[57] CLAIM

The ornamental design for a combined holder and trash container, as shown and described.

DESCRIPTION

FIG. 1 is a front, perspective view of the holder part of the currently preferred embodiment of the combined holder and trash container showing the new design, with the back side being a mirror image thereof shown separately for clarity of illustration;

FIG. 2 is a front, perspective view of the trash container part of the currently preferred embodiment of the combined holder and trash container showing the new design, with the back side being a mirror image thereof, with the exception of there not being a zippered strip at the bottom of the back-side shown separately for clarity of illustration;

FIG. 3 is a side view of the holder part of FIG. 1, taken from the perspective of lines 3—3 of FIG. 1, with the other side being a mirror image thereof;

FIG. 4 is a perspective view of the combined holder and container parts of the embodiment of FIGS. 1 & 2, with the back-side being a mirror image thereof, again with the exception of there not being a zippered strip at the bottom of the back-side;

FIG. 5 is a side view of the combined holder and container parts of FIG. 4, with the other side being a mirror image thereof;

FIG. 6 is a top or plan view of the combined holder and container parts of FIG. 4, with the other side being a mirror image thereof; it being noted that the bottom view is generally not seen and is essentially unornamented; and,

FIG. 7 is a close-up, detail view of the mesh material of the trash container part of FIG. 2.
