[57] CLAIM

The ornamental design for a combination lap-top computer console and mouse, as shown and described.

DESCRIPTION

FIG. 1 is a top, front, right side perspective view of a combination lap-top computer console and mouse with the top in a closed position and the mouse mounted in a storage receptacle thereon, showing my new design; FIG. 2 is a top, front, right side perspective view thereof, with the top in an opened position and the mouse removed;

FIG. 3 is a top plan view thereof, on an enlarged scale; FIG. 4 is a front elevational view thereof on an enlarged scale;

FIG. 5 is a right side elevational view thereof on an enlarged scale;

FIG. 6 is a left side elevational view thereof on an enlarged scale, with the top in an opened position and the mouse removed;

FIG. 7 is a partial top plan view showing the keyboard thereof on an enlarged scale;

FIG. 8 is a left side elevational view of the mouse thereof on an enlarged scale;

FIG. 9 is a rear elevational view of the computer thereof on an enlarged scale;

FIG. 10 is a top, front, right side perspective view of a second embodiment of my new design;

FIG. 11 is a top, front, right side perspective view thereof, with the top in an opened position and the mouse removed;

FIG. 12 is a top plan view thereof on an enlarged scale; FIG. 13 is a front elevational view thereof on an enlarged scale;

FIG. 14 is a right side elevational view thereof on an enlarged scale;

