[57] CLAIM

The ornamental design for bicycle-mounted combination turn signal and horn, as shown and described.

DESCRIPTION

FIG. 1 is a perspective view of a bicycle-mounted combination turn-signal and horn showing my new design therefor; the broken line drawing depicting a partial bicycle frame is for purposes of illustration only, and forms no part of my design;

FIG. 2 is a right side elevational view, with the cords broken away for ease of illustration;

FIG. 3 is a left side elevational view;

FIG. 4 is a front elevational view;

FIG. 5 is a rear elevational view;

FIG. 6 is a bottom plan view; and,

FIG. 7 is a top plan view.
