CERTIFICATE OF CORRECTION

PATENT NO. : Des. 374,034
DATED : September 24, 1996
INVENTOR : Lloyd McELFRESH

It is certified that error appears in the above-identified patent and that said Letters Patent is hereby corrected as shown below:

The description portion of the patent is corrected to read as follows:

"The figure is a front elevational view of stationery of conventional thickness showing my new design, the opposite side being flat and plain. The characteristic feature of the design resides in the fact that upon close inspection, what appears at first to be horizontal lines on the stationery are, instead, seen to be repeated patterns of printed words or characters in smalltype."