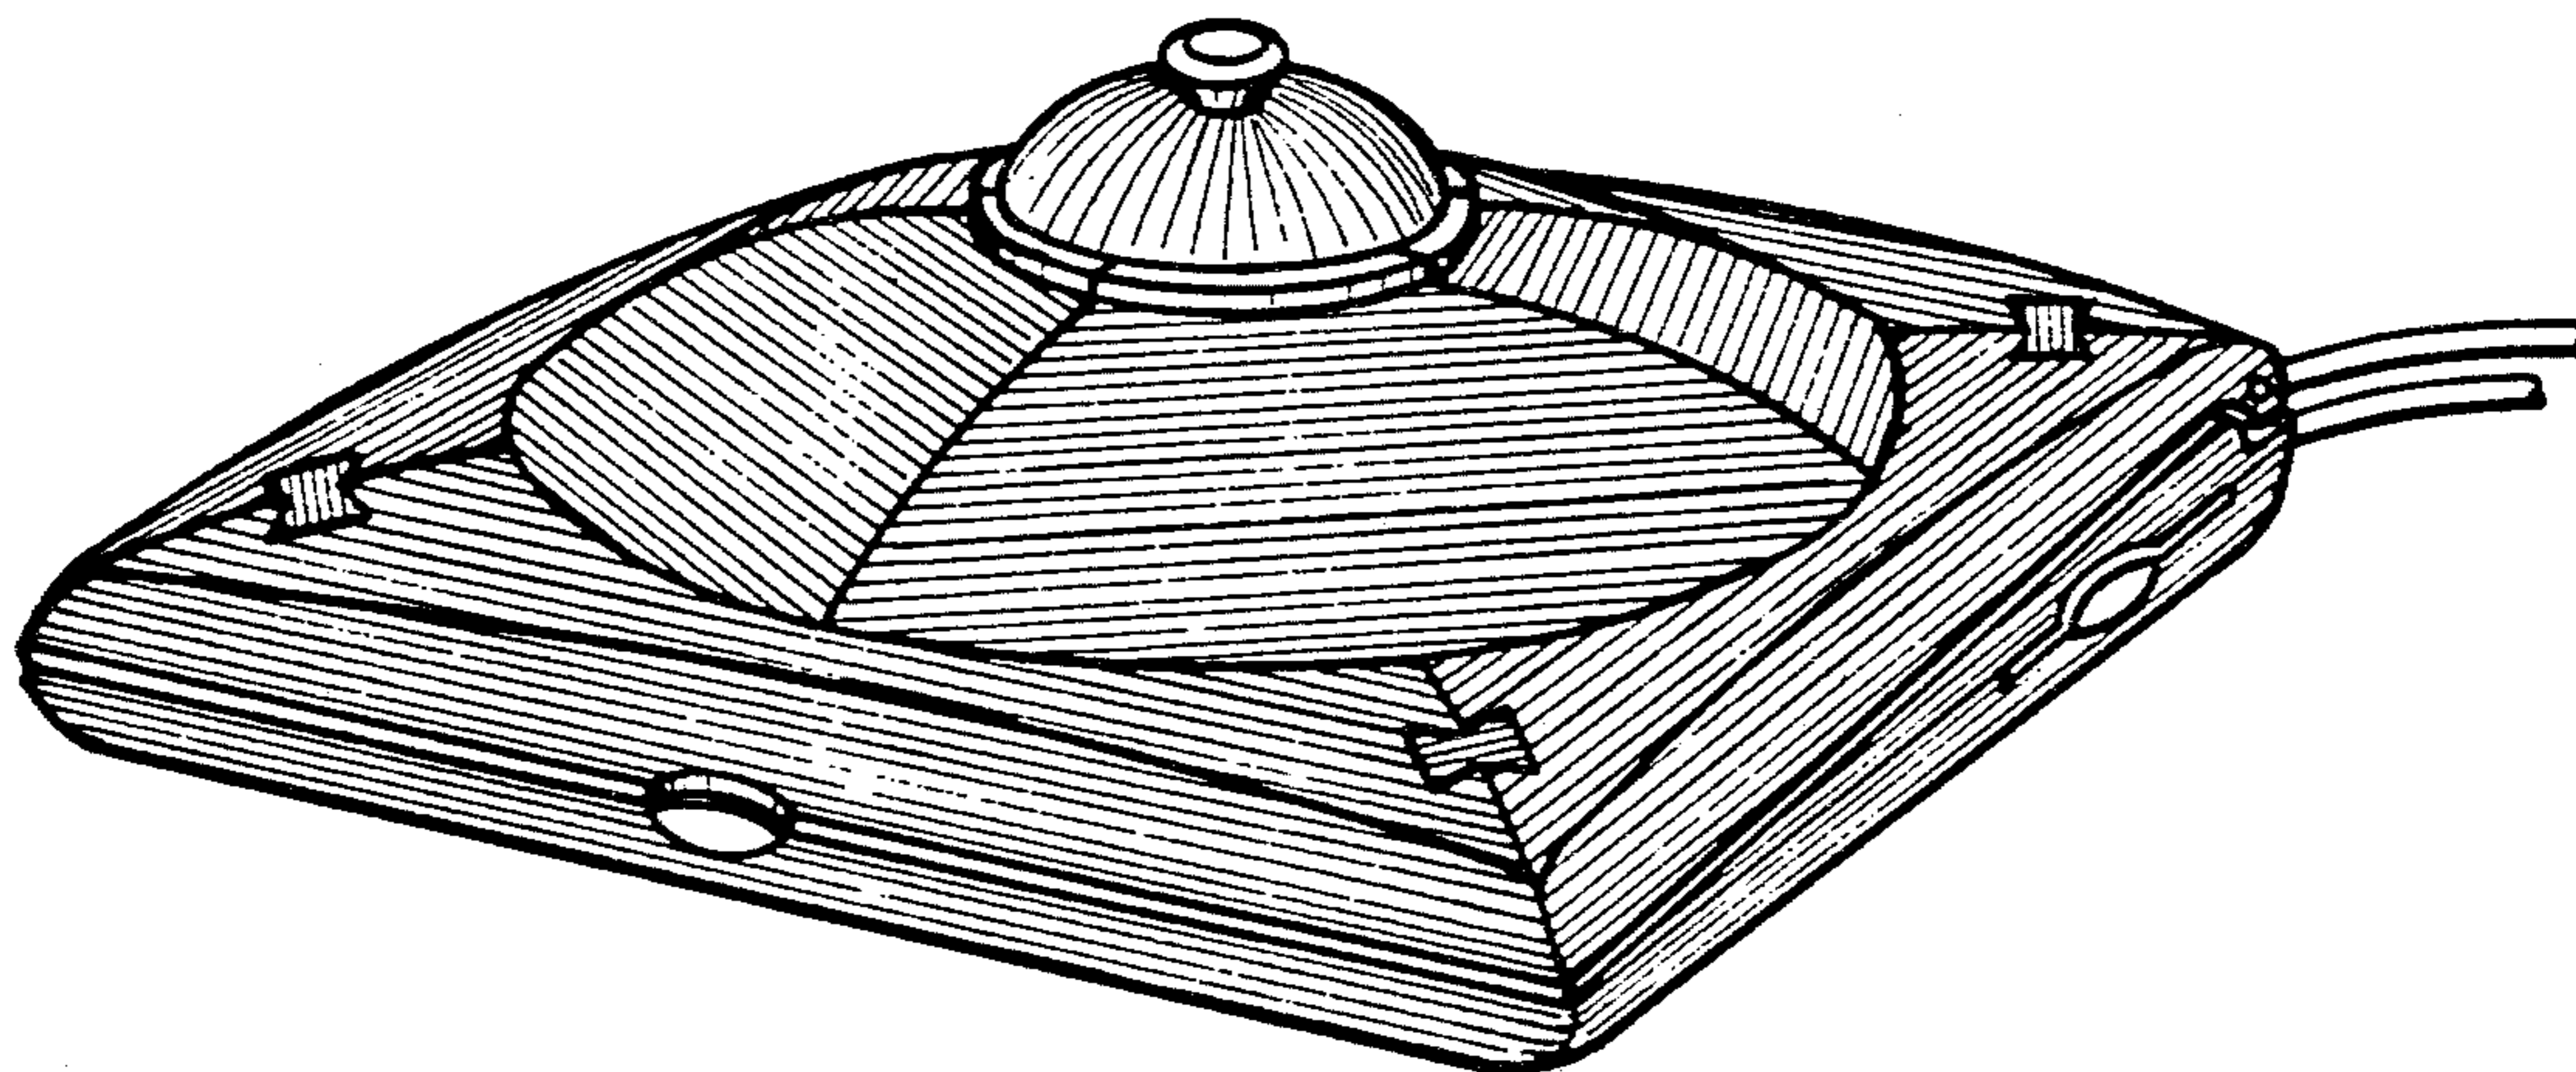

FIG. 15 is a left side elevational view thereof on an enlarged scale, with the top in an opened position and the mouse removed;

FIG. 16 is a partial top plan view of the keyboard thereof on an enlarged scale, with the top in an opened position;

FIG. 17 is a left side elevational view of the mouse thereof on an enlarged scale;

FIG. 18 is a rear elevational view of the computer thereof on an enlarged scale.

The first embodiment is shaded to indicate a wood grain pattern. The second embodiment is identical to the first in configuration, but the surface of this embodiment is plain.
