[57] CLAIM

The ornamental design for a wall-mounted coinless public telephone, as shown and described.

DESCRIPTION

FIG. 1 is a top, front and left side perspective view of a first embodiment of a wall-mounted, coinless public telephone showing our new design;
 FIG. 2 is a top, front and left side perspective view of a second embodiment of the wall-mounted, coinless public telephone including a shelf mounted thereon;
 FIG. 3 is a top, front and left side perspective view of a third embodiment thereof including a base for a keyboard;
 FIG. 4 is a left-side, perspective view of the first embodiment of our new design;
 FIG. 5 is a left-side, perspective view of the second embodiment of our new design;
 FIG. 6 is a left-side, perspective view of the third embodiment of our new design;
 FIG. 7 is a front elevational view of the first embodiment thereof;
 FIG. 8 is a front elevational view of the second embodiment thereof; and
 FIG. 9 is a front elevational view of the third embodiment thereof; and the sides opposite to the first, second and third left side embodiments are mirror images thereof, except for the absence of a broken line illustration of a cord attachment; and the bottom of the telephone is plain and unadorned.
 The broken line showing of (1) a telephone handset, its holder and abbreviated wire correction, with its attachment and the handset and side wall, and (2) sundry touch buttons and (3) several rectangular outlined areas in FIGS. 1, 2, 3, 6, 7, and 8 (Computer type button keyboard), and are for illustrative purposes only and form no part of the claimed design.
