[57] CLAIM

The ornamental design of a window lock handle and escutcheon, as shown and described.

DESCRIPTION

FIG. 1 is a perspective view of the window lock handle and escutcheon of the present invention;

FIG. 2 is a top view of the window lock handle and escutcheon of the present invention as oriented in FIG. 1; FIG. 3 is a front view of the window lock handle and escutcheon of the present invention;

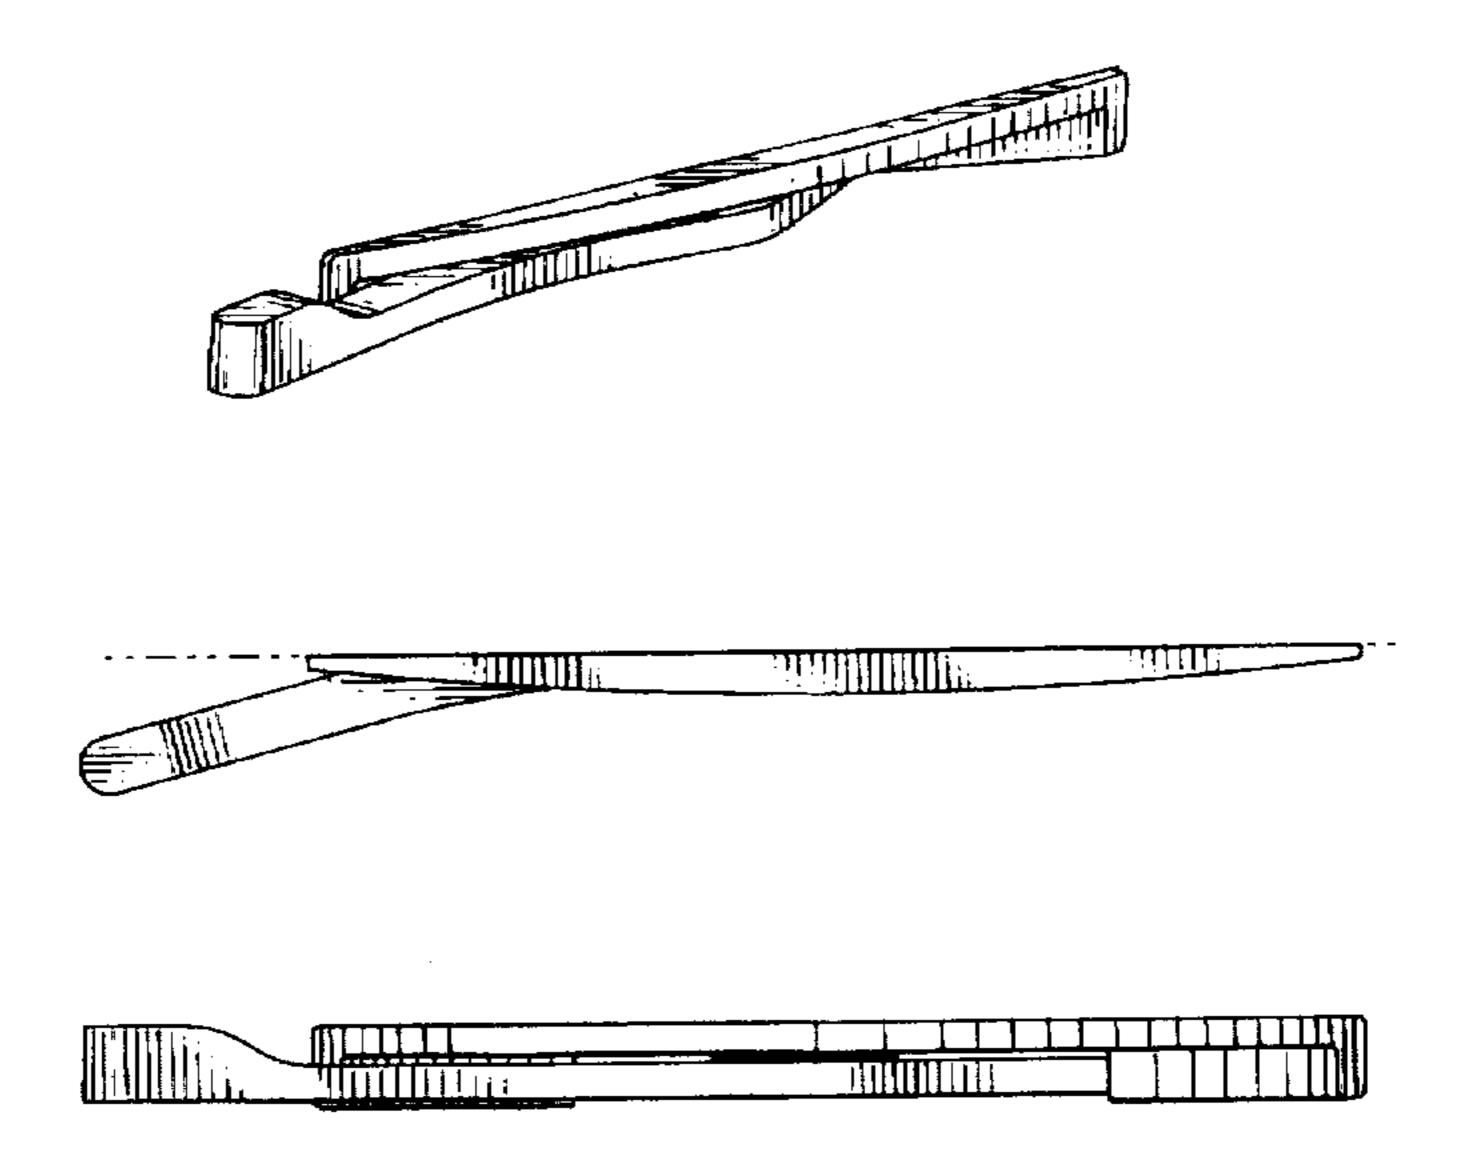

FIG. 4 is a bottom view, relative to the FIG. 3, view, showing the window lock handle and escutcheon of the present invention;

FIG. 5 is a left end view, relative to FIG. 3, of the window lock handle and escutcheon of the present invention; and,

FIG. 6 is a right end view, relative to FIG. 3, of the window lock handle and escutcheon of the present invention.

The surface of a typical window frame within which the window lock handle and escutcheon is installed is indicated by the dashed lines in FIGS. 2, 3, 5 and 6 and portions of the structure which extend beyond that line but which are hidden when installed in a window frame are not illustrated in the Figures because they do not form a portion of the claimed design.
