CLAIM

The ornamental design for a combined sandpaper and emery paper portfolio, as shown and described.

DESCRIPTION

FIG. 1 is a perspective view of a combined sandpaper and emery paper portfolio showing my new design therefor. The portfolio is shown with a front cover in a partially open position to better illustrate the design of the interior of the portfolio. The portfolio contains two each of the first, second and third envelope designs;

FIG. 2 is a front elevational view with the front cover in a full open position;

FIG. 3 is a right side elevational view;

FIG. 4 is a top plan view;

FIG. 5 is a rear elevational view;

FIG. 6 is a bottom plan view of FIG. 5;

FIG. 7 is a left side elevational view;

FIG. 8 is a perspective view of a first envelope design in the portfolio shown separately from the portfolio in order to better show the design of the first envelope having a left side oriented fastener means;

FIG. 9 is a front elevational view of the first envelope;

FIG. 10 is a right side elevational view of the first envelope;

FIG. 11 is a rear elevational view of the first envelope;

FIG. 12 is a top plan view of the first envelope;

FIG. 13 is a bottom plan view of the first envelope;

FIG. 14 is a perspective view of a second envelope design in the portfolio shown separately from the portfolio in order to better show the design of the second envelope having a centrally oriented fastener means;

FIG. 15 is a front elevational view of the second envelope; FIG. 16 is a right side elevational view of the second envelope;

FIG. 17 is a rear elevational view of the second envelope;

FIG. 18 is a top plan view of the second envelope;

FIG. 19 is a bottom plan view of the second envelope;

FIG. 20 is a perspective view of a third envelope design in the portfolio shown separately from the portfolio in order to better show the design of the third envelope having a right side oriented fastener means;

FIG. 21 is a front elevational view of the third envelope;

