(57) CLAIM

We claim the ornamental design for daisy with wavy border surface pattern for paper product, as shown and described.

DESCRIPTION

The FIGURE is a plan view of daisy with wavy border surface pattern for paper product showing my new design, it being understood that the broken lines define a portion of the paper product and indicate that the pattern continues indefinitely in one or more directions and repeats uniformly throughout the length and width of the paper product. The broken lines form no part of the claimed design.
