[57] CLAIM

The ornamental design for a garment rear, as shown and described.

DESCRIPTION

FIG. 1 is a rear elevational view of a partial garment showing the first embodiment of my new design, the front being plain and unadorned throughout the figures and views.

FIG. 2 is a top plan view thereof;

FIG. 3 is a bottom plan view thereof.

FIG. 4 is a rear elevational view of a partial garment showing the second embodiment of my design.

FIG. 5 is a right side view thereof;

FIG. 6 is a rear perspective view thereof.

FIG. 7 is a rear elevational view of a partial garment showing the third embodiment with side closure closed.

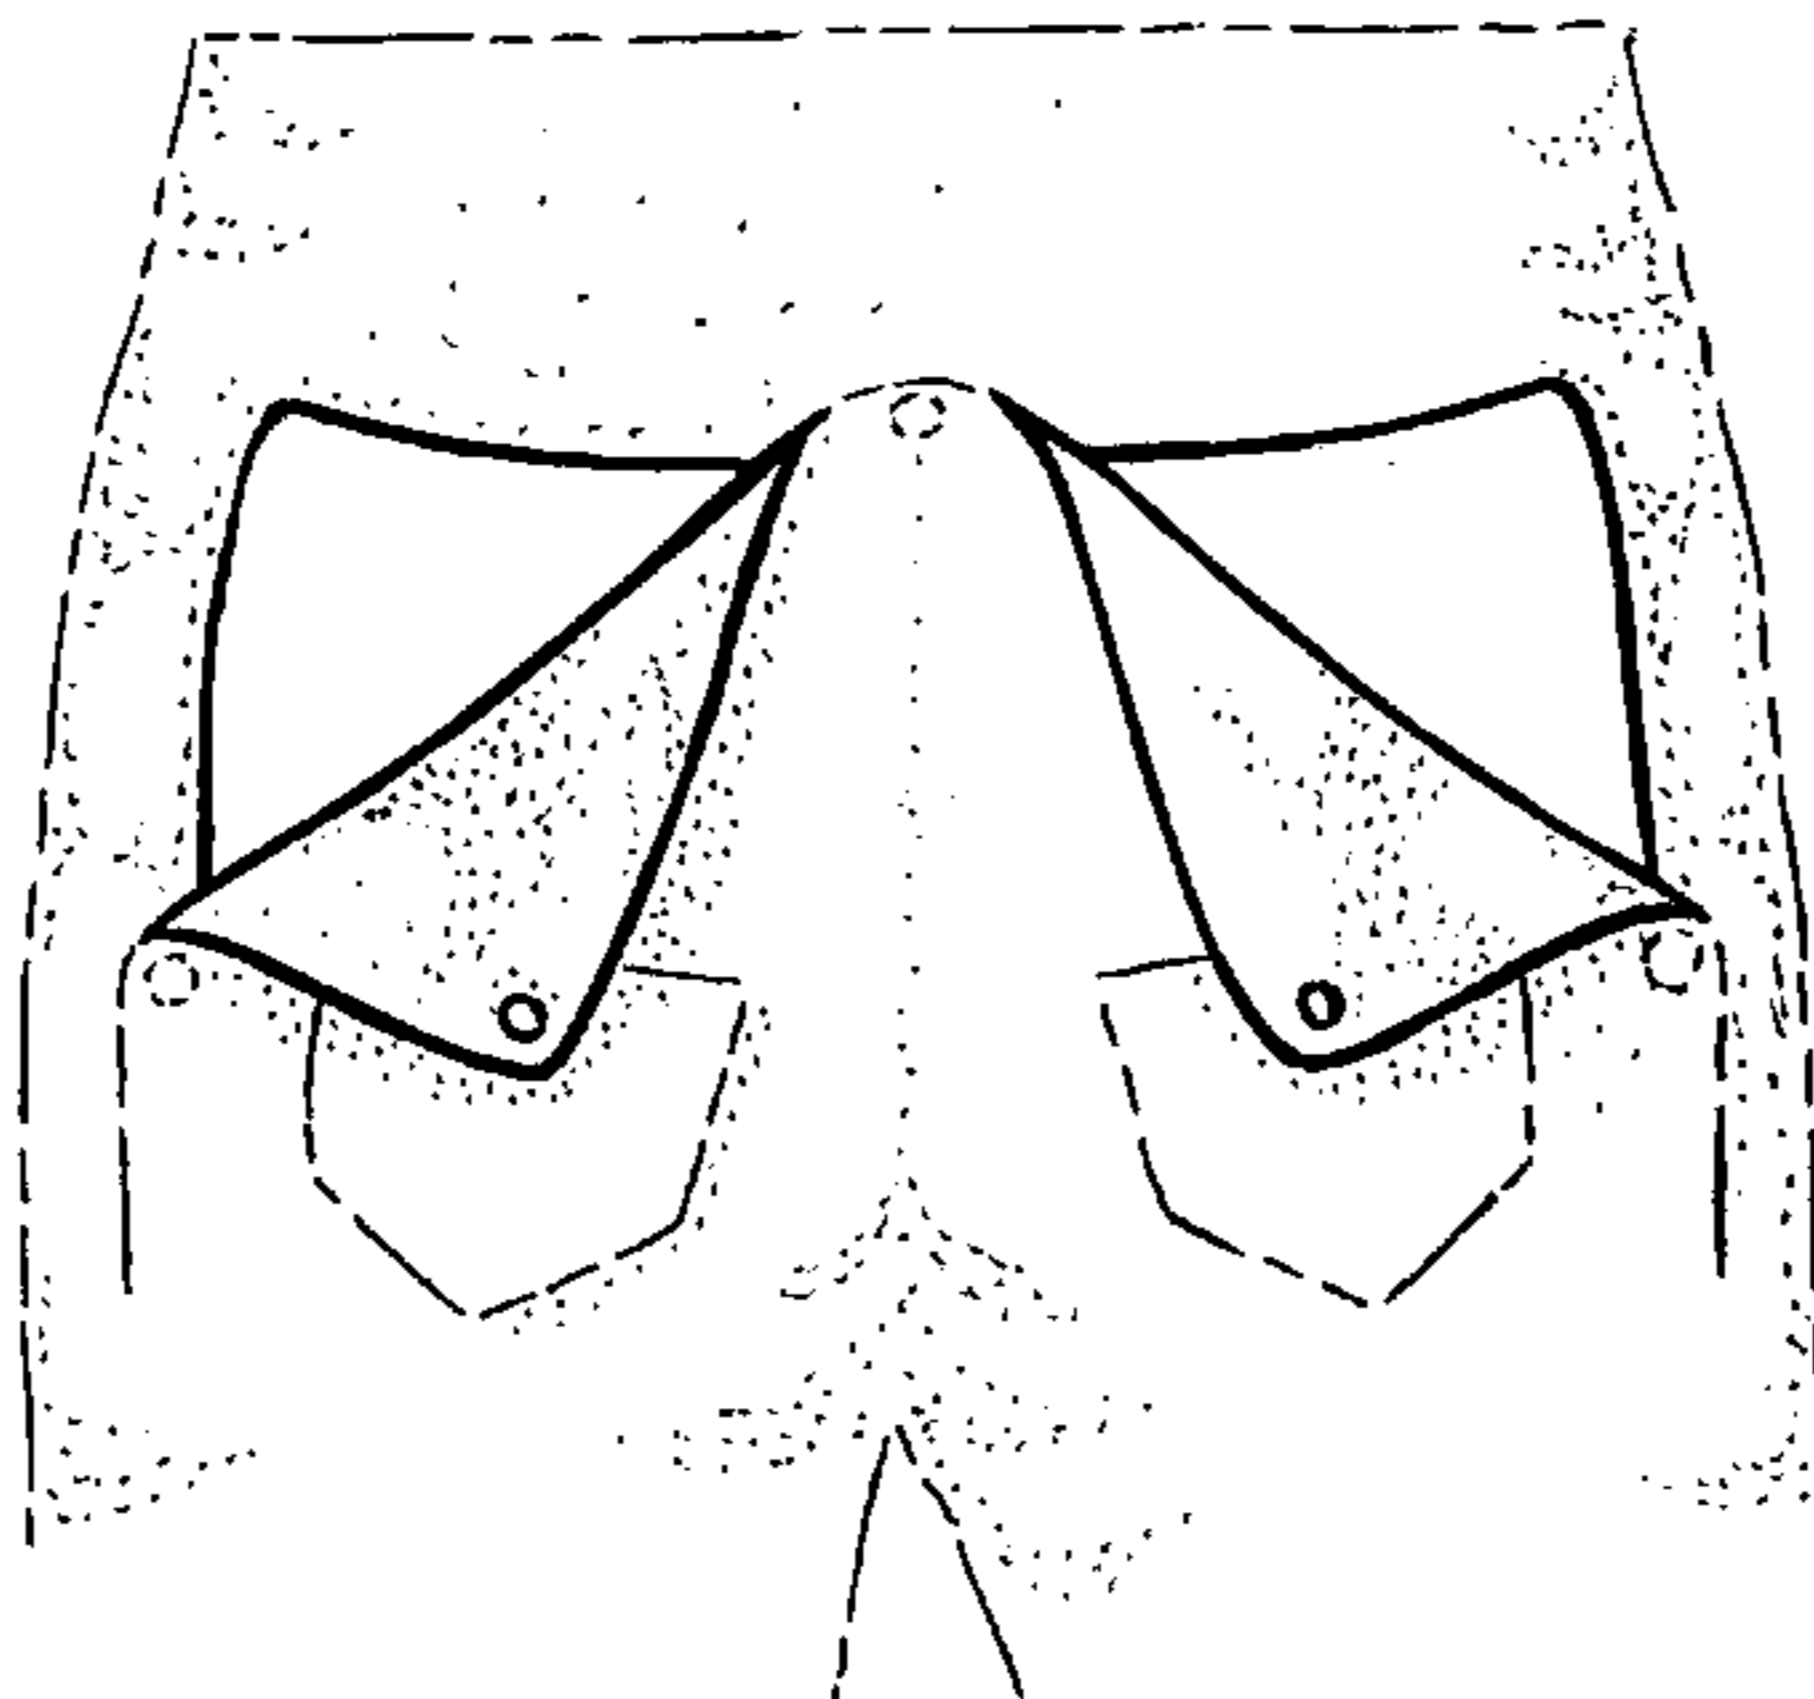

FIG. 8 is a rear elevational view showing the third embodiment with side closure opened.

FIG. 9 is a right side perspective view showing the third embodiment with the side closure closed;

FIG. 10 is a right side perspective view showing the third embodiment with the side closure opened; and,

FIG. 11 is a rear perspective view of the third embodiment.

The broken lines partially showing garments throughout the views are for illustrative purposes only and form no part of the claimed design.

Des. 410,689

A small circle, made up of an unbroken line and forming part of the claimed design, throughout the views being understood to represent conventional closure devices, such as buttons or snaps.

Slanted parallel lines, or hatching, indicate areas devoid of fabric, or empty or blank space.
