[57] CLAIM

The ornamental design for a potpourri container, as shown and described.

DESCRIPTION

FIG. 1 is a perspective view of a potpourri container showing our new design;

FIG. 2 is a bottom elevational view thereof;

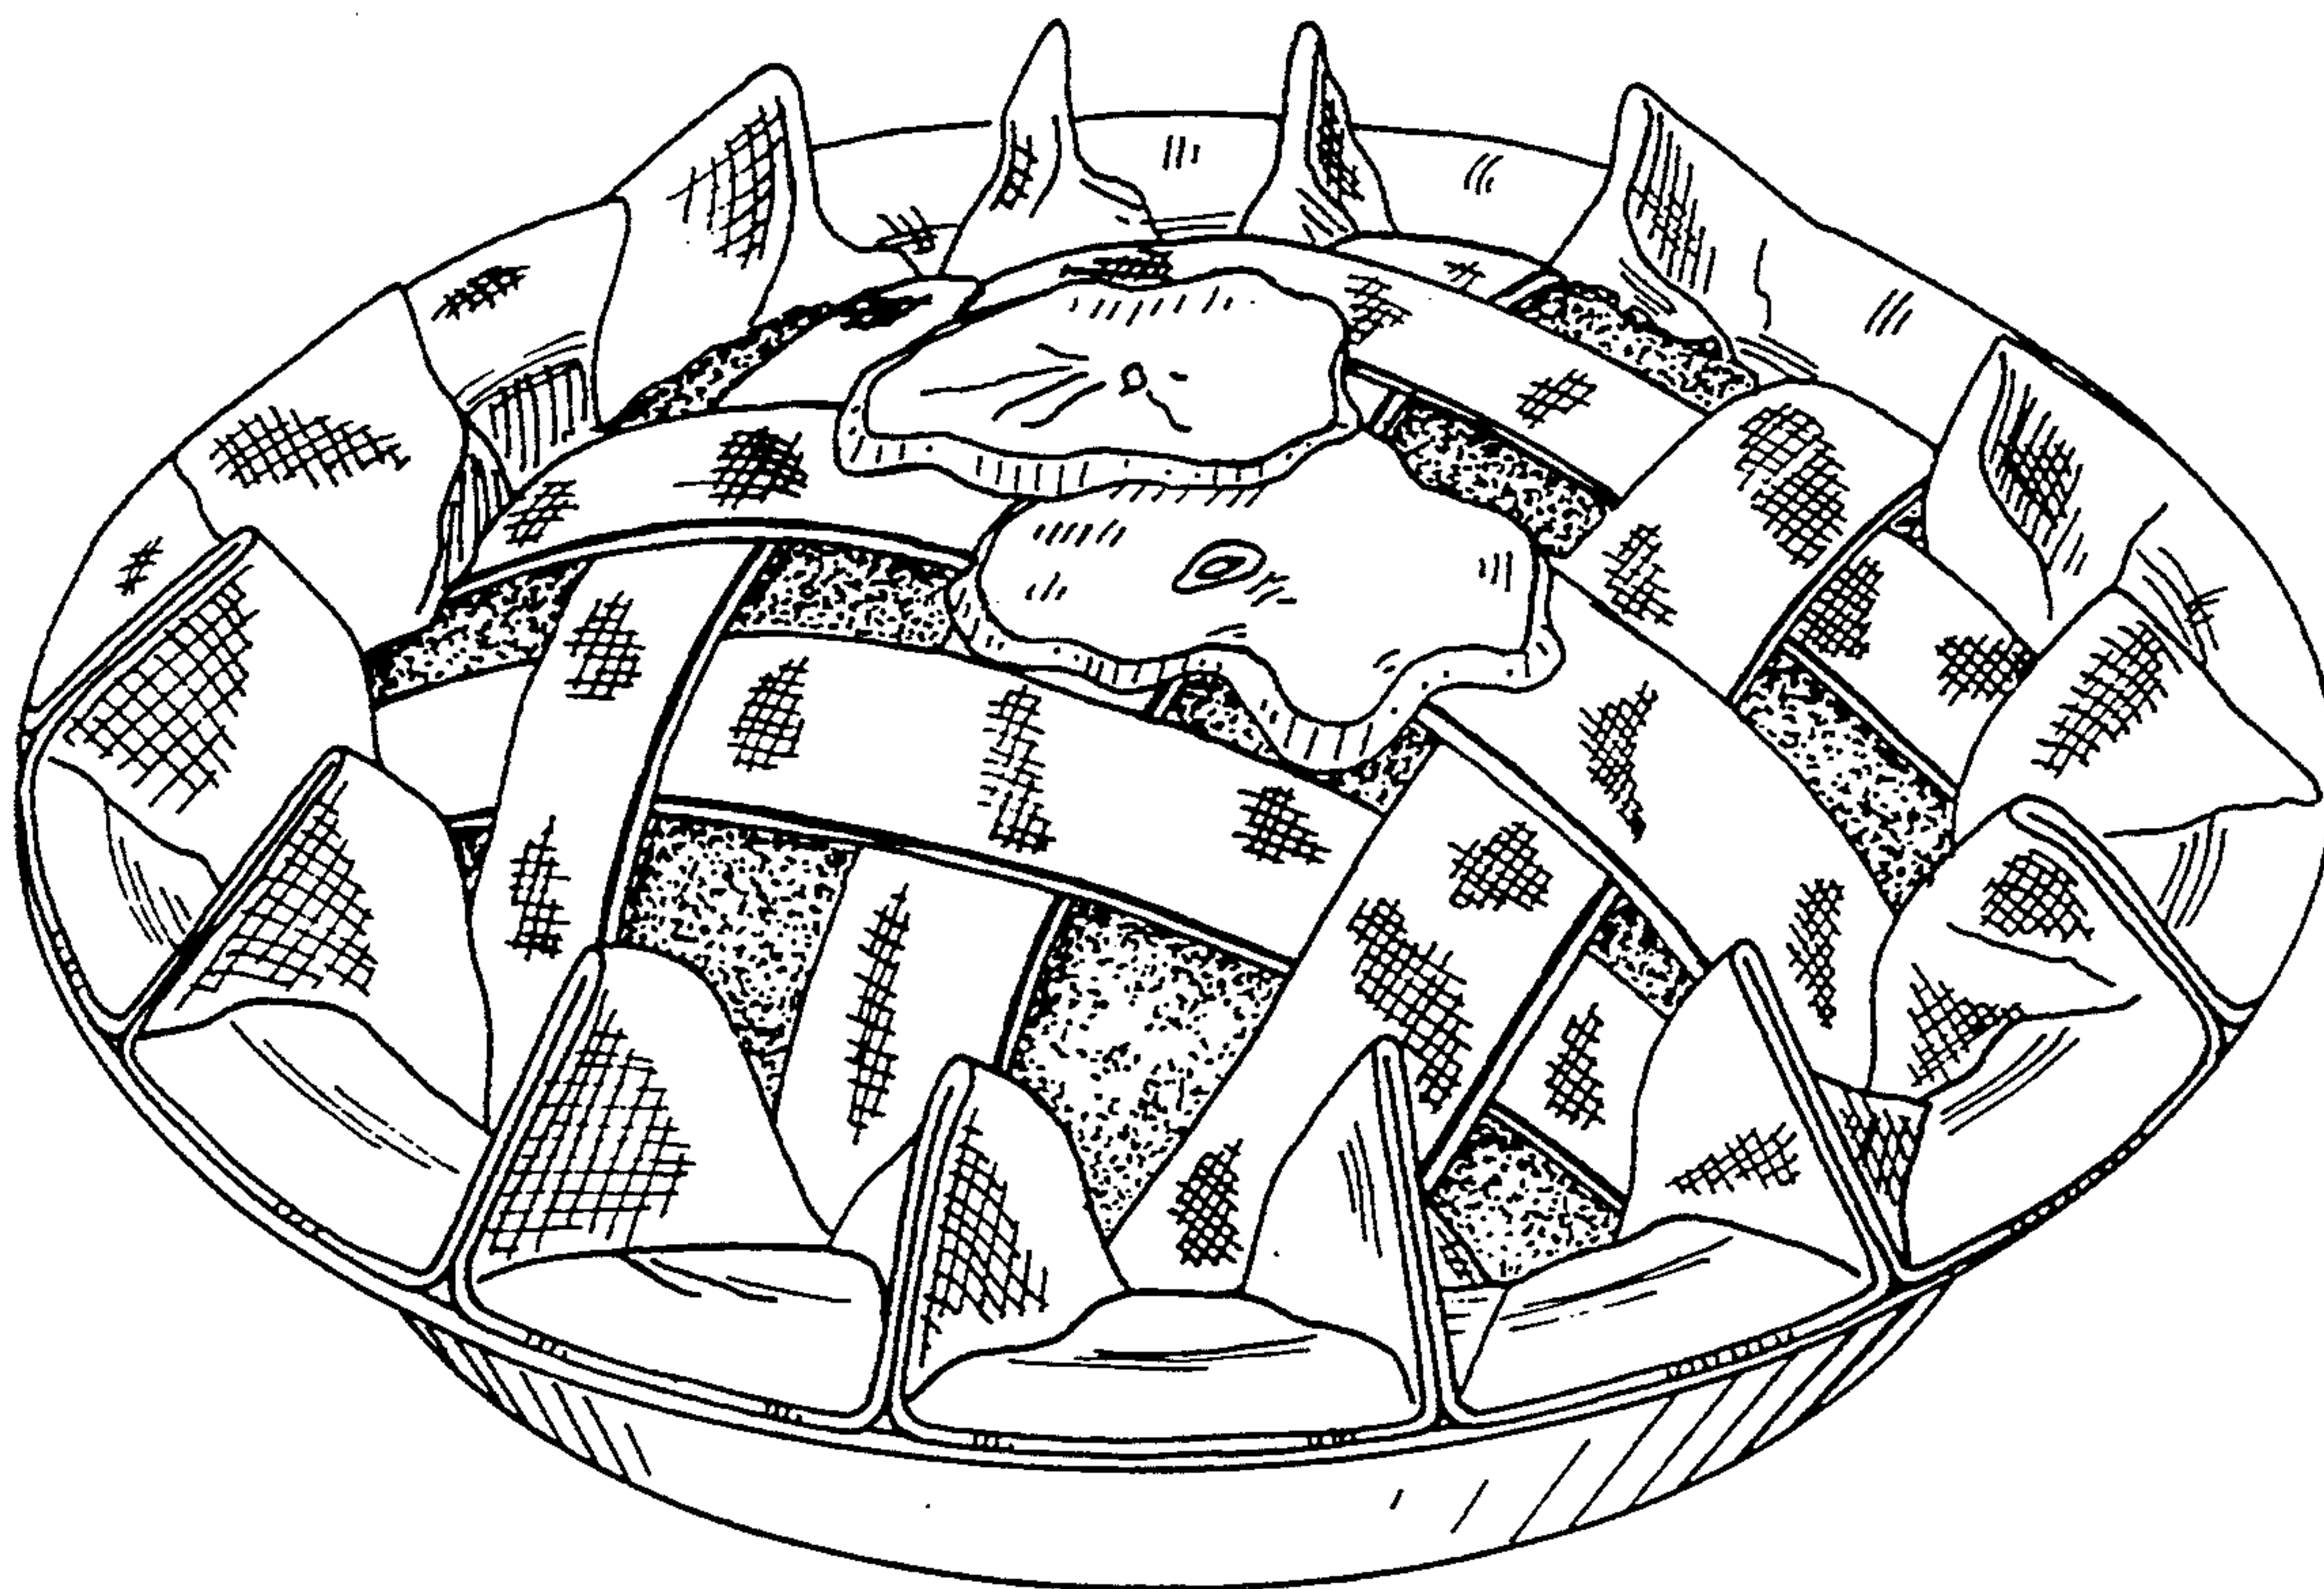

FIG. 3 is a top elevational view thereof;

FIG. 4 is a side elevational view thereof, all side elevational views being essentially the same;

FIG. 5 is a top elevational view of a second embodiment of our new design, the bottom and side elevational views being essentially the same as those of the first embodiment; and,

FIG. 6 is a top elevational view of a third embodiment of our new design, the bottom and side elevational views being essentially the same as those of the first embodiment.

The sole difference between the three embodiments resides in the appearance of the garnish on top of the design. The cross hatching represents conventional fabric and is understood to extend throughout the areas represented.
