(57) CLAIM

What is claimed is the ornamental design for a glow hat, as shown and described.

DESCRIPTION

The glow hat is intended to be worn as a hat. The outer surfaces of the hat may have disposed on them various sizes and shapes of material that absorbs light energy to emit such light energy in a glowing fashion over a period of time. For example, in FIGS. 1–9, an example is shown of a hat having strips of material sewn into the hat that act in the glowing fashion discussed above. Other hats having other sizes and shapes glow material attached thereon may be included as well.

FIG. 1 is an isometric view showing the glow hat of Applicant's invention;

FIG. 2 is a magnified view of a first glowing portion attached to the hat of FIG. 1;

FIG. 3 is a magnified view of a second glowing portion attached to the hat of FIG. 1;

FIG. 4 is a front elevation of the glow hat of Applicant's invention;

FIG. 5 is a rear elevation of the glow hat of Applicant's invention;

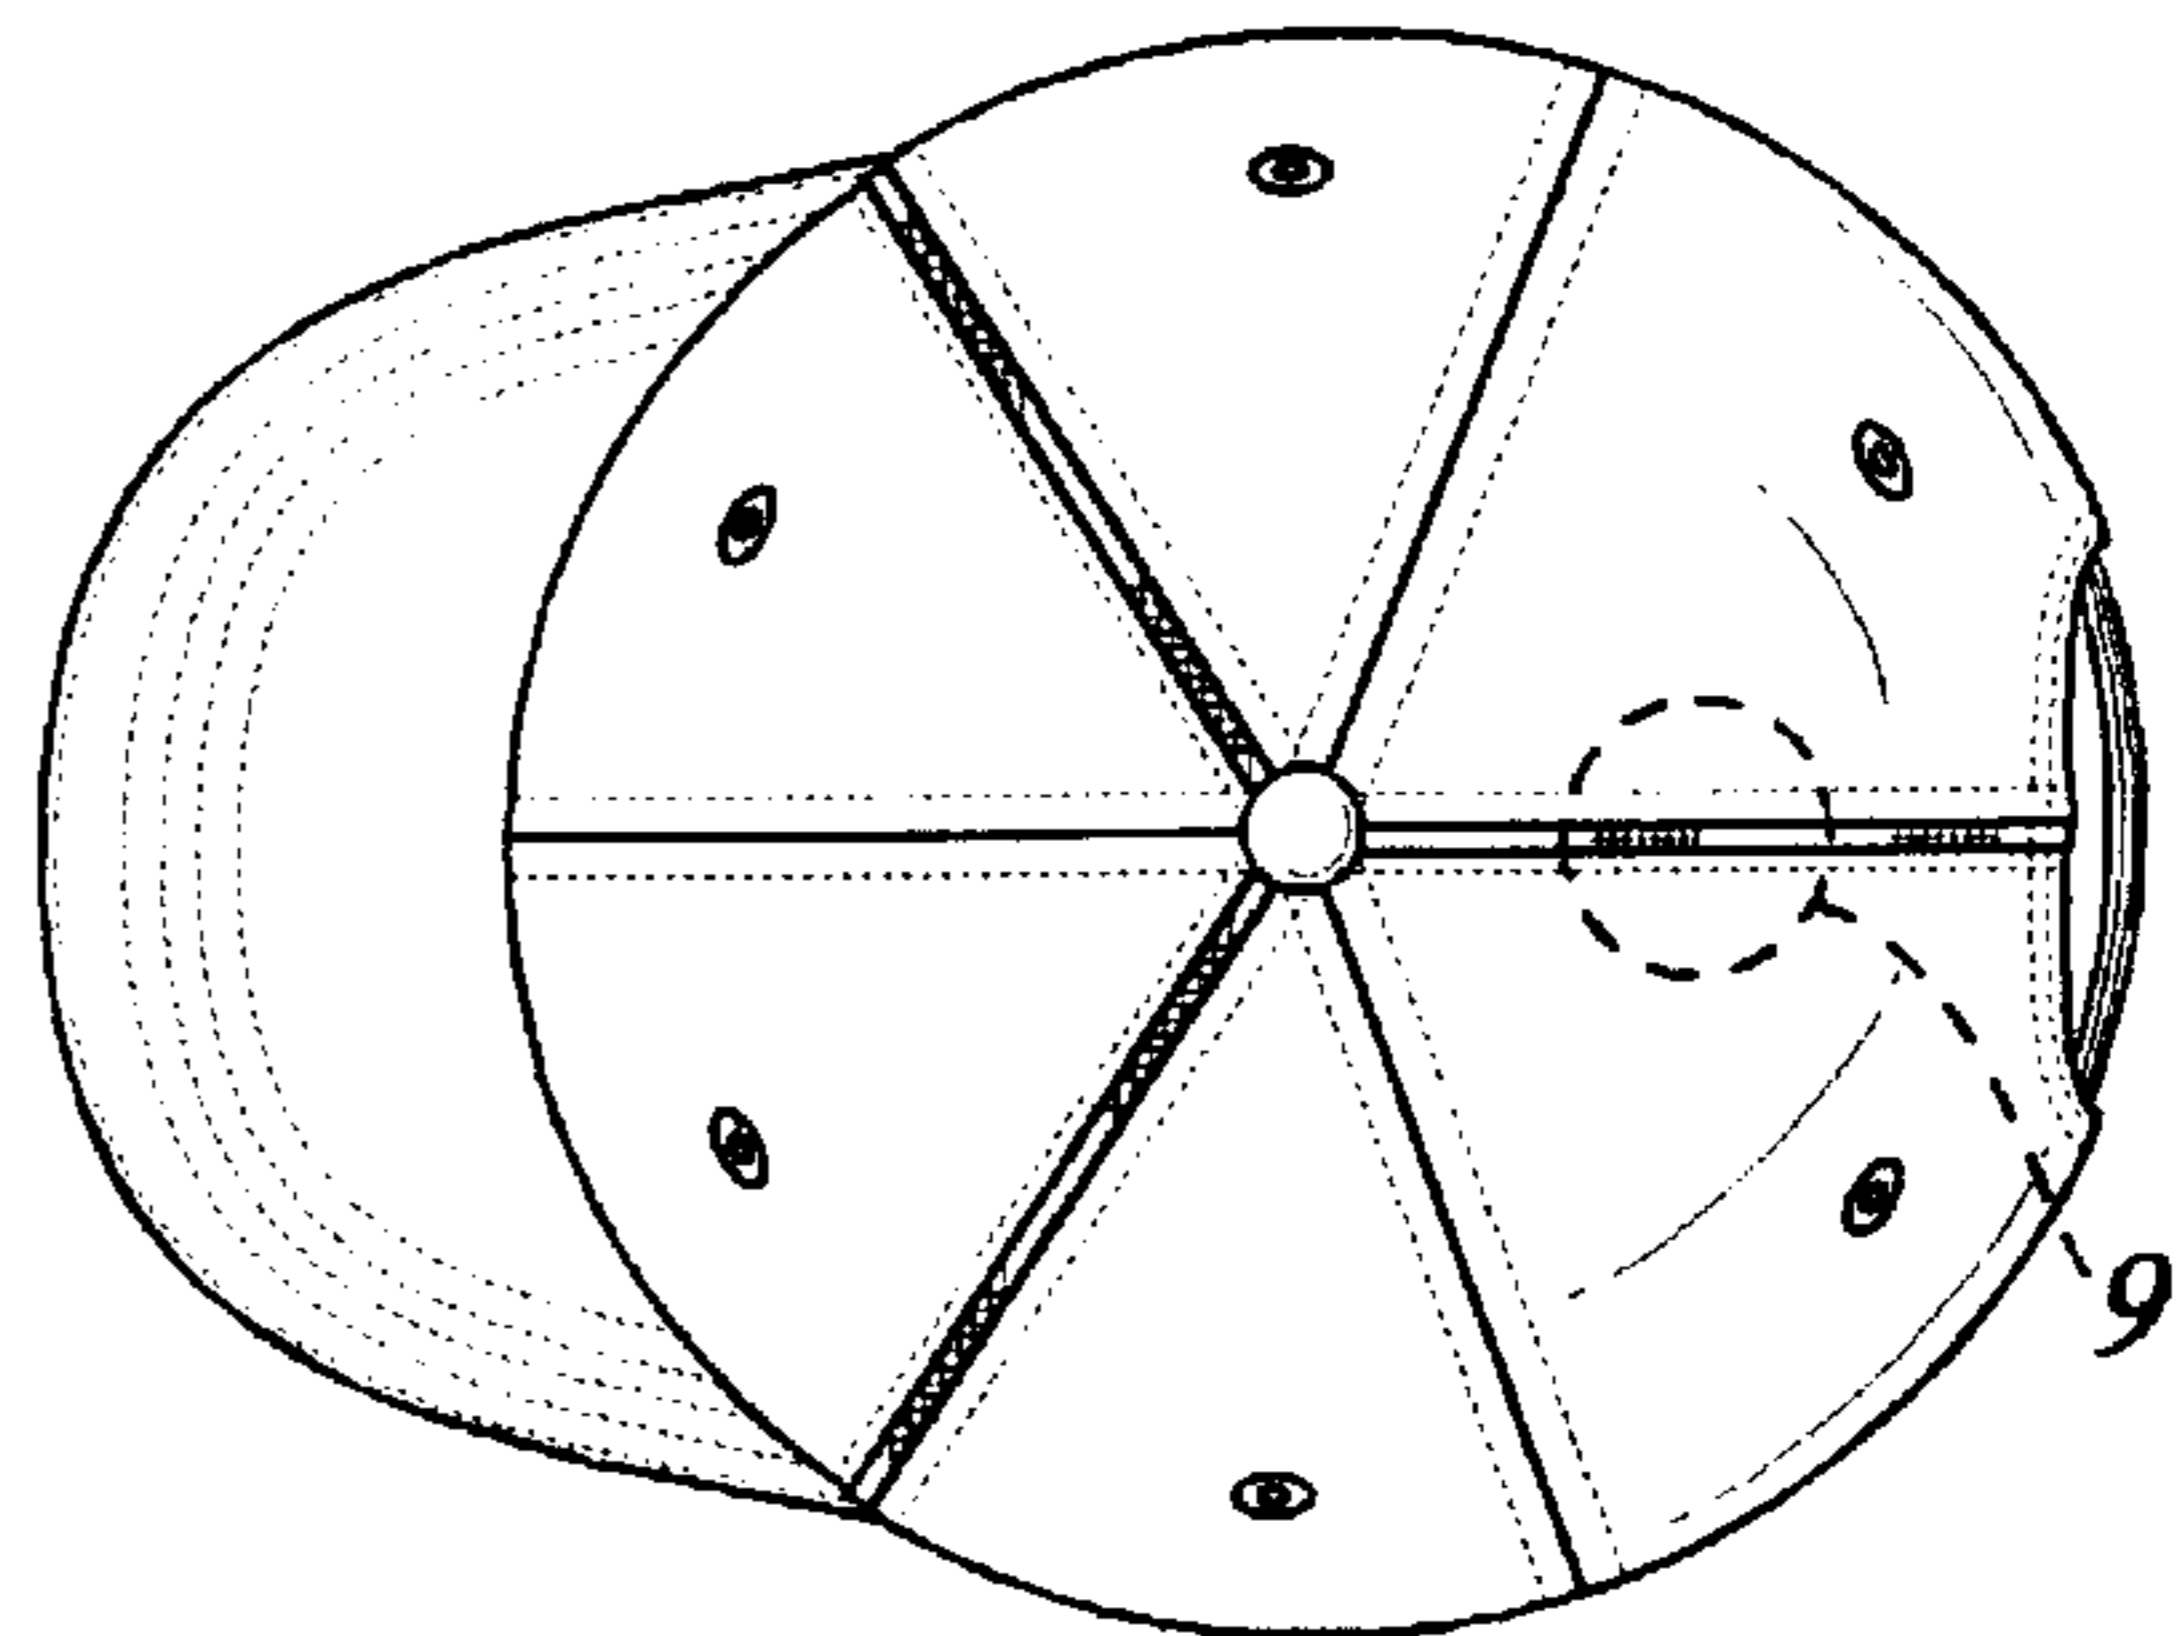

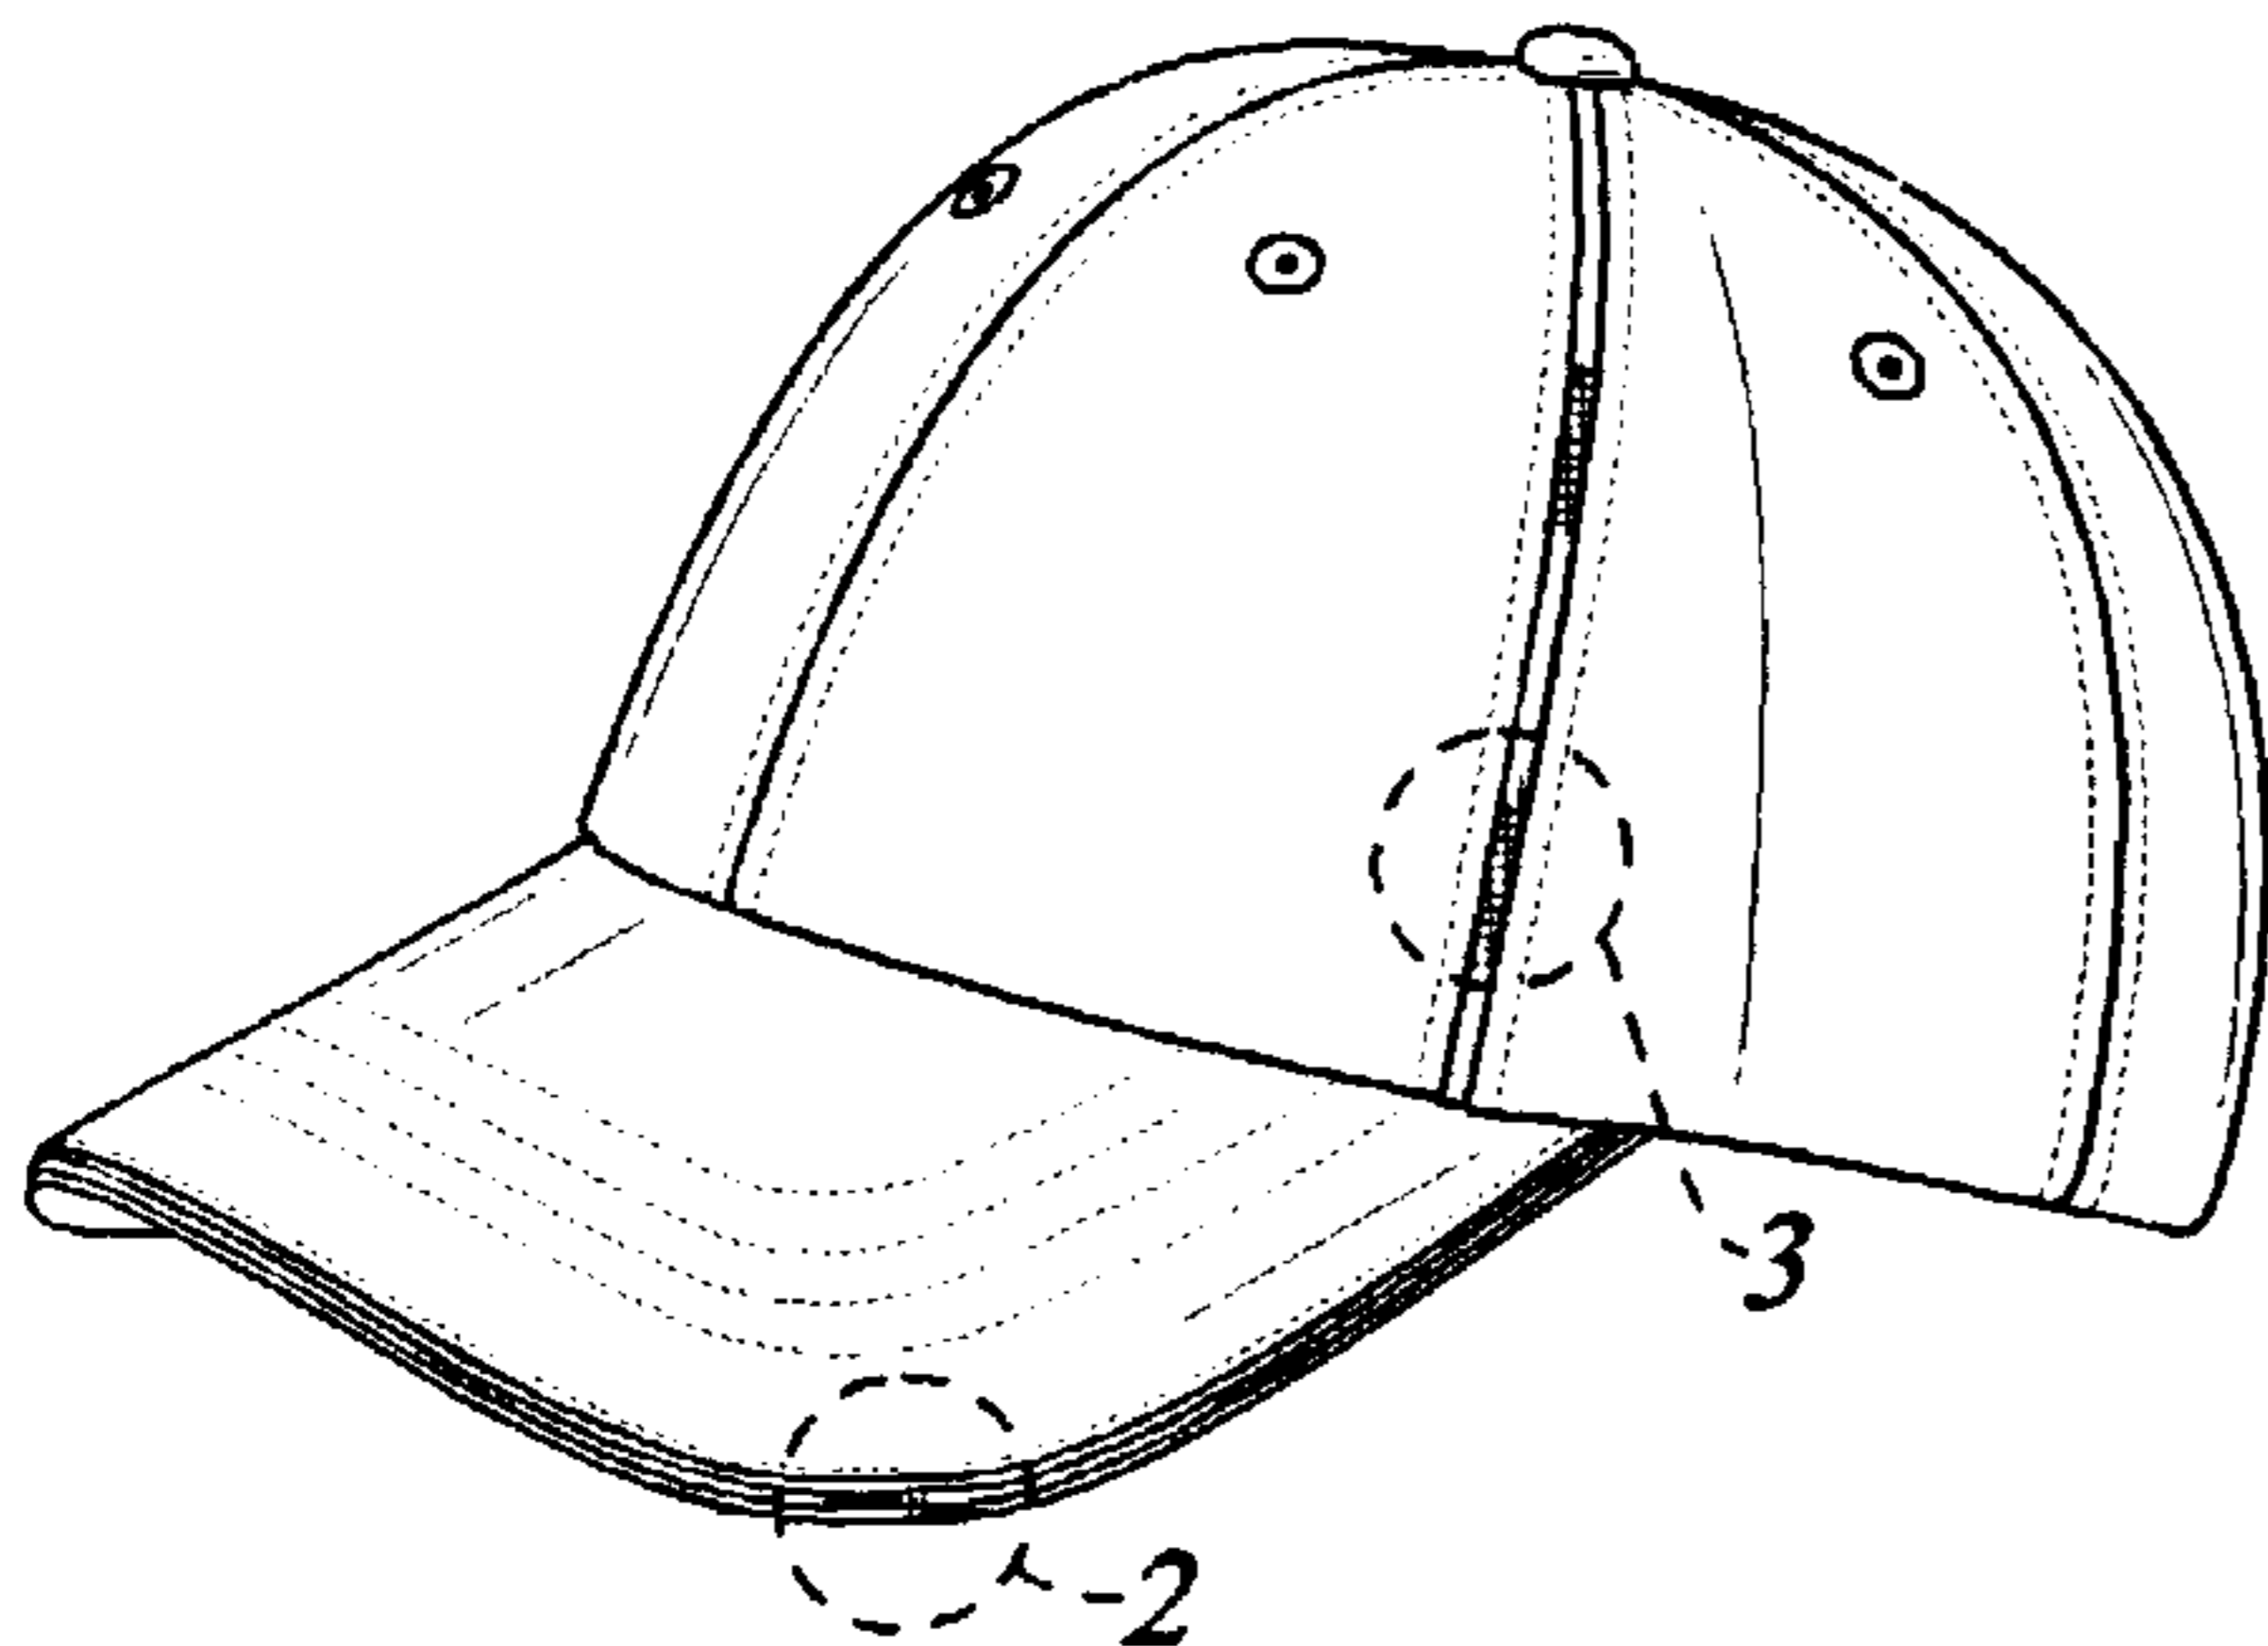

FIG. 6 is a magnified view of a third glowing portion attached to the hat of FIG. 5;

FIG. 7 is a left side elevation of the glow hat of Applicant's invention, both sides being identical;

FIG. 8 is a plan view of the glow hat of Applicant's invention; and,

FIG. 9 is a magnified view of a fourth glowing portion attached to the hat of FIG. 8.
