[57] CLAIM

The ornamental design for a sliding scale map coordinate locator card, as shown and described.

DESCRIPTION

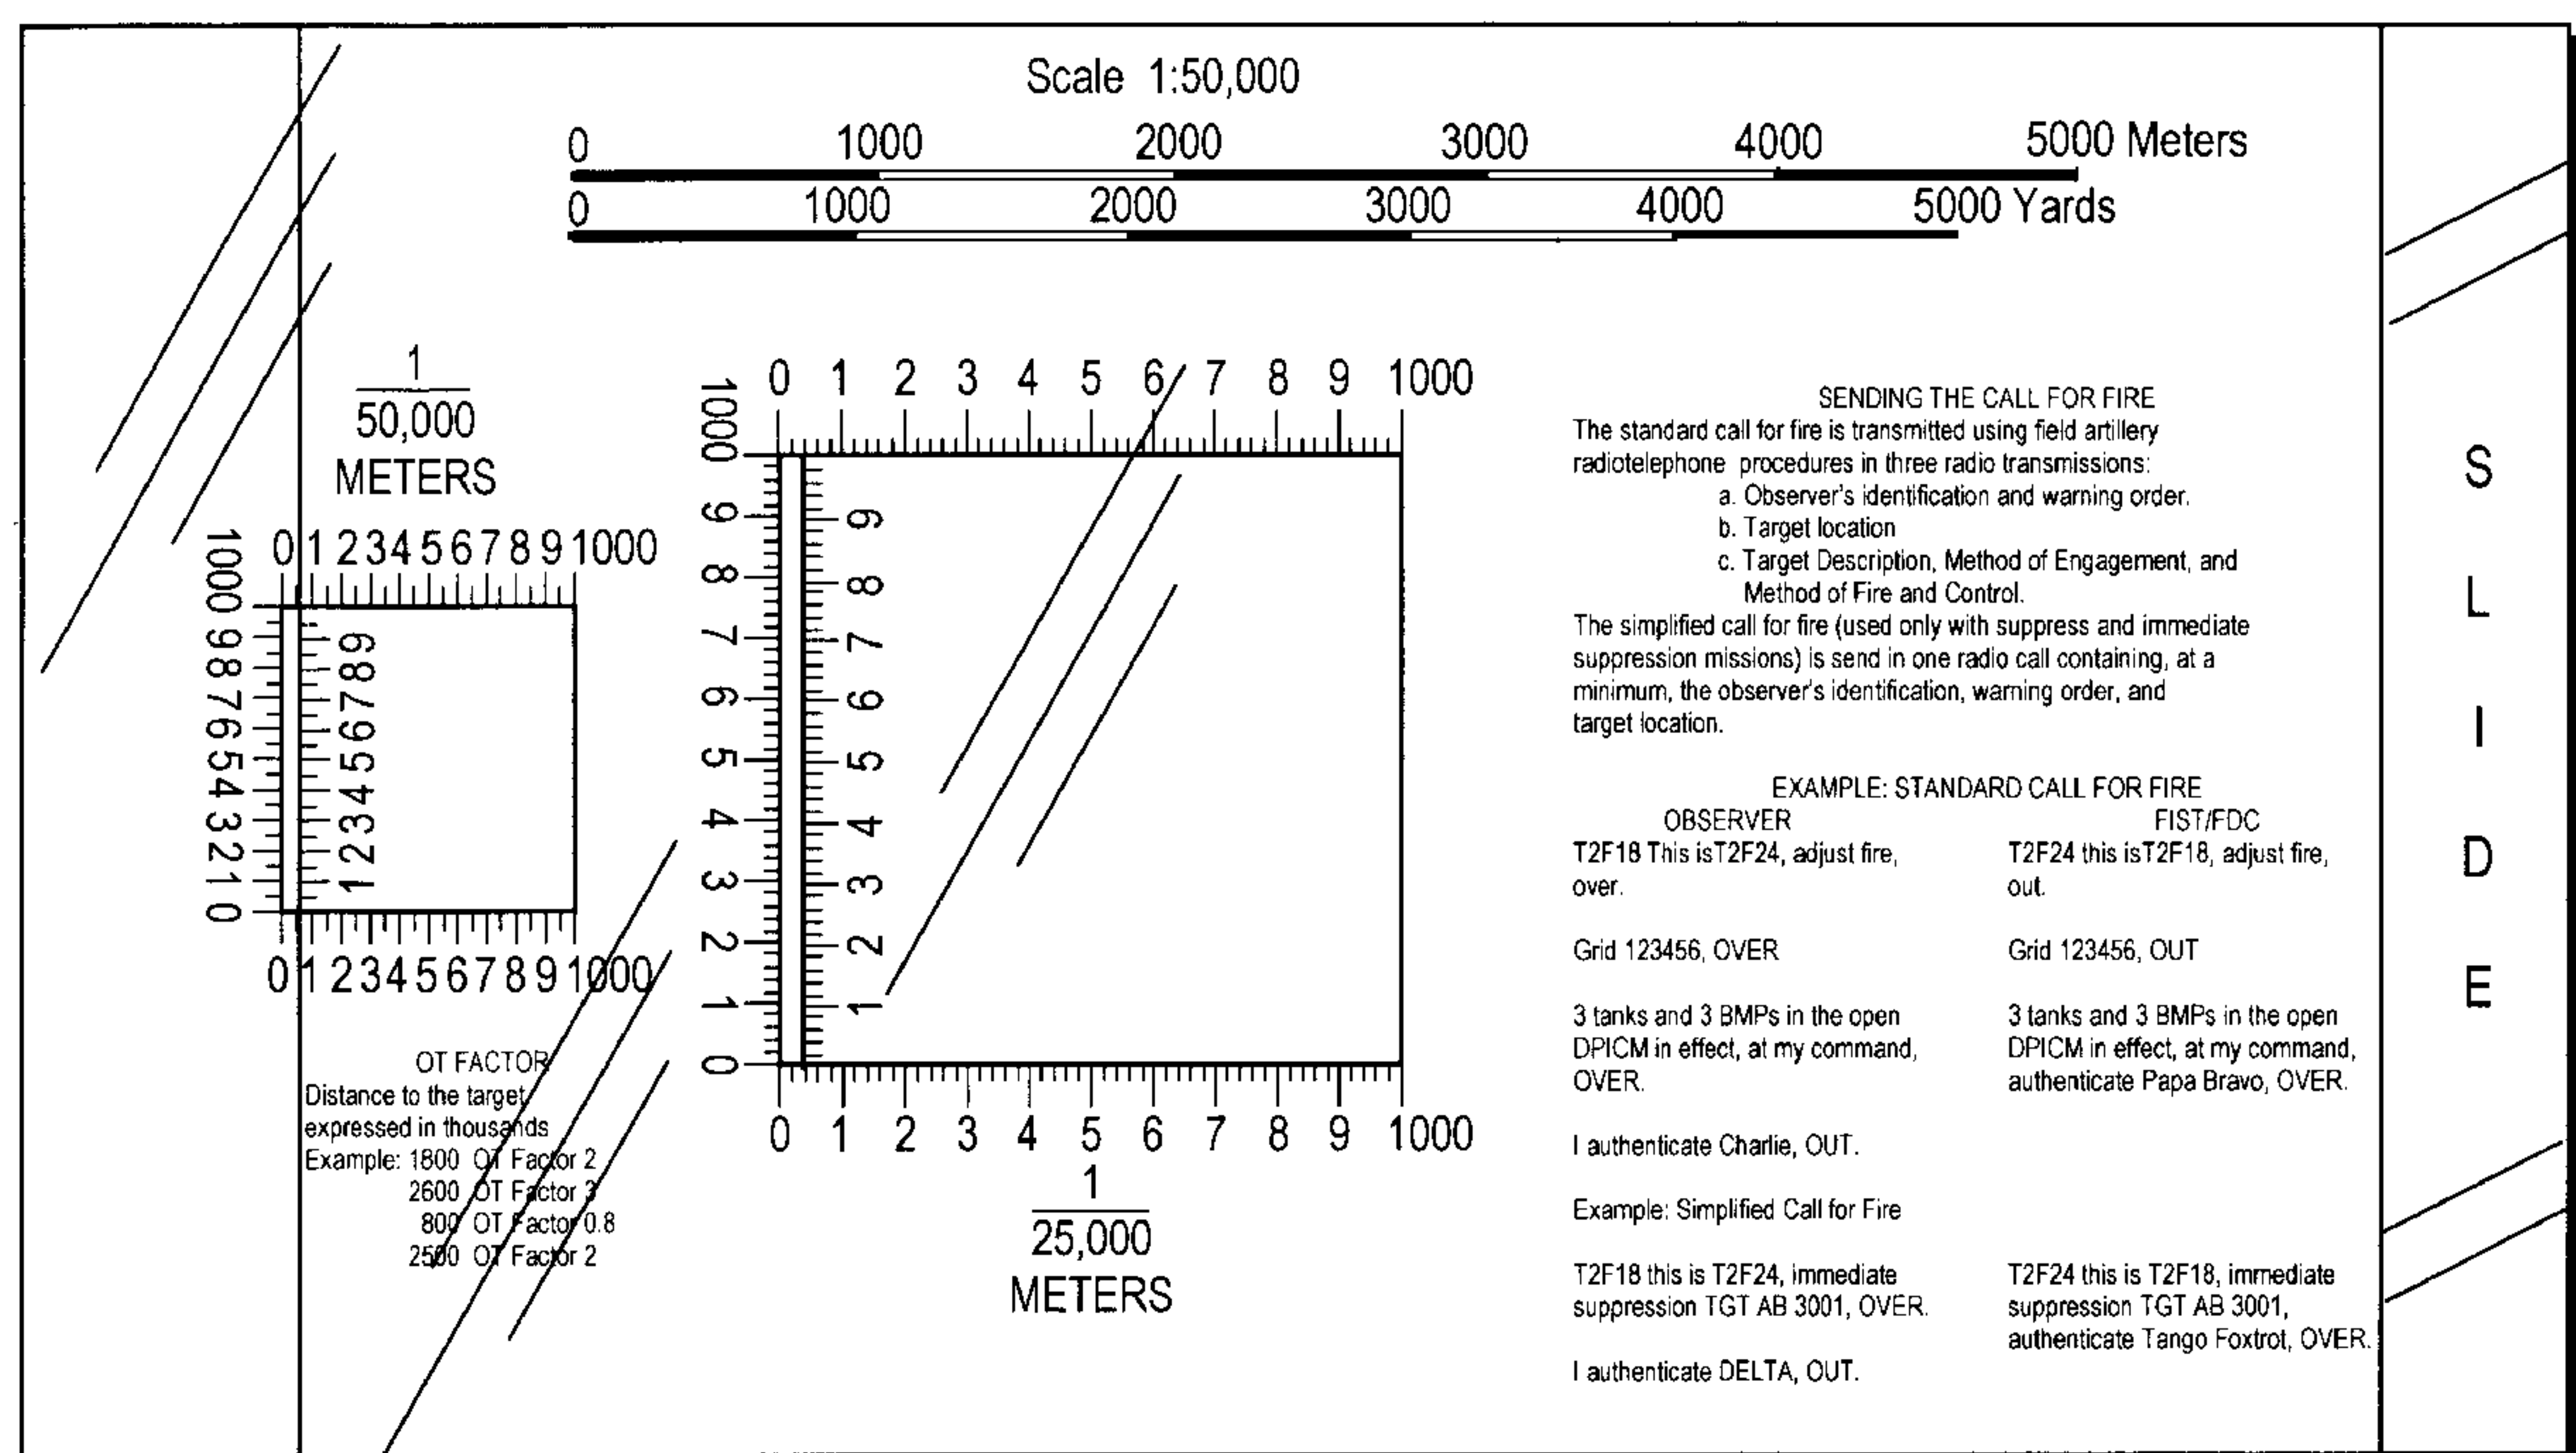

FIG. 1 is a front plan view of a sliding scale map coordinate locator card which embodies my design;

FIG. 2 is a front plan view of the FIG. 1 coordinate locator card depicting the sliding scale partially withdrawn in order to reveal a directional coordinate protractor; and,

FIG. 3 is a front plan view of the FIG. 1 coordinate locator card depicting the sliding scale in a more fully withdrawn position in order to reveal the directional coordinate protractor in its entirety.

The rear plan view being a mirror image while all side views exhibit no appreciable thickness.