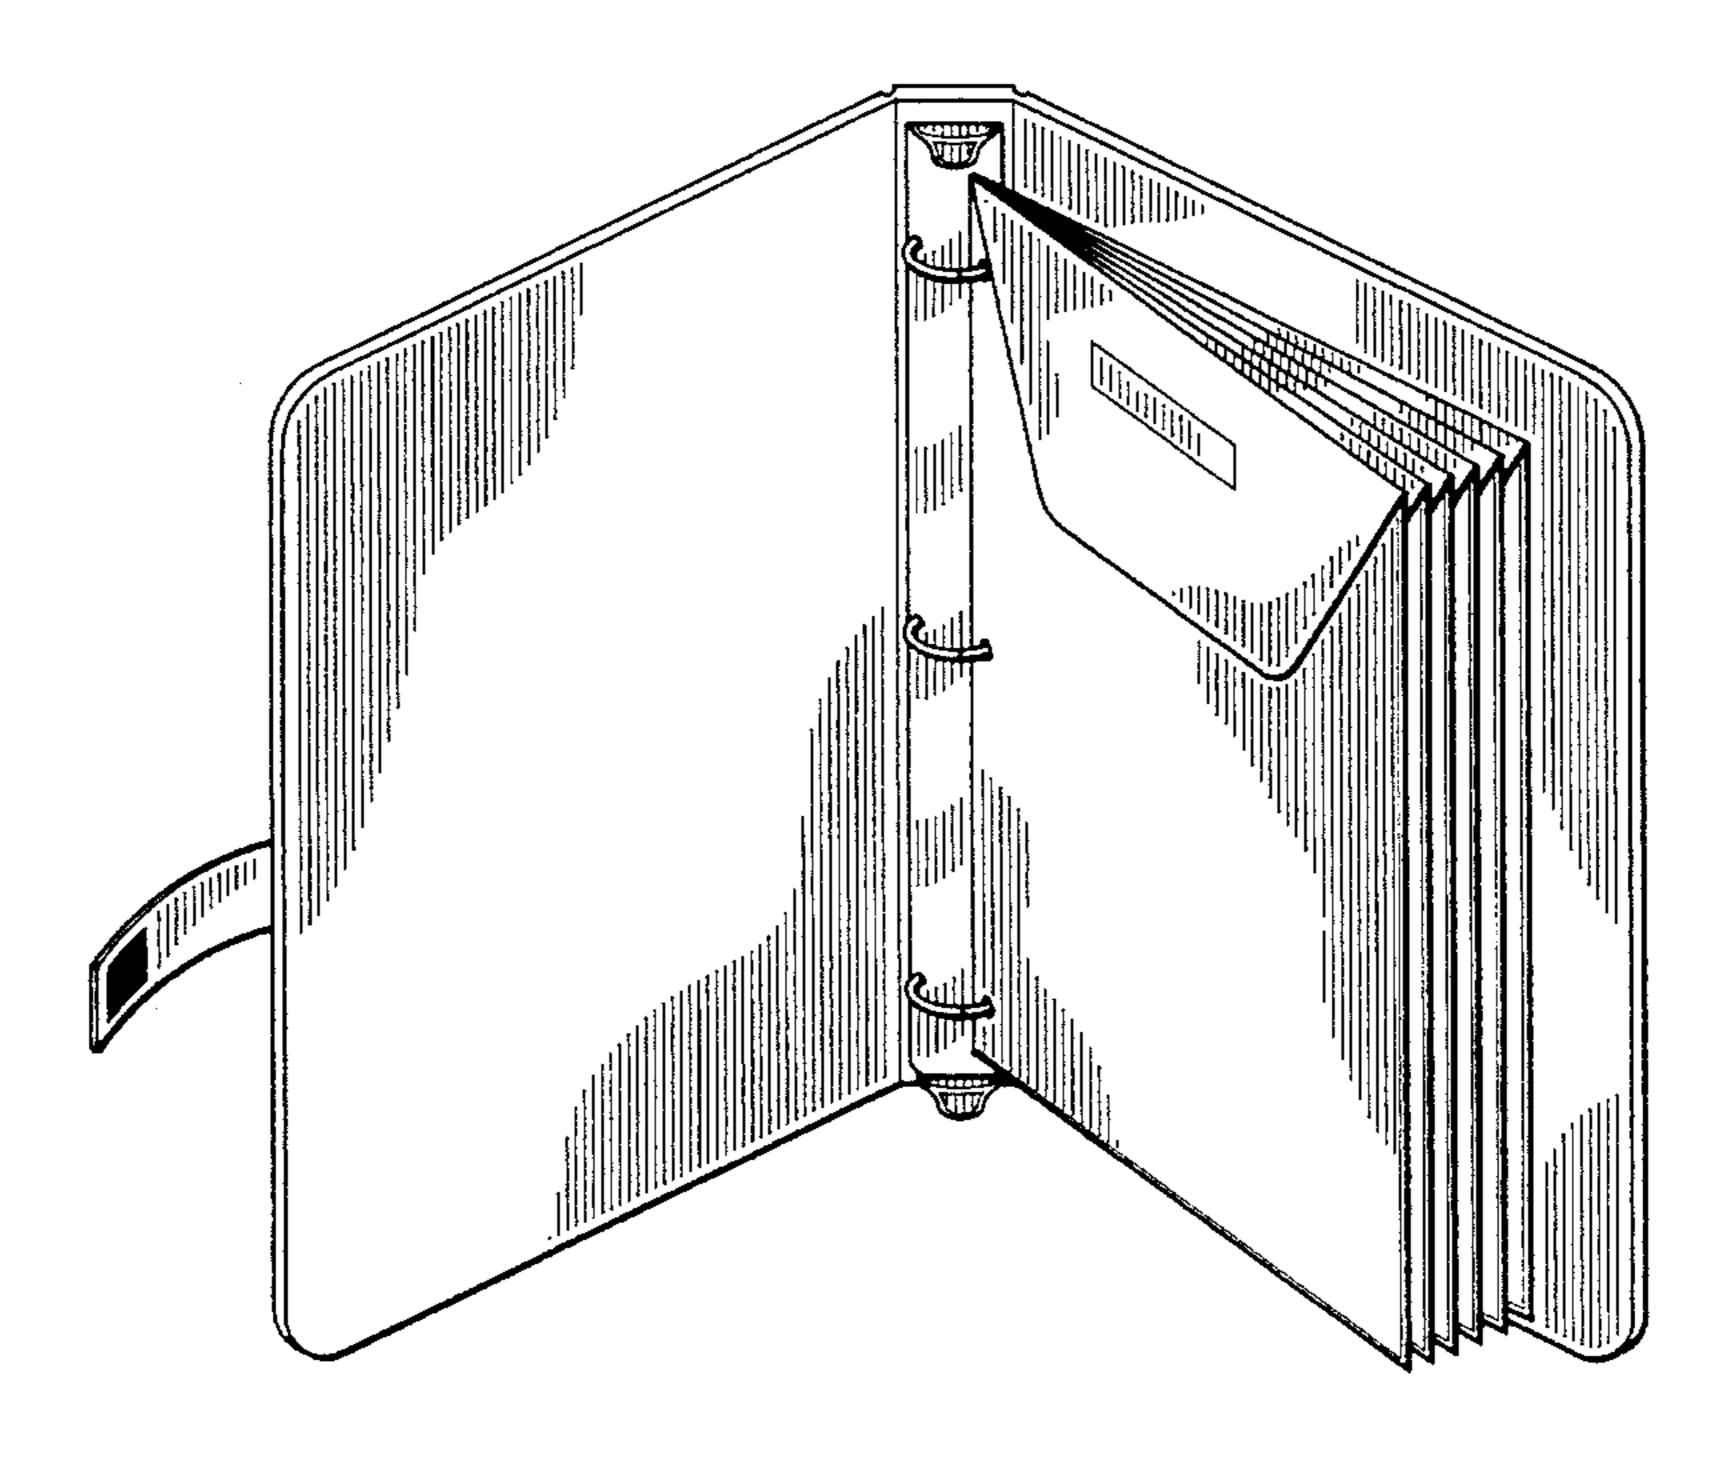

FIG. 22 is a right side elevational view of the third envelope;

