[57] CLAIM

The ornamental design for a windshield visor, as shown and described.

DESCRIPTION

FIG. 1 is a perspective view of a windshield visor showing my new design;

FIG. 2 is an enlarged top plan view thereof;

FIG. 3 is a enlarged front elevation view thereof;

FIG. 4 is an enlarged rear elevation view thereof;

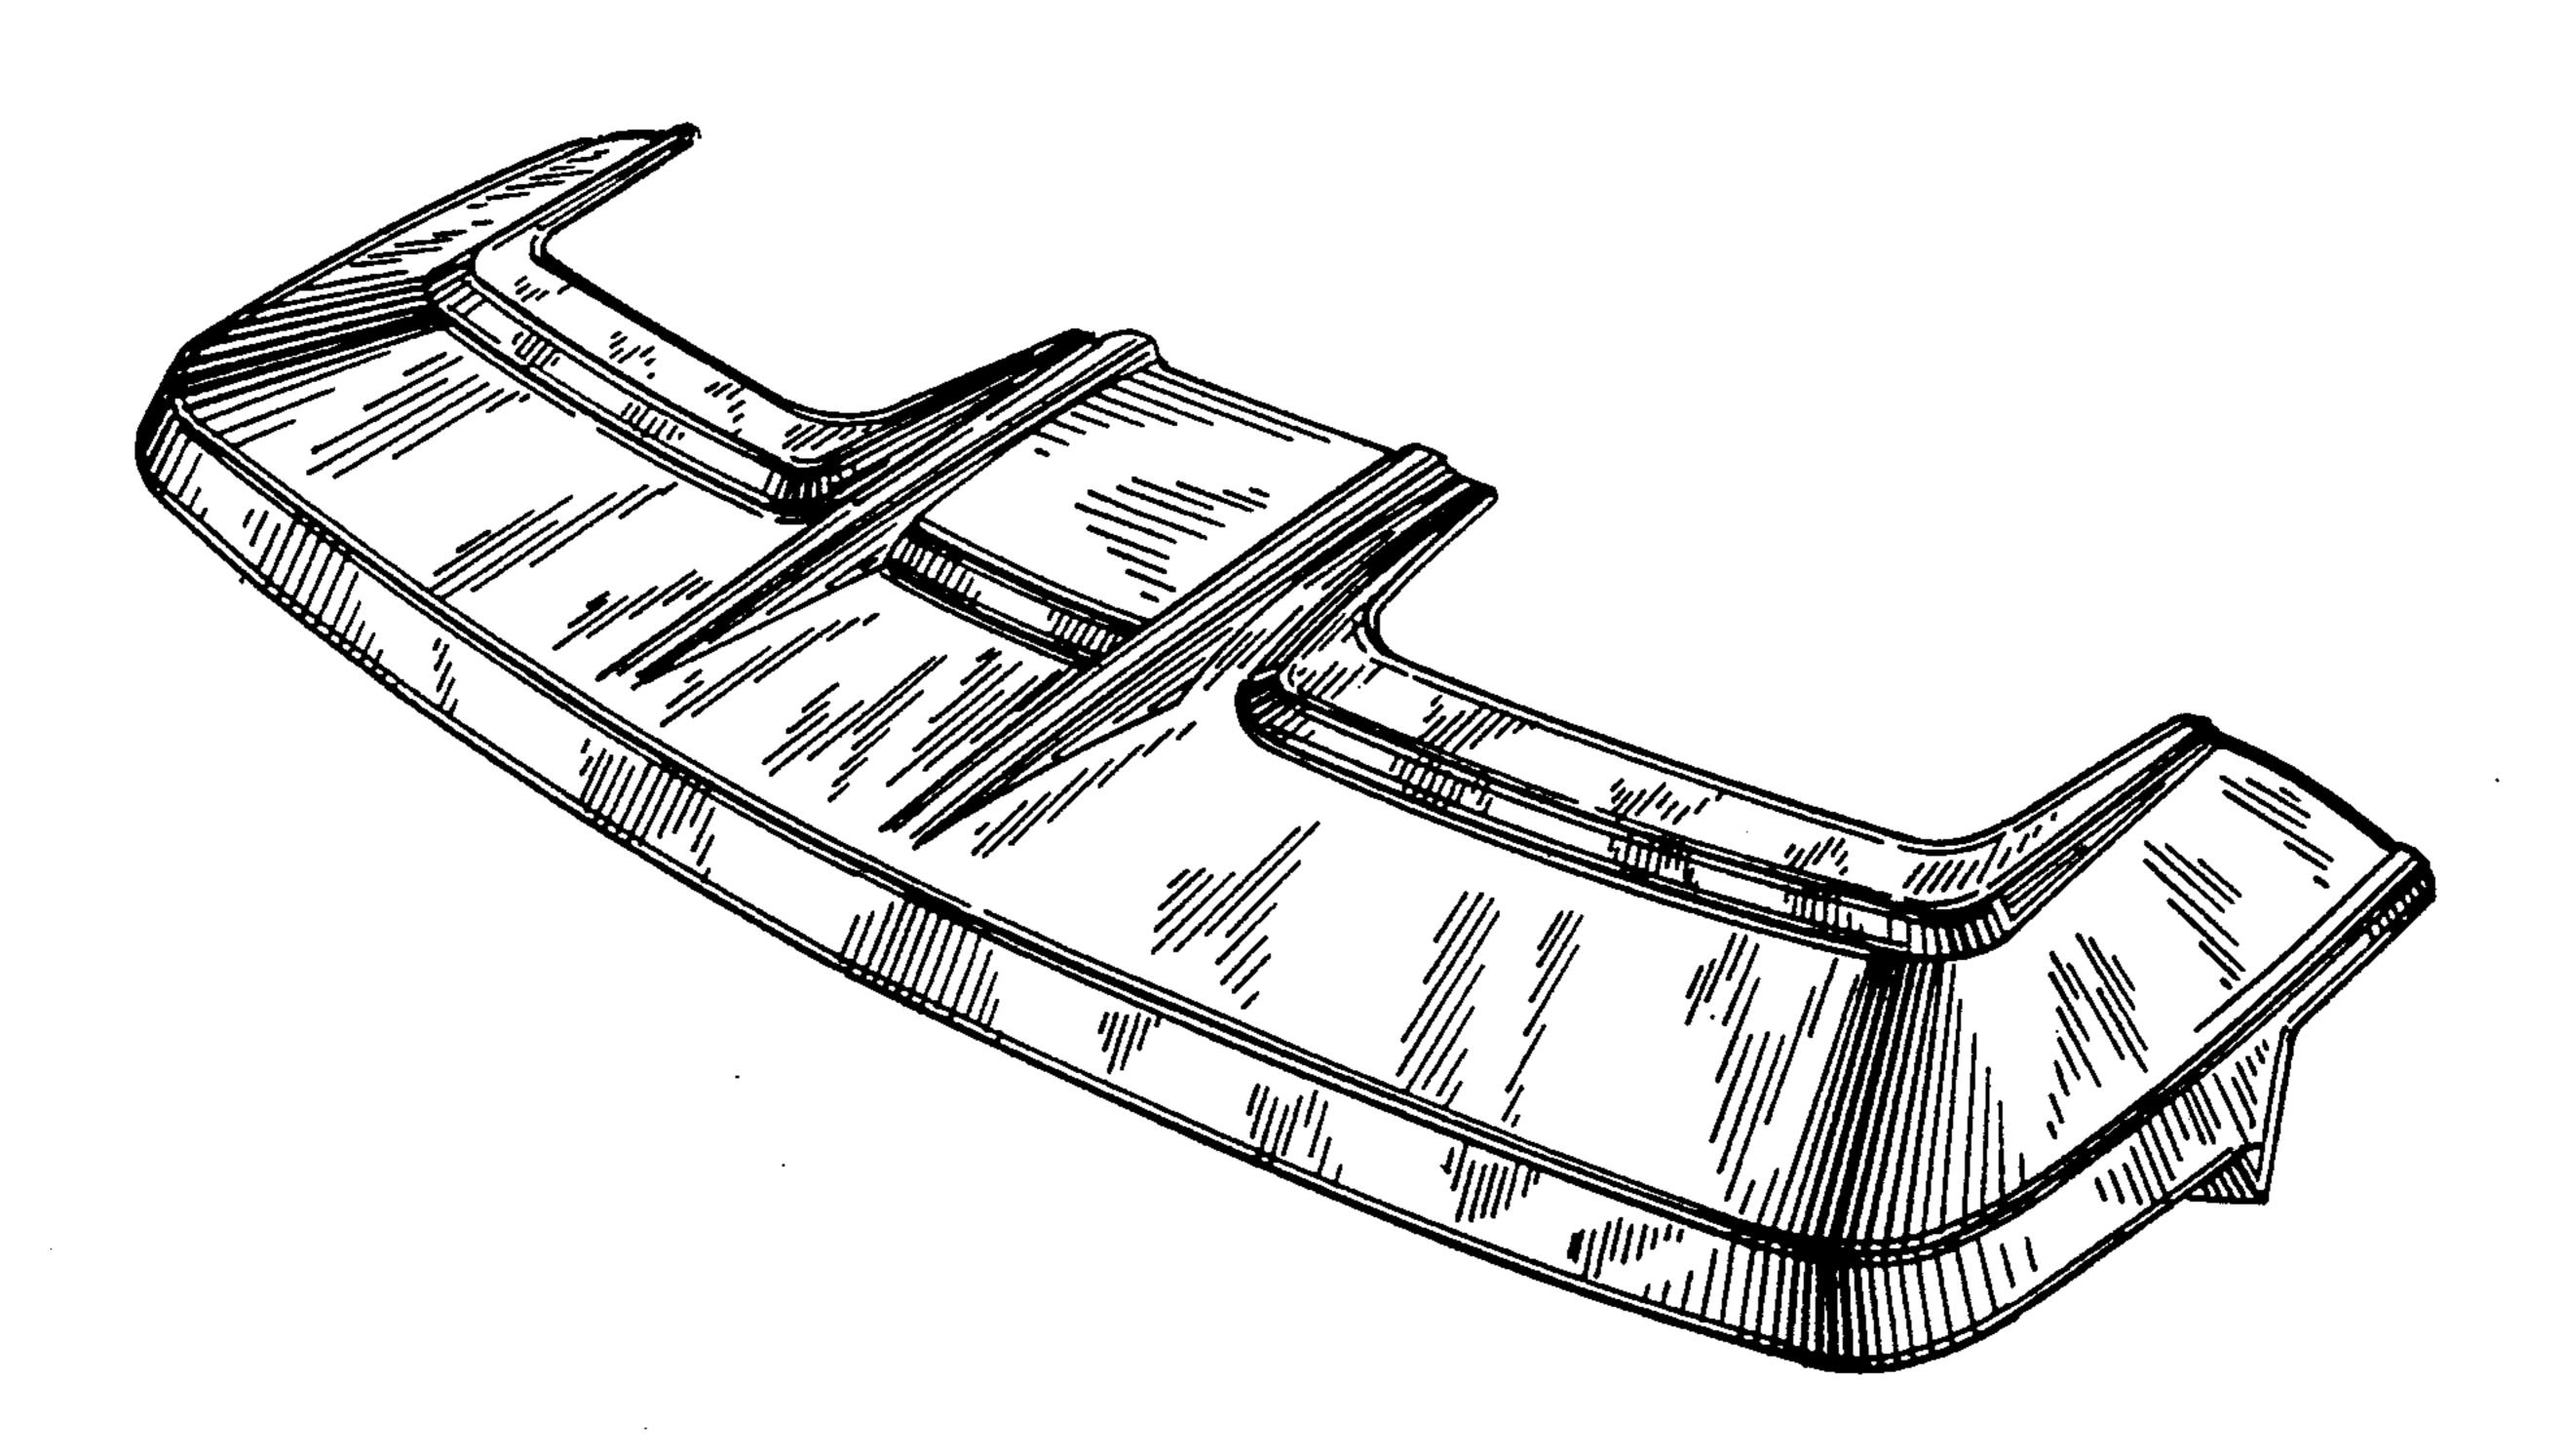

FIG. 5 is a greatly enlarged side elevation view thereof the opposite side being a mirror image of that shown;

FIG. 6 is a greatly enlarged sectional view thereof taken along line 6—6 of FIG. 2;

