[57] CLAIM

The ornamental design for a ceiling lighting fixture, as shown and described.

DESCRIPTION

FIG. 1 is an end elevational view of a first embodiment of a ceiling lighting fixture according to my new design; FIG. 2 is a side elevational view of the first embodiment; FIG. 3 is a top plan view of the first embodiment; FIG. 4 is a bottom plan view of the first embodiment; FIG. 5 is an end elevational view of a second embodiment of my new design; FIG. 6 is a side elevational view of the second embodiment; FIG. 7 is a top plan view of the second embodiment; FIG. 8 is a bottom plan view of the second embodiment. Both embodiments of the design depicted in the drawings include a diffuser in the form of a translucent sheet of fabric that is suspended from the side brace of the frame. In the case of the first embodiment, a rod of metal, wood or plastic is supported by the fabric and by its weight draws the fabric into a V-shape. In the case of the embodiment of FIGS. 5 to 8, the fabric hangs as a catenary. In each embodiment, the two ends are identical in appearance and the two sides are identical in appearance.