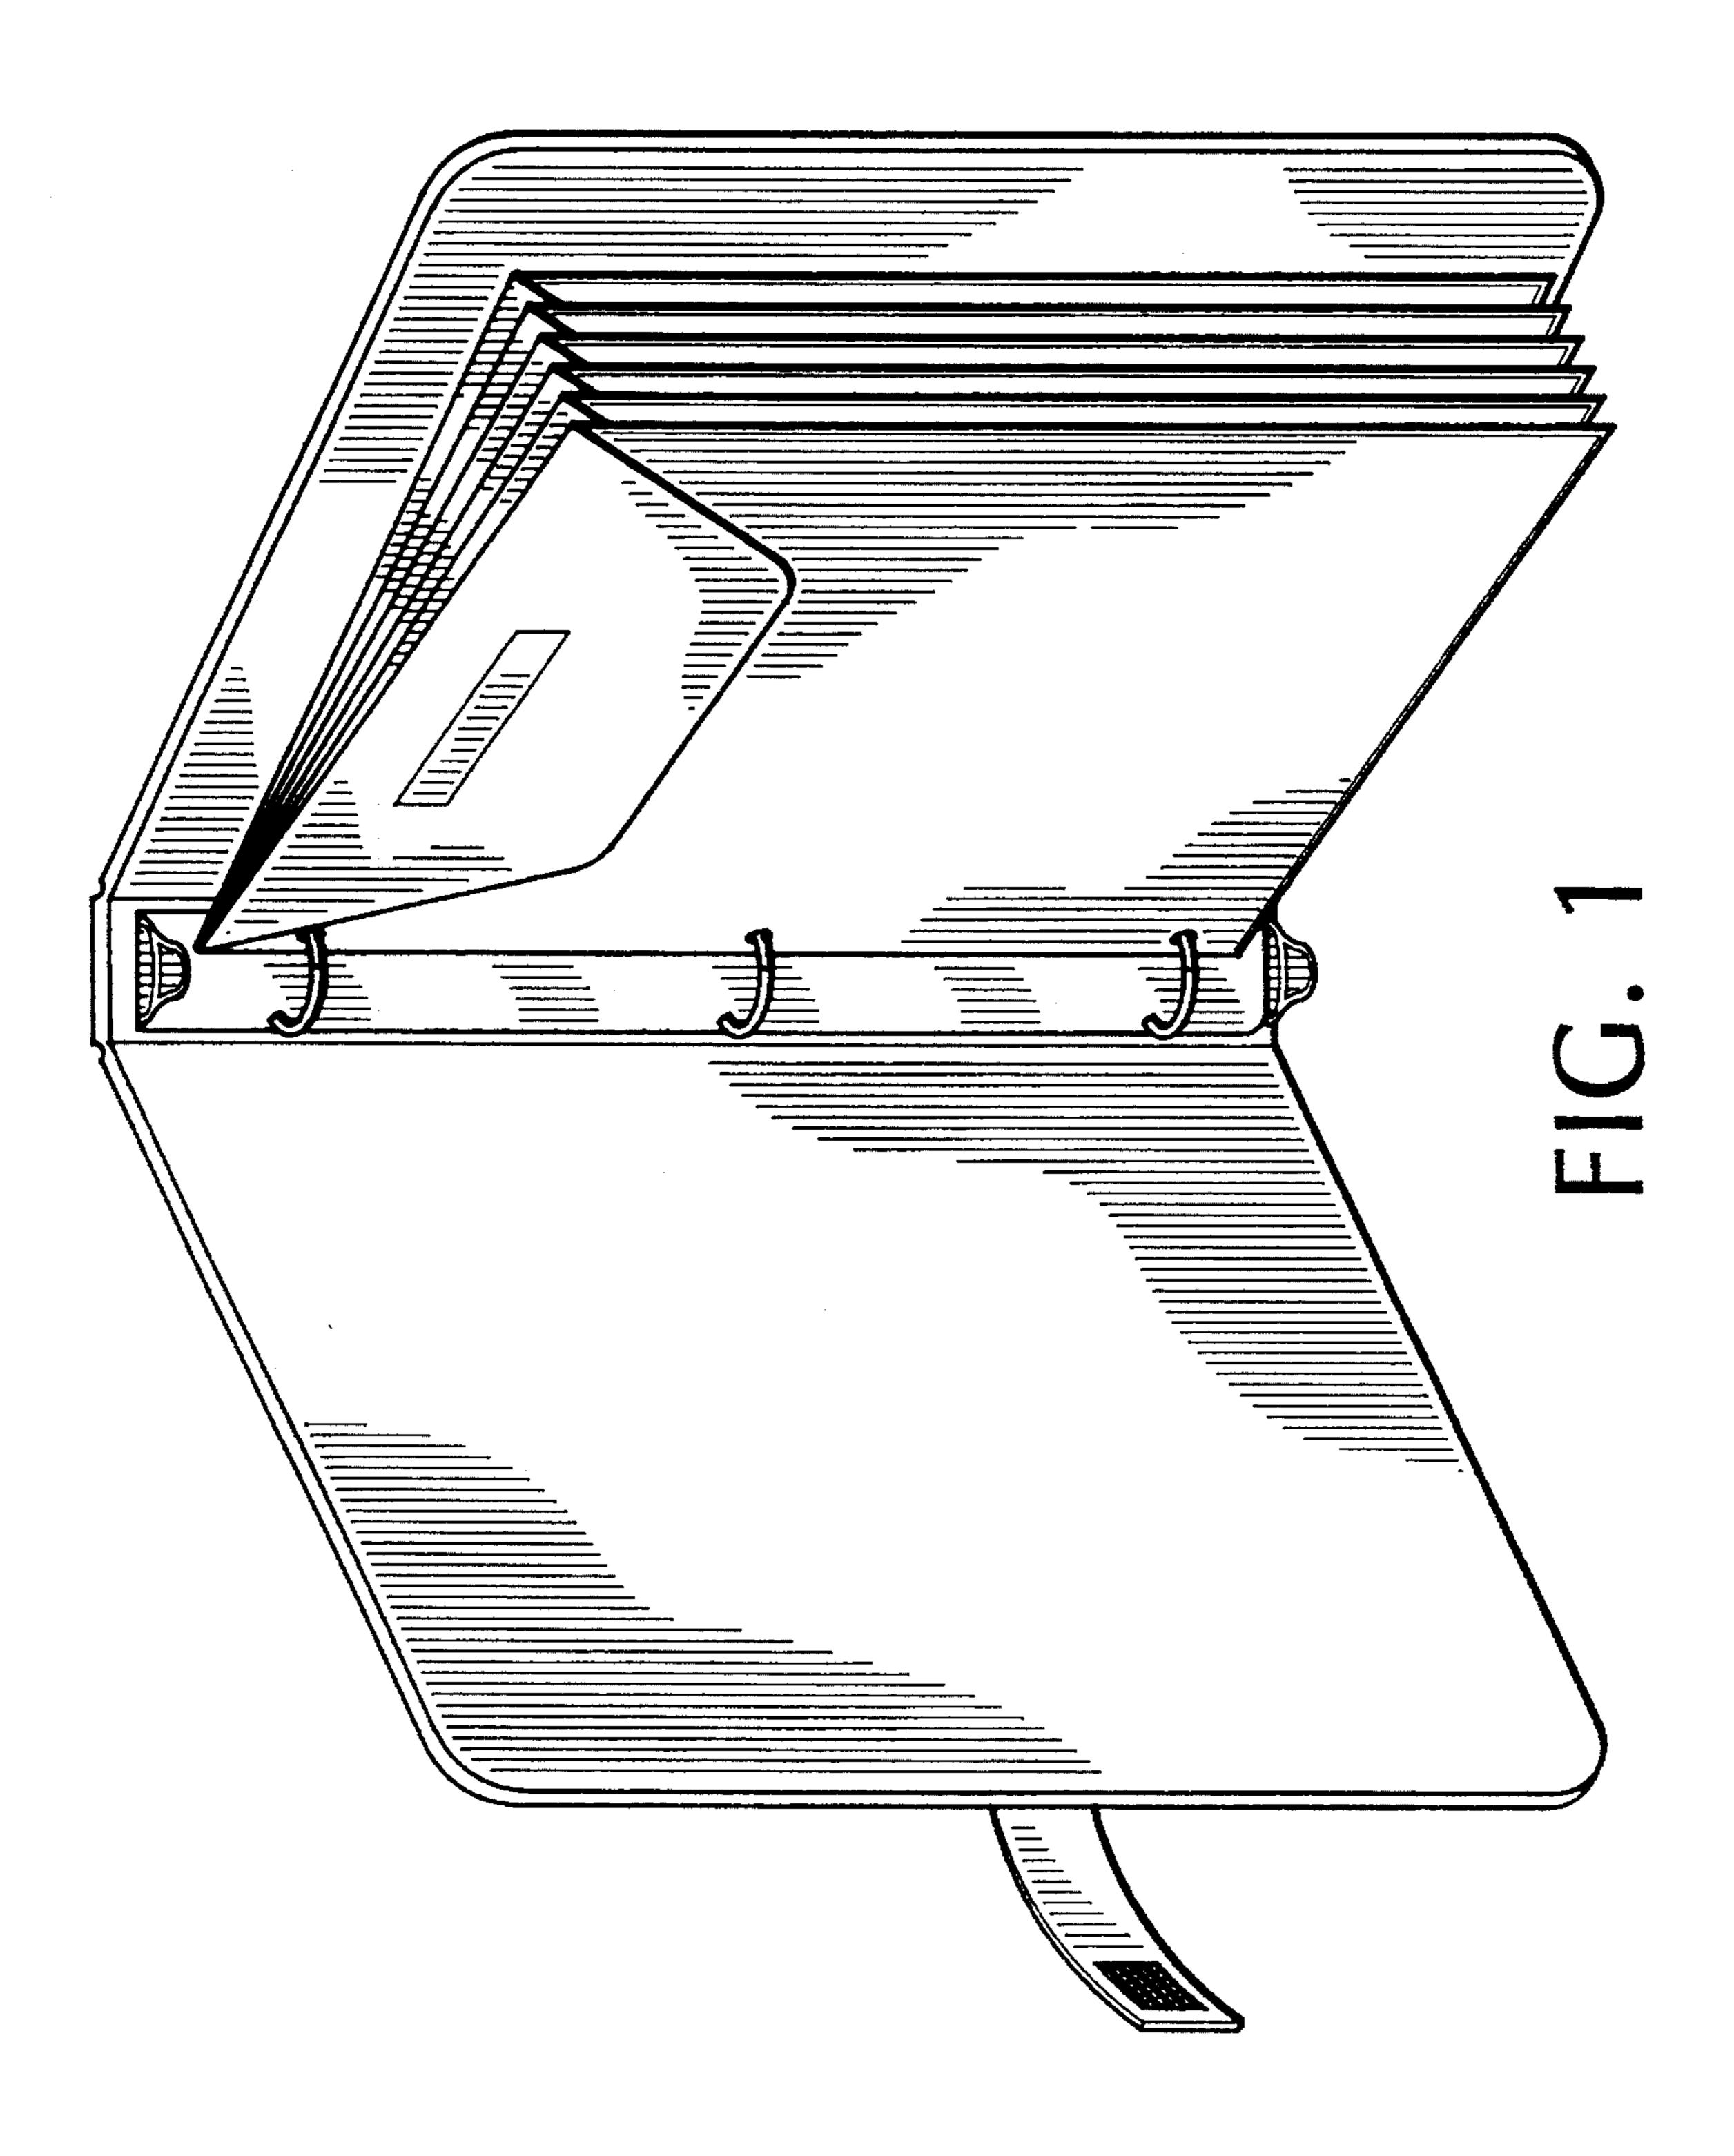

FIG. 23 is a rear elevational view of the third envelope;

FIG. 24 is a top plan view of the third envelope; and,

FIG. 25 is a bottom plan view of the third envelope.