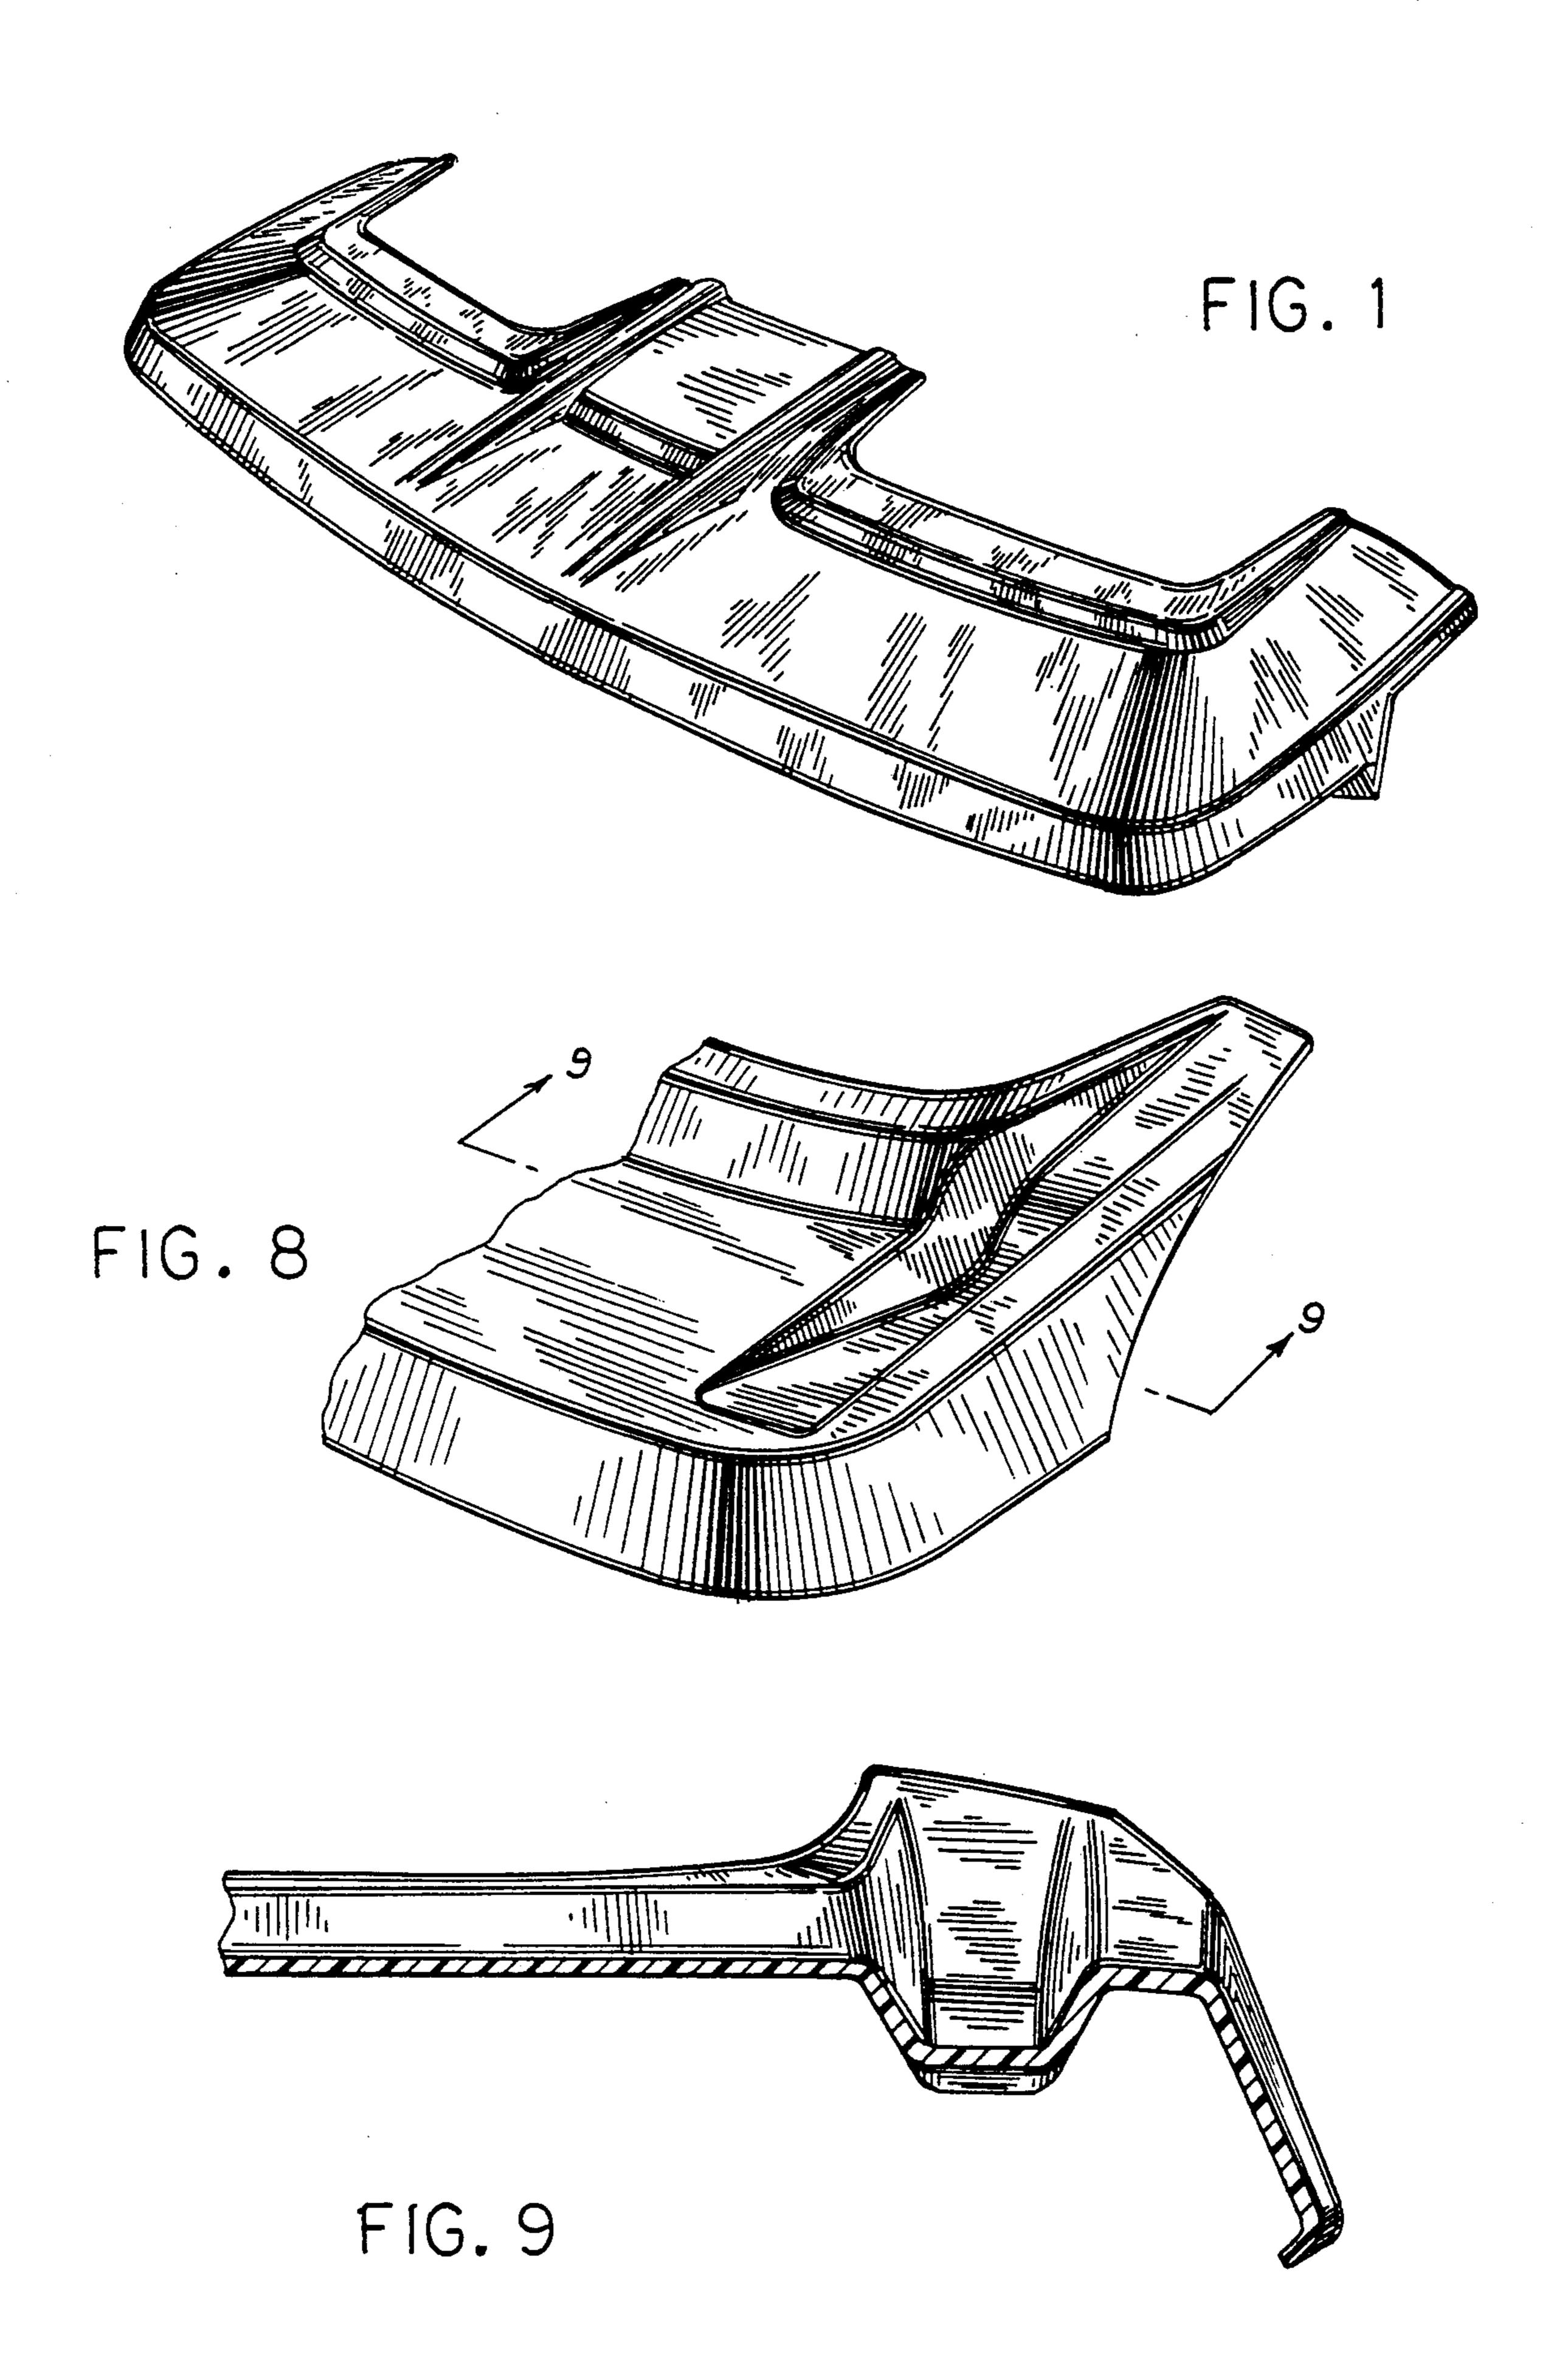

FIG. 7 is an enlarged fragmentary perspective view of the end segment of a windshield visor showing a second embodiment of my new design the sole difference being in the width and shape of the top peripheral side surface thereof it being understood that the opposite end is a mirror image of that shown and the remaining portions are the same as the first embodiment shown in FIGS. 1 thru 6;

FIG. 8 is an enlarged fragmentary perspective view of the end segment of a windshield visor showing a third embodiment of my new design the sole difference being in the width and contour of the top peripheral side surface and the specific shape of the sidewall thereof it being understood that the opposite end is a mirror image of that shown and the remaining portions of the visor are the same as the first embodiment shown in FIGS. 1 thru 6; and,

FIG. 9 is a greatly enlarged sectional view taken along line 9—9 of FIG. 8.
