DESCRIPTION

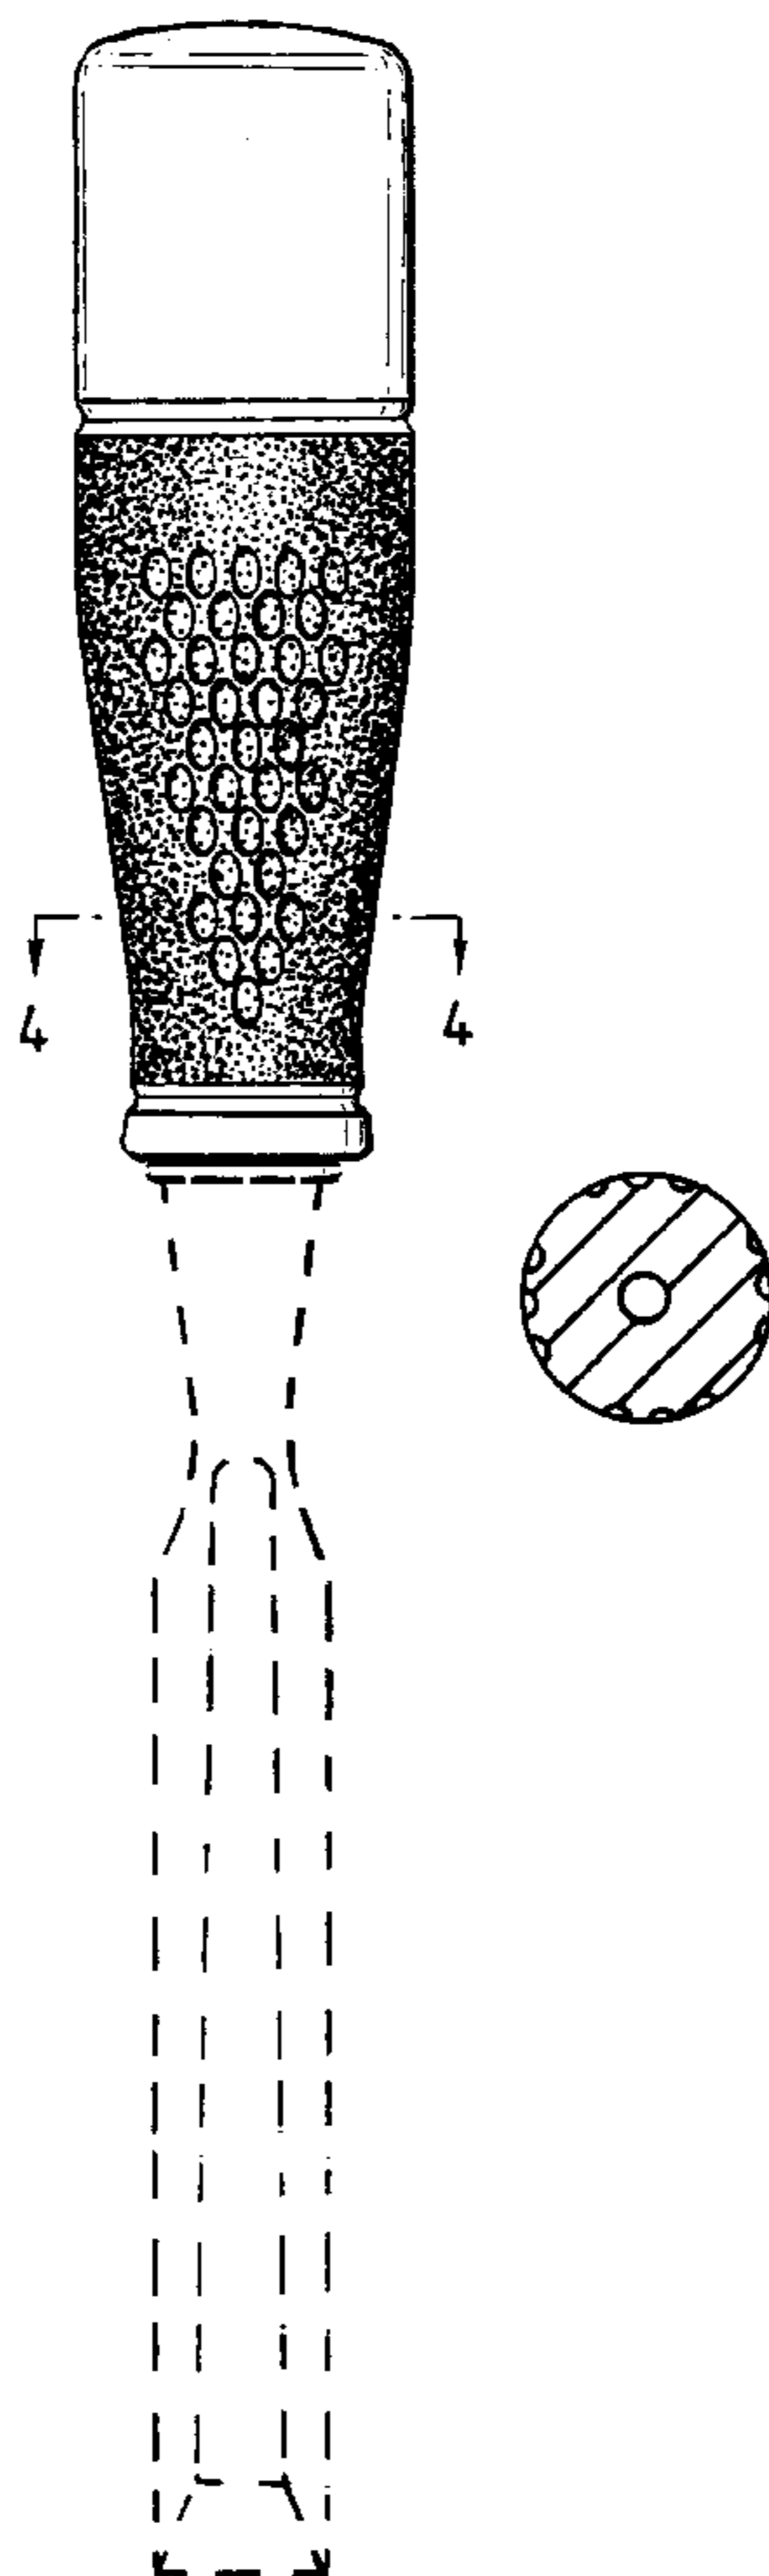

FIG. 1 is a elevational view of a tool handle showing my new design and in which the stippling represents a portion of a color or tone different from that of the unstippled portion and further showing a chisel blade in phantom line for illustrative purposes only and said blade forms no part of the claimed design;

FIG. 2 is a similar elevational view of the handle rotated 90 degrees about its longitudinal axis, the remaining two faces of the handle repeating the pattern seen in FIGS. 1 and 2; FIG. 3 is a plan view of the upper end of the handle as seen in FIGS. 1 and 2; and,

FIG. 4 is a cross sectional view taken along line 4—4 of FIG. 1.

The formations seen in FIGS. 1 and 2 are recesses formed in the surface of the handle as indicated in FIG. 4.
