DESCRIPTION

The sole FIGURE is a top plan view of a repeating patten for an embossed paper product embodying our design.

The product to which the claimed pattern is applied can be a single or multi-ply product.

The outer broken line boundaries depict a portion of the paper product to which the pattern is applied and indicate that the pattern repeats indeterminately in all directions. The dot/dash/dot boundaries in the drawing depict a single repeat unit.

The broken line and the dot/dash/dot boundaries form no part of the claimed design.
