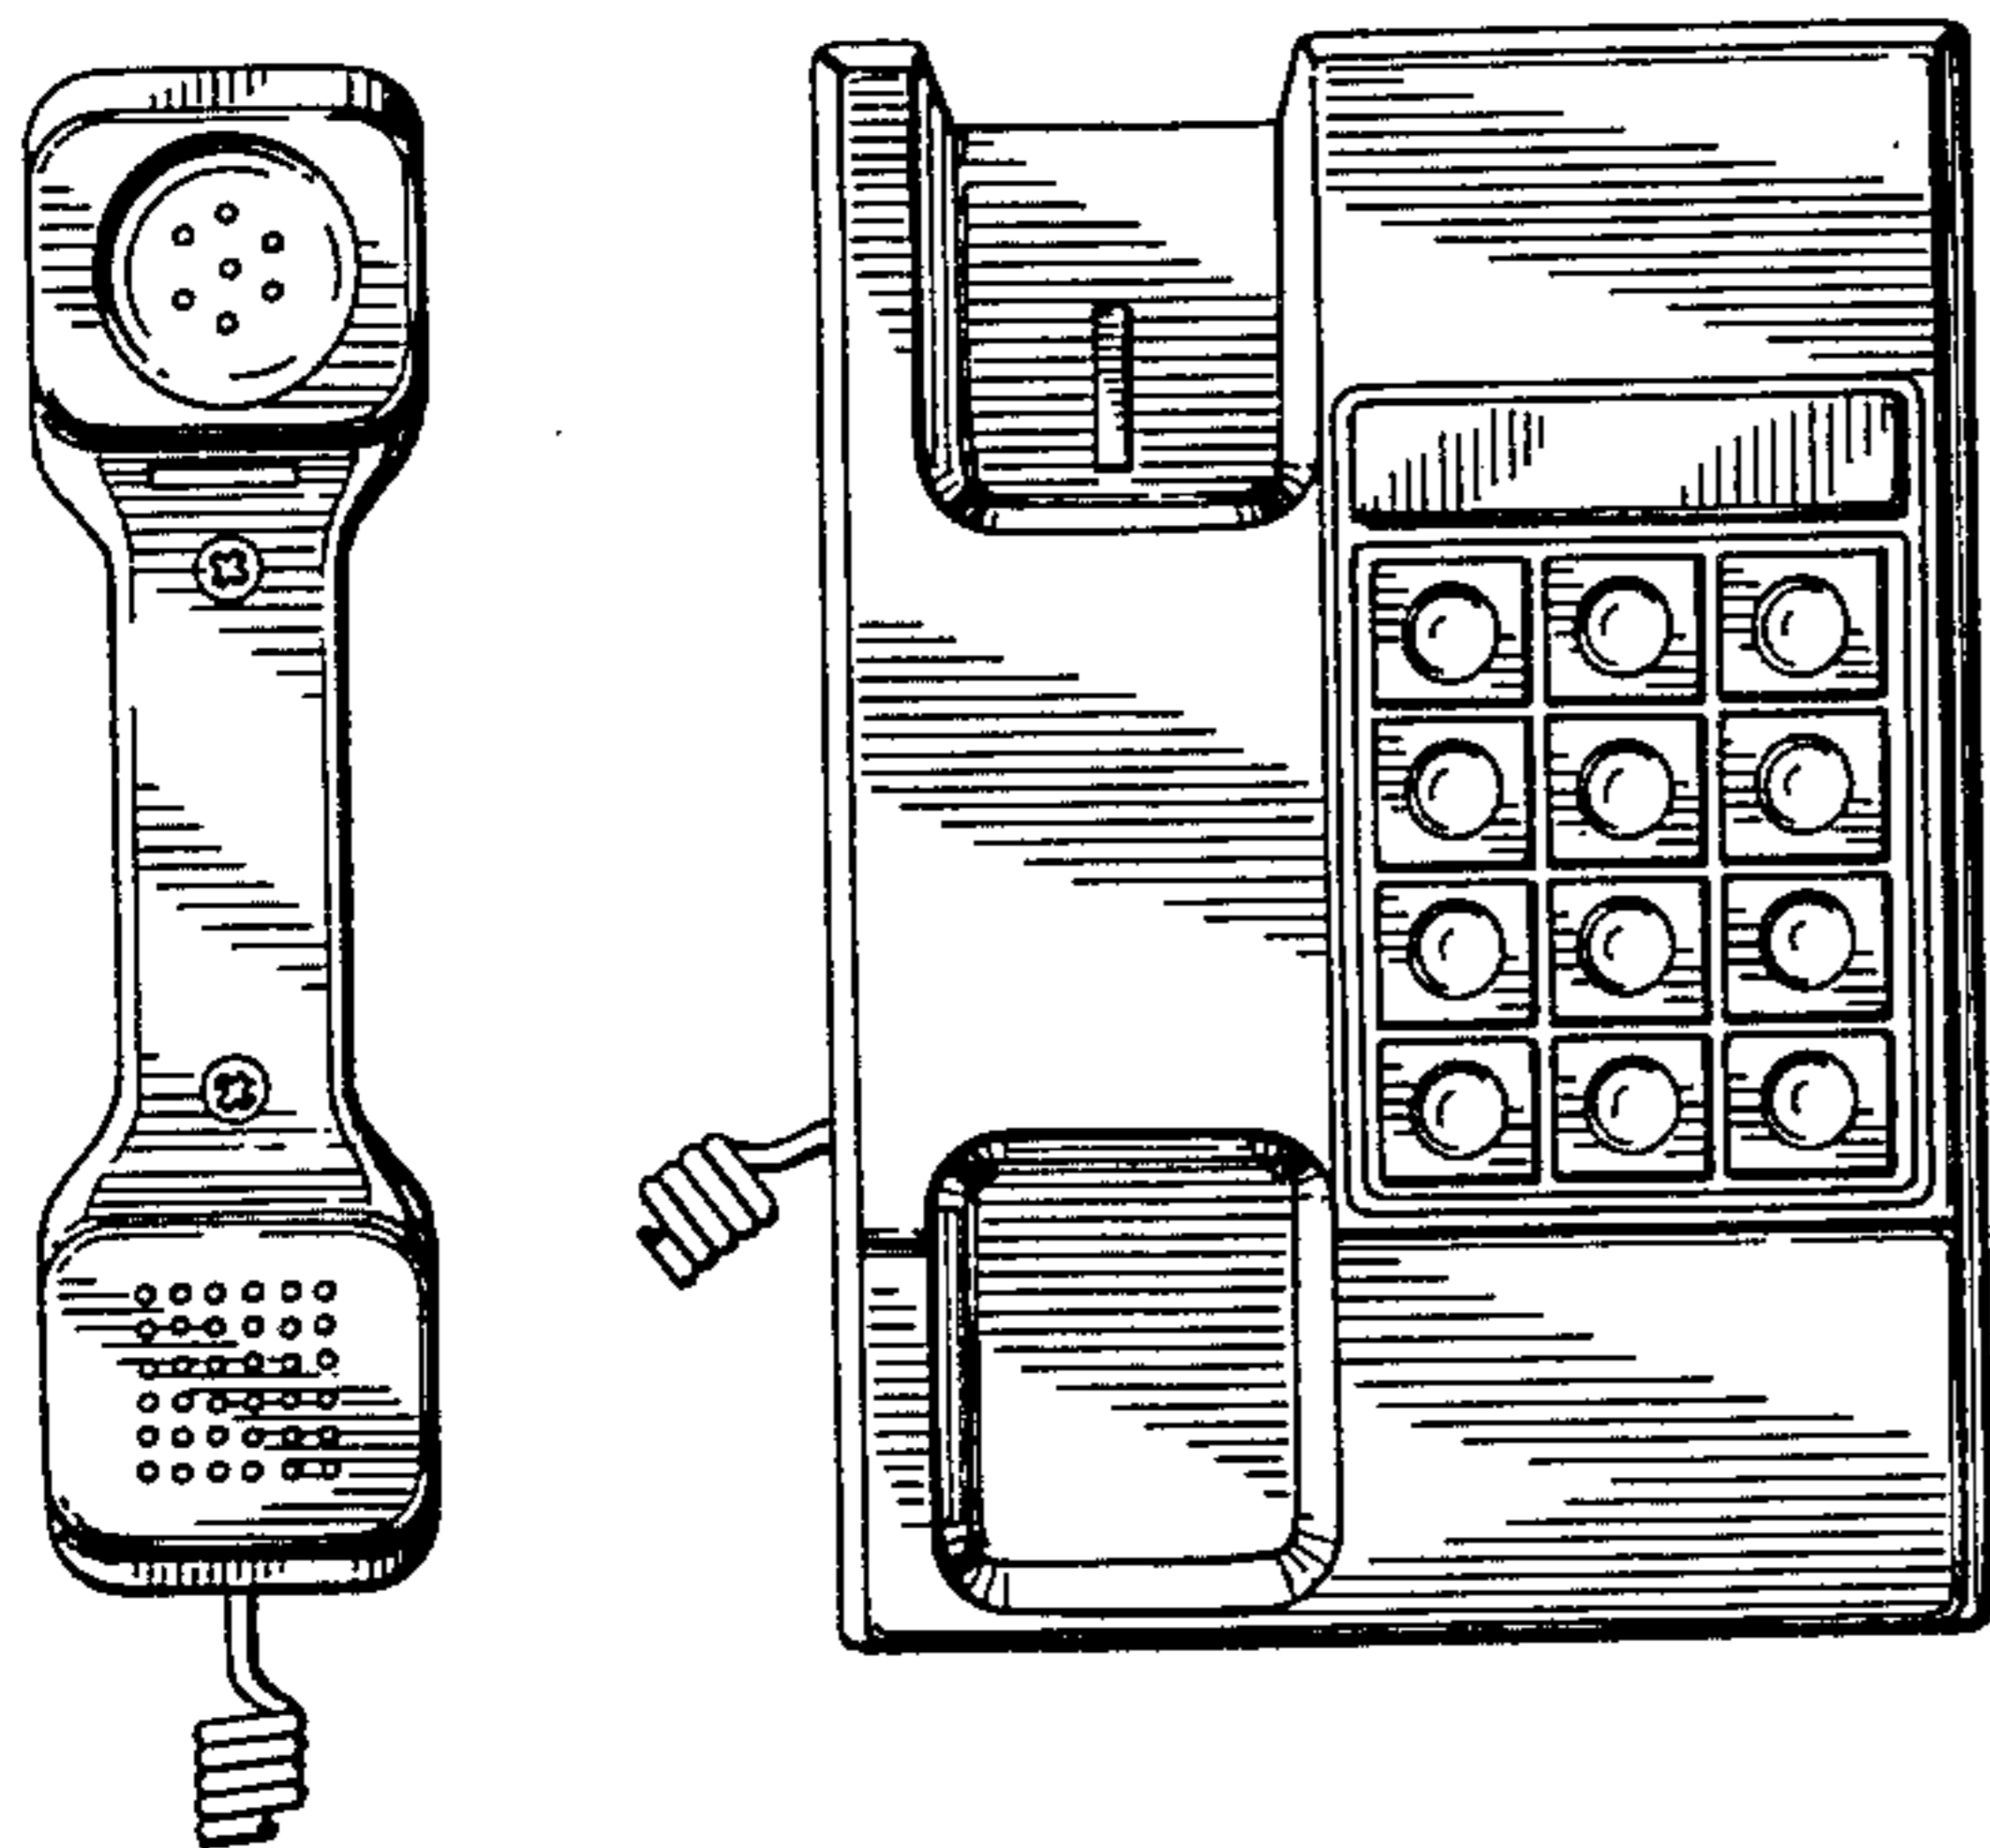

FIGS. 3 and 4 are, respectively, front and rear elevational views thereof;

FIGS. 5 and 6 are, respectively, left and right side elevational views thereof;

FIG. 7 is a bracketed top plan view of the stand and a bottom plan view of the receiver of the set, shown in associated relationship;

FIGS. 8 and 9 are, respectively, front and rear elevational views of the stand alone; and

FIG. 10 is a perspective view of a second embodiment represented in the stand alone, taken from above and turned 180 degrees from the view shown in FIG. 1; it being understood that the second embodiment is substantially identical to the first, the sole difference being four small rectangular buttons shown within a larger rectangular panel above the pushbutton dial pattern, whereas the corresponding panel above the dial in FIG. 1 of the first embodiment is vacant.
