(57) CLAIM

The ornamental design for a surface pattern for a soft, flexible disposable wipe, as shown and described.

DESCRIPTION

The FIGURE is a top plan view of a surface pattern for a soft, flexible disposable wipe, it being understood that the broken lines define a portion of the soft, flexible disposable wipe and indicate that the pattern continues indeterminately in one or more directions and repeats uniformly throughout the length and width of the soft, flexible disposable wipe.
The broken lines form no part of the claimed design.
