[57] CLAIM

The ornamental design for a multiple handle configuration for truck body, as shown and described.

DESCRIPTION

FIG. 1 is a perspective view of the multiple handle configuration on the left side panels of a truck body illustrating the new design incorporating horizontally disposed handles on all of the side panels;

FIG. 2 is a front view of the handle configuration on the left side panels shown in FIG. 1;

FIG. 3 is a front view of the handle configuration on the right side panels of the truck body; and,

FIG. 4 is a perspective view of a horizontally disposed handle on a single longitudinal panel on the right hand side of the truck body.

The broken line portions of the drawings are meant to illustrate environmental structure for which the present invention is intended and forms no part of the claimed design.
