[57] CLAIM

The ornamental design for a seat, as shown and described.

DESCRIPTION

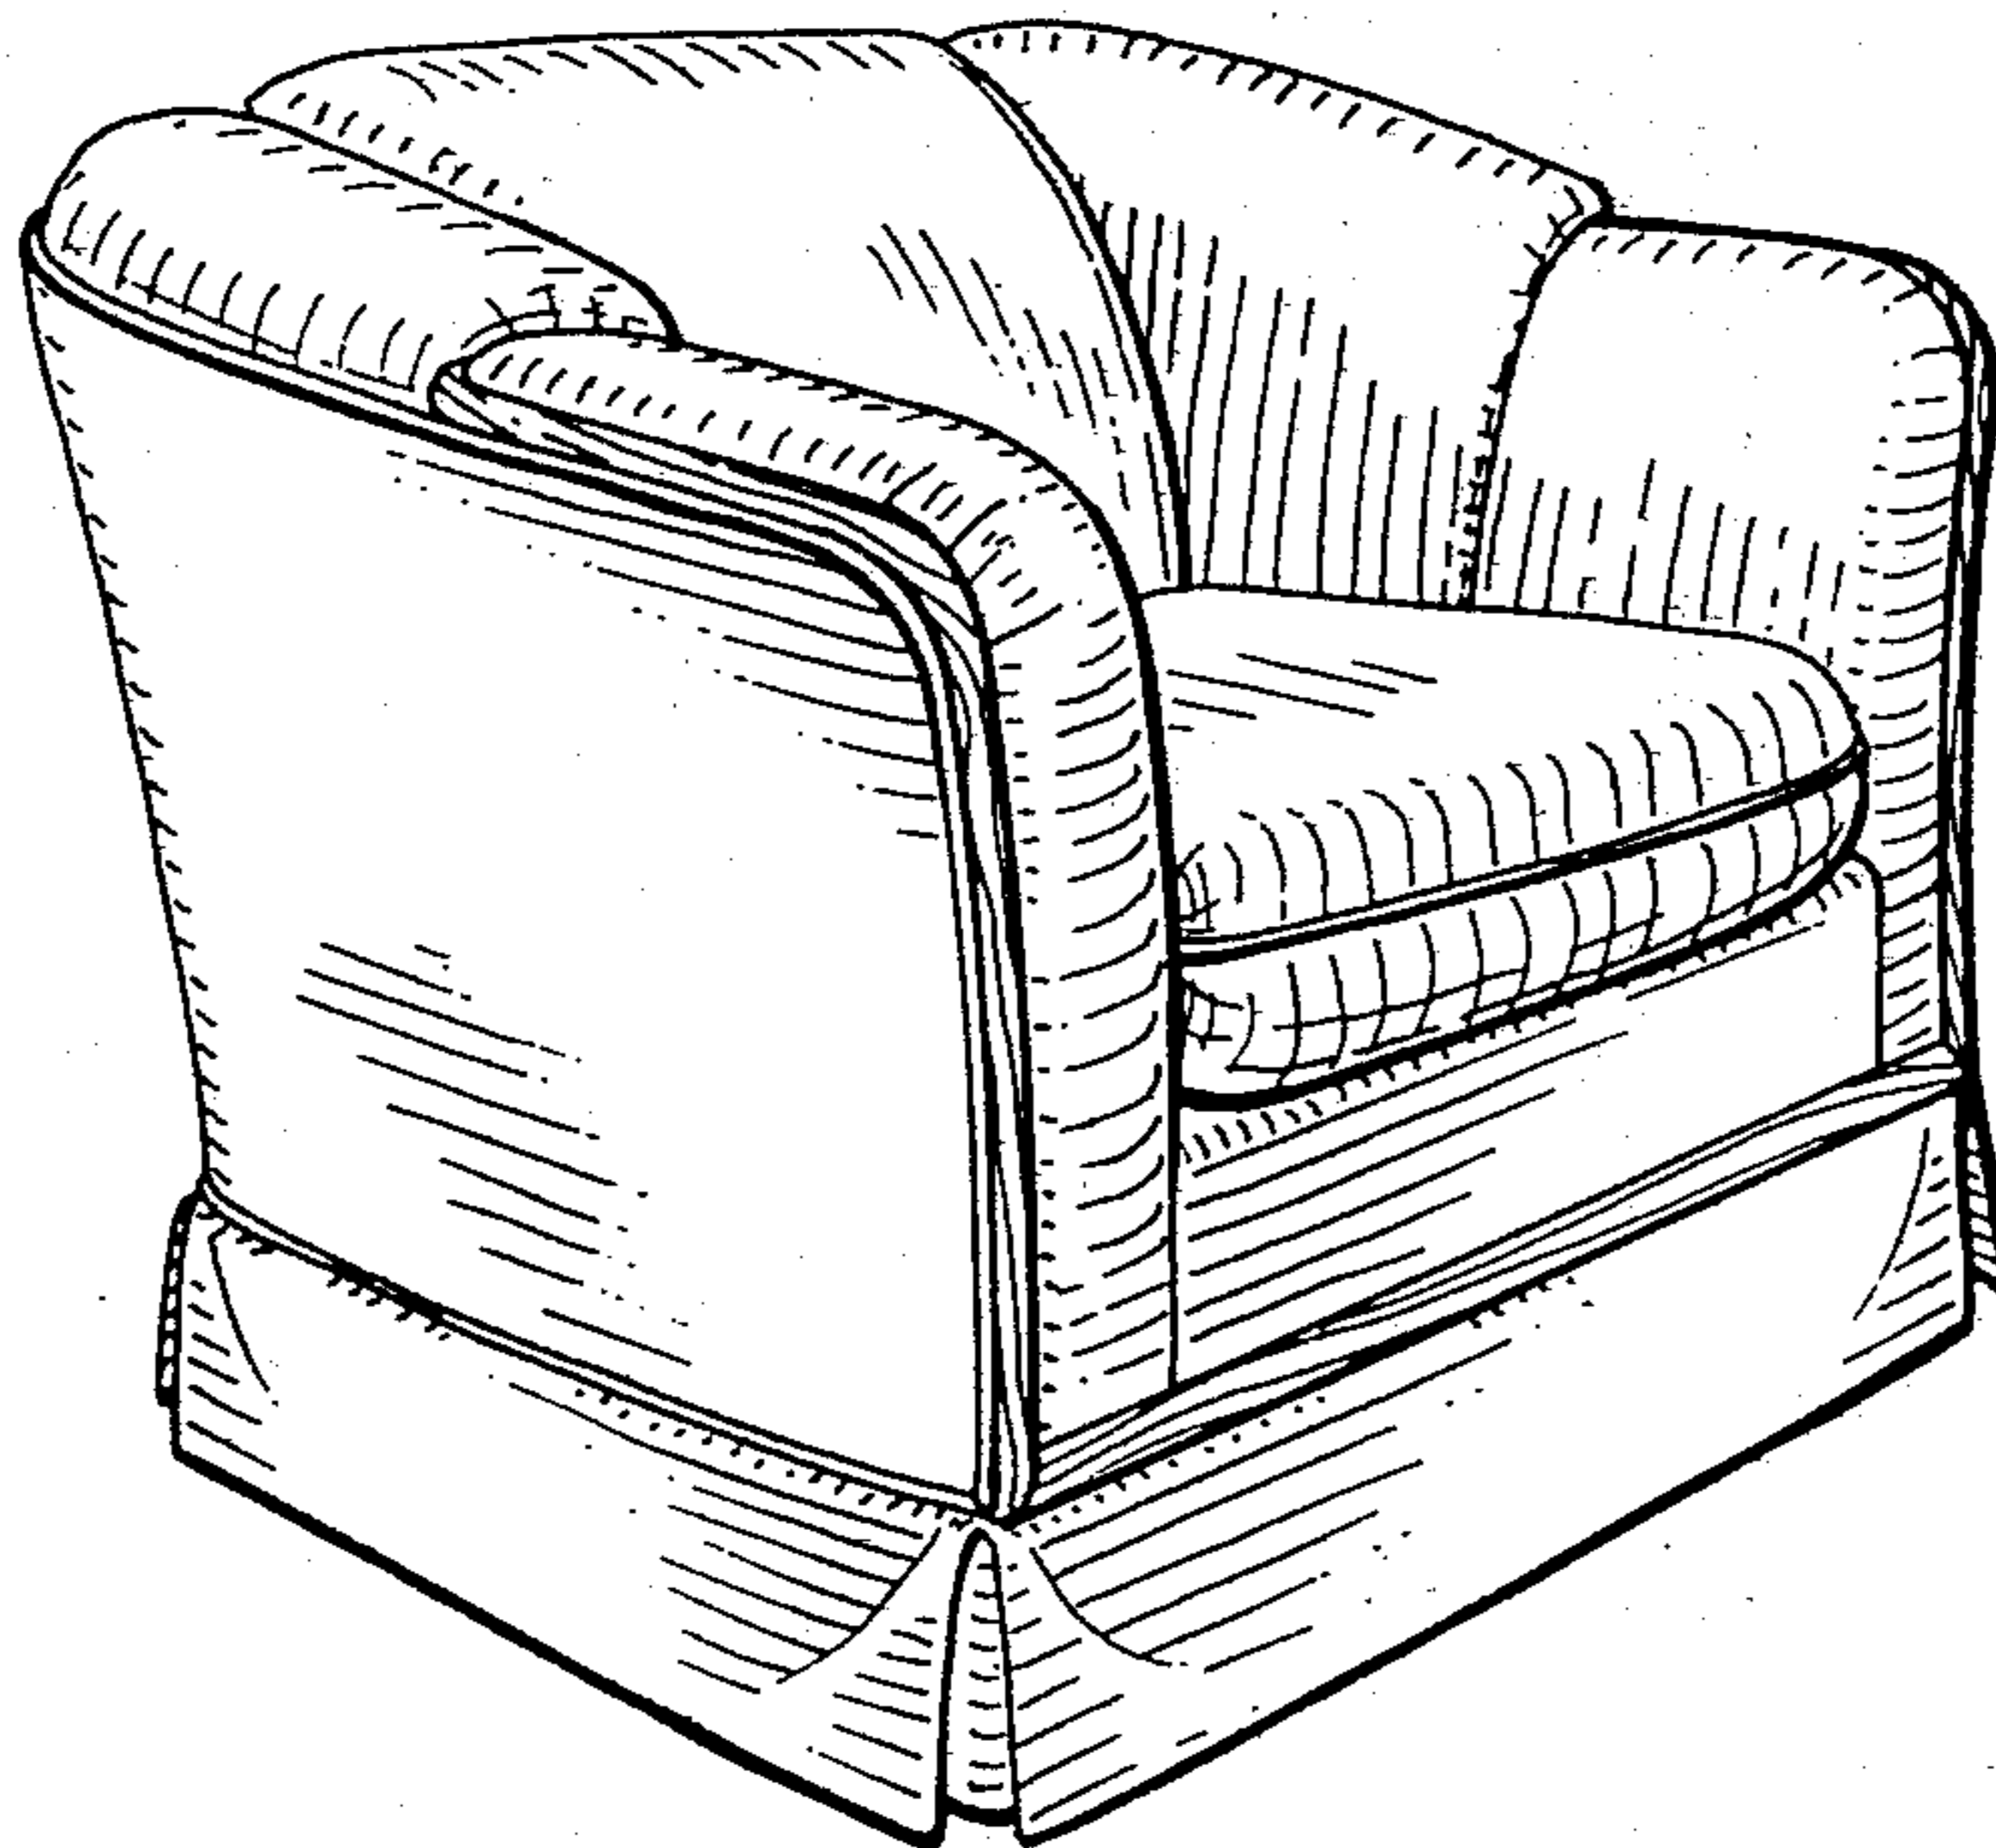

FIG. 1 is a front perspective view of a seat showing my design in the form of a chair;

FIG. 2 is a rear perspective view thereof;

FIG. 3 is a front perspective view of a seat showing my design in the form of a sofa; and

FIG. 4 is a rear perspective view thereof.

The seat is shown broken away in FIGS. 3 and 4 to indicate indeterminate length. Further, the design shown is characterized by the split side arms, having a heavily padded rear section and lighter padded front section, combined with the small decorative wooden strip which commences at the point on each arm where the heavy padding terminates and follows the outer edge of the arms down to a point approximately 6–8 inches above the floor from when it extends horizontally across the face of the seat.
