FIG. 1 is a front and rear view of a face washcloth showing my new design; and,
FIG. 2 is a side view thereof.

The body or main portion of the face washcloth will be 100% white terrycloth, round, six and a half inches in diameter, with edges tightly stitched in white. The top design is the same as the bottom design.

The intended use of the article, face washcloth, is for washing the face. Each face washcloth is designed to be used once before laundering.
