[57] CLAIM

The ornamental design for a blank for a hexagonal tray, substantially as shown and described.

DESCRIPTION

FIG. 1 is a top plan view of a blank for a hexagonal tray embodying my new design, the bottom plan view being a mirror image thereof; and, FIG. 2 is a front elevational edge view, the rear and side elevational views being the same in appearance. The dash lines represent fold lines and the solid lines within the blank structure represent cut lines.

FIG 2.
