[57] CLAIM

The ornamental design for an edging strip for tiled steps, as shown and described.

DESCRIPTION

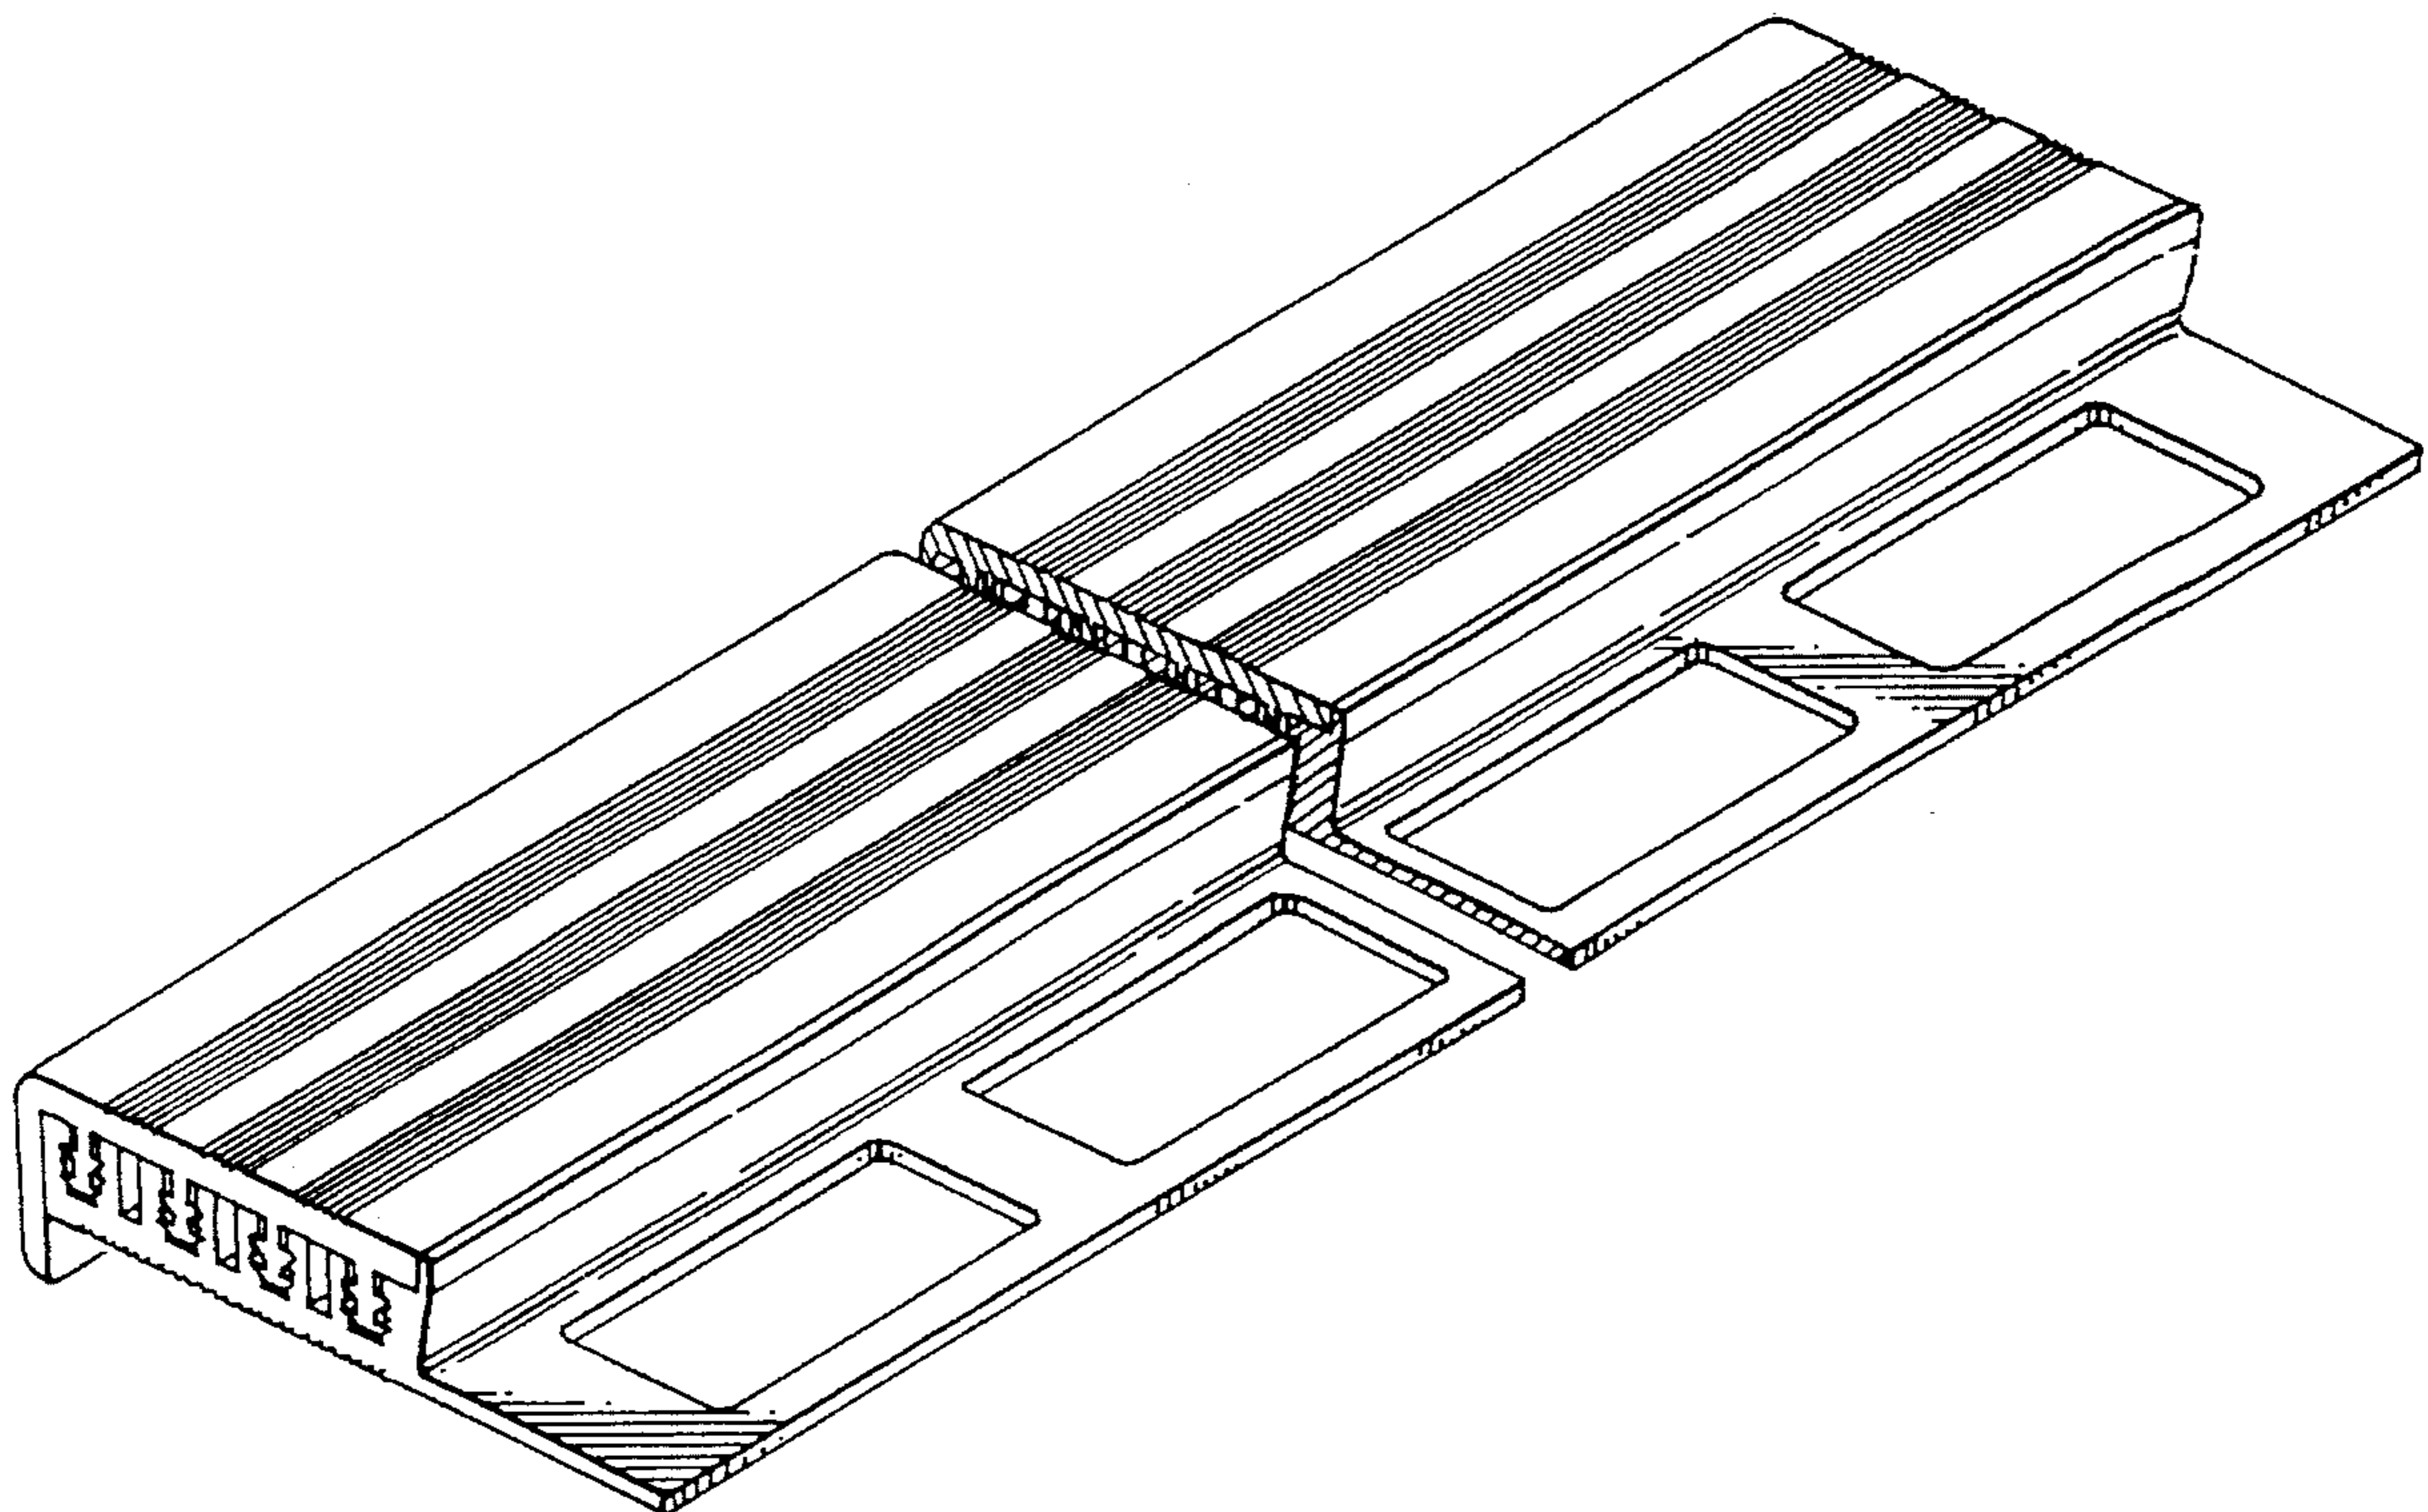

FIG. 1 is a perspective view from one end of the edging strip for tiled steps which is broken in the center to indicate indeterminate length, and the pattern of the openings and grooves is repeated throughout the width thereof;

FIG. 2 is an enlarged view of the other end; and,

FIG. 3 is a perspective view from one end, with parts separated.

The configurations of the extended flange and the grooves located on the bottom left end of the edging strip for tiled steps in FIG. 1, are continuous throughout the width thereof.
