(57) CLAIM

The ornamental design for a case for reeds of wind instruments, as shown and described.

DESCRIPTION

The invention relates to a case for reeds of wind instruments. This case comprises a body and a lid, the lid being mounted pivotally relative to one end of the body.

The body and the lid are made of a molded plastic material.

FIG. 1 is a bottom plan view of the body;

FIG. 2 is a top plan view of the body;

FIGS. 3 and 4 are side elevation views of the body respectively along each of its longitudinal sides;

FIGS. 5 and 6 are elevation views of the body respectively from each of its ends;

FIG. 7 is a bottom plan view of the lid;

FIG. 8 is a top plan view of the lid;

FIGS. 9 and 10 are side elevation views of the lid respectively along each of its longitudinal sides;

FIGS. 11 and 12 are elevation views of the lid respectively from each of its ends;

FIG. 13 is a bottom view of the case, with the body and the lid in the assembled position, the lid being in the closing position turned down onto the body;

FIG. 14 is a top view of the case in the position of FIG. 13;

FIGS. 15 and 16 are side elevation views of the case, in the position of FIG. 13, respectively along each of its longitudinal sides;

FIGS. 17 and 18 are elevation views of the case, in the position of FIG. 13, respectively from each of its ends; and,

FIGS. 19 and 20 are perspective views of the case in the closed position and in the open position respectively.
