(57) CLAIM

The ornamental design for a bag portion with convex circular pocket, as shown and described.

DESCRIPTION

This application is related in subject matter to U.S. patent application Ser. No. 29/104,443, filed May 5, 1999, entitled “Bag Portion with Circular Pocket”, now U.S. patent application Ser. No. D431,901.

FIG. 1 is a top plan view of a bag portion with convex circular pocket, attached to at least a portion of a bag and illustrated with an access shown in broken lines.

FIG. 2 is a bottom plan view thereof where only a portion of the bag is viewable;

FIG. 3 is a right side elevational view of FIG. 1; the left side being a mirror image thereof;

FIG. 4 is a top plan view of a bag portion with convex circular pocket showing a second embodiment of my new design, which differs from the first embodiment only by the inclusion of a top-accessed circular pocket having a different fabric, as indicated by contrasting shading.

FIG. 5 is a top plan view of a bag portion with convex circular pocket showing a third embodiment of my new design, having an elliptical shape attached to at least a portion of a bag and illustrated with an access shown in broken lines;

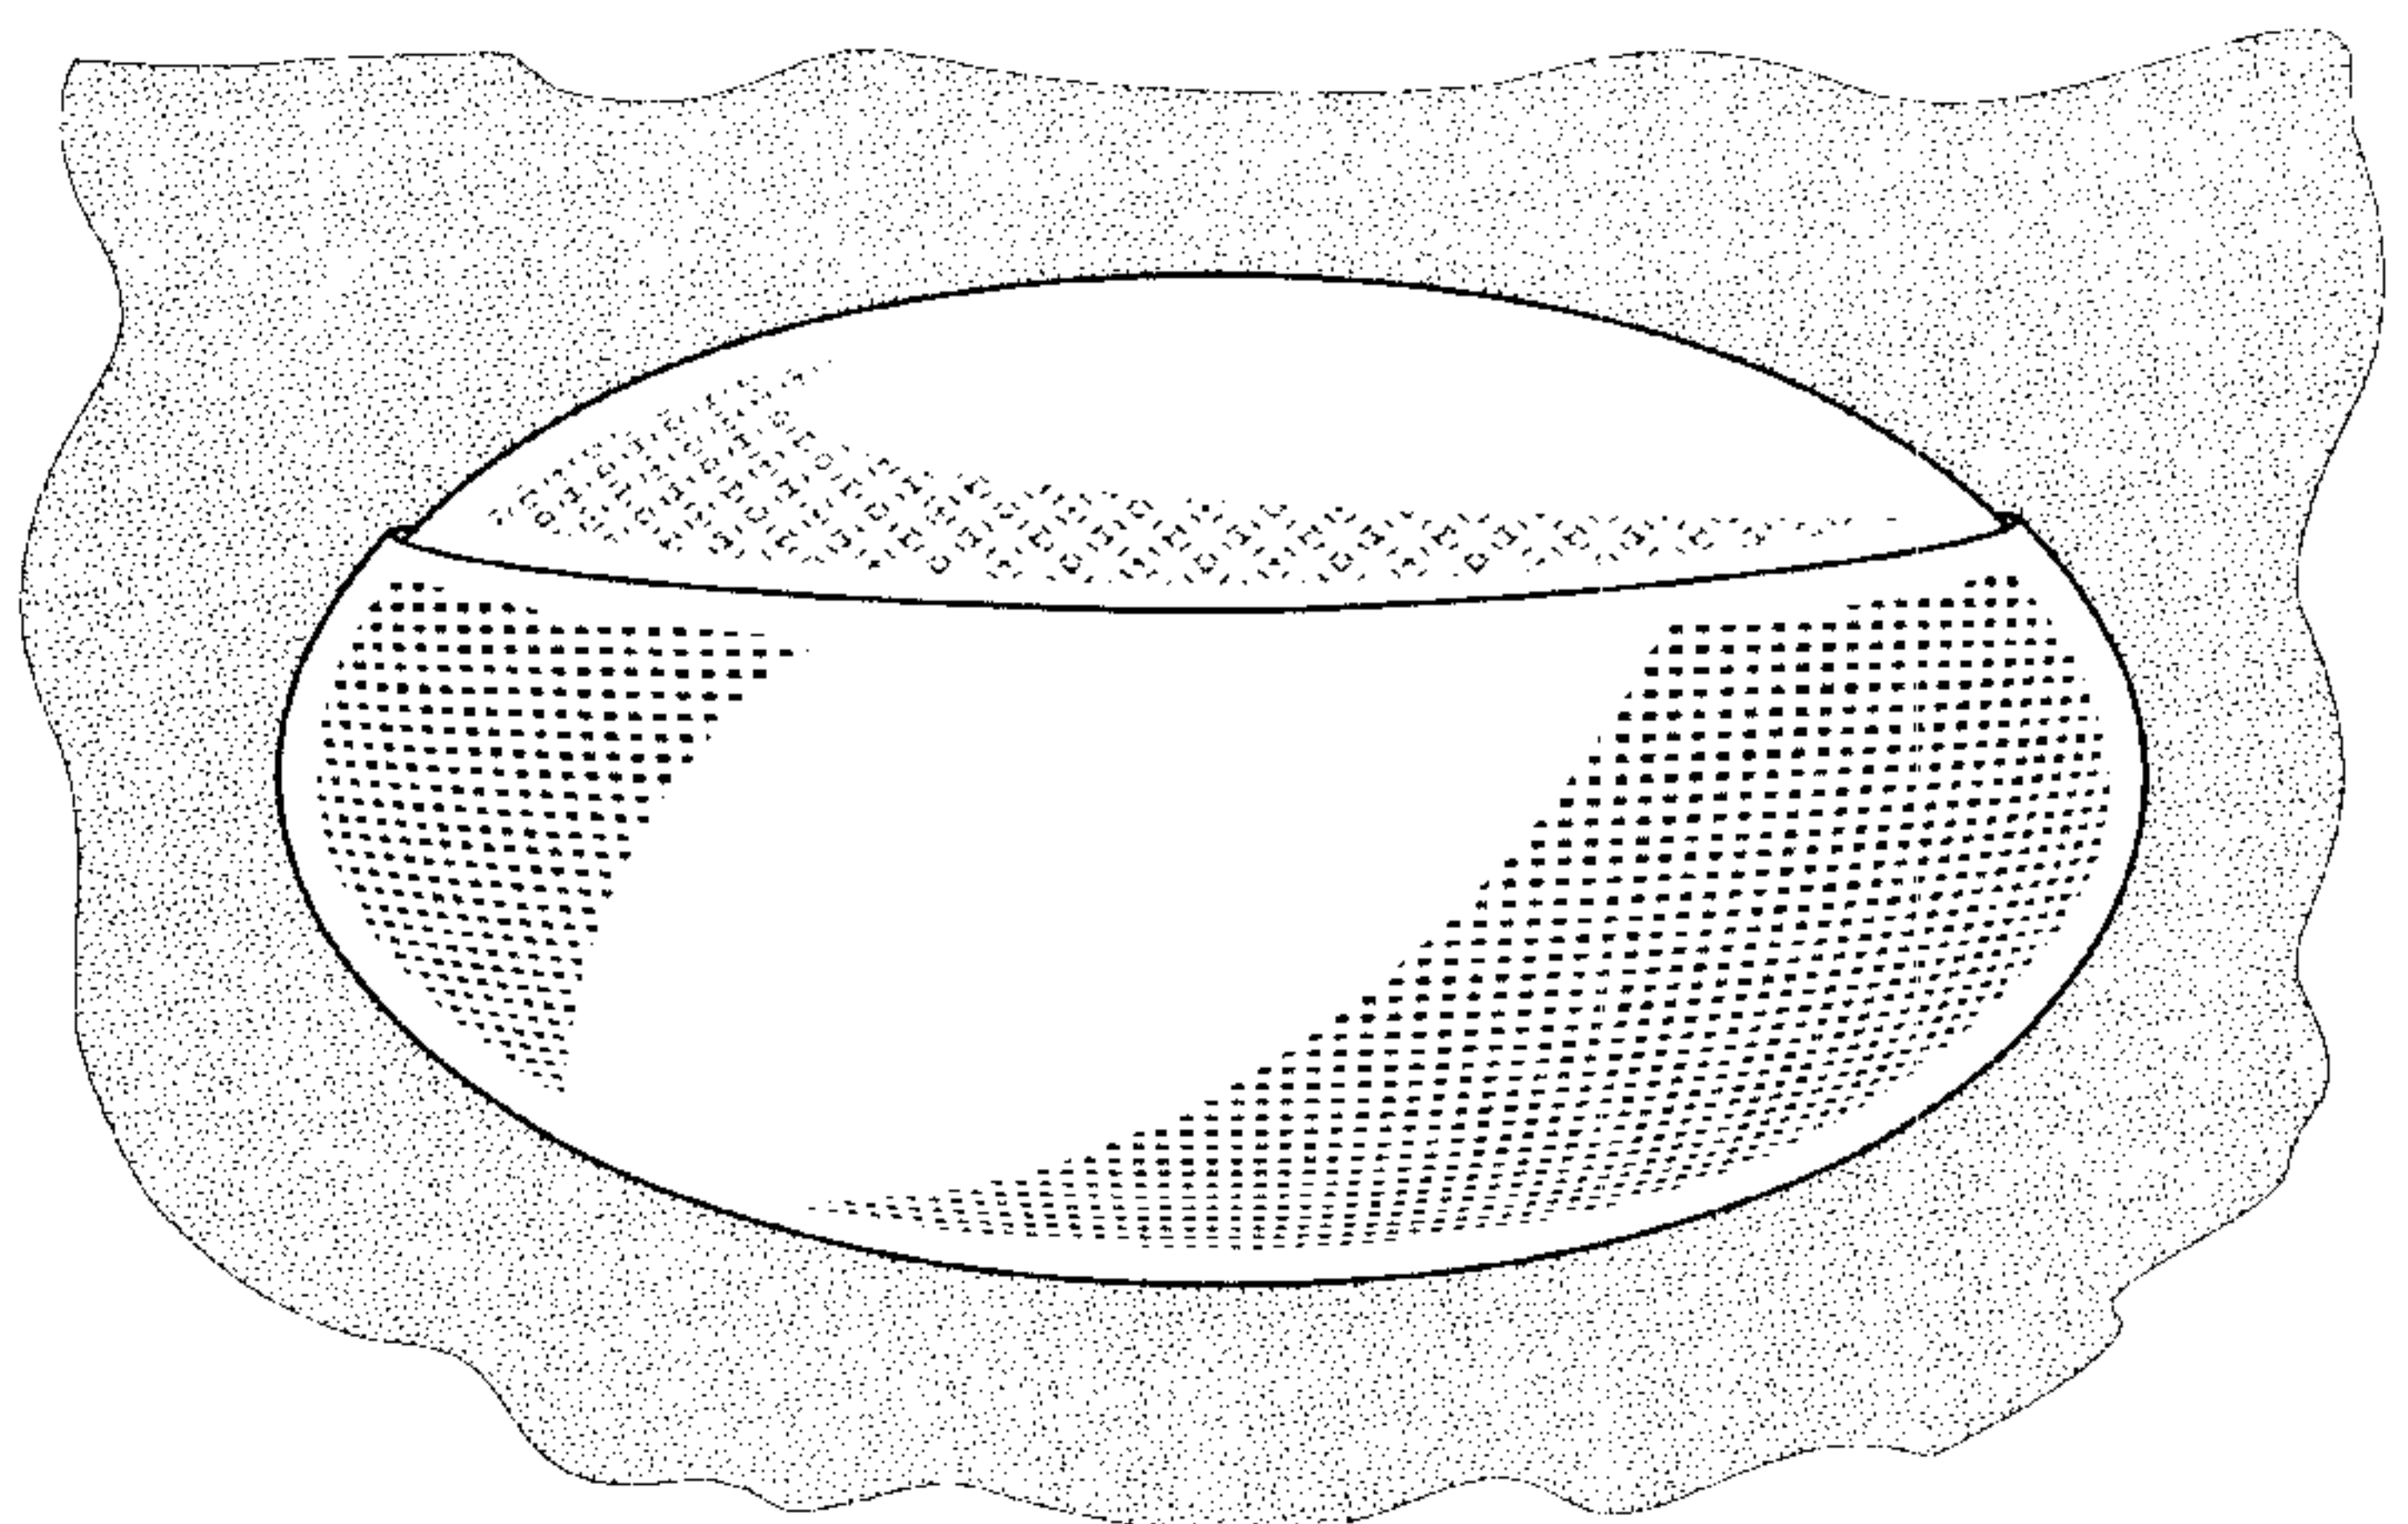

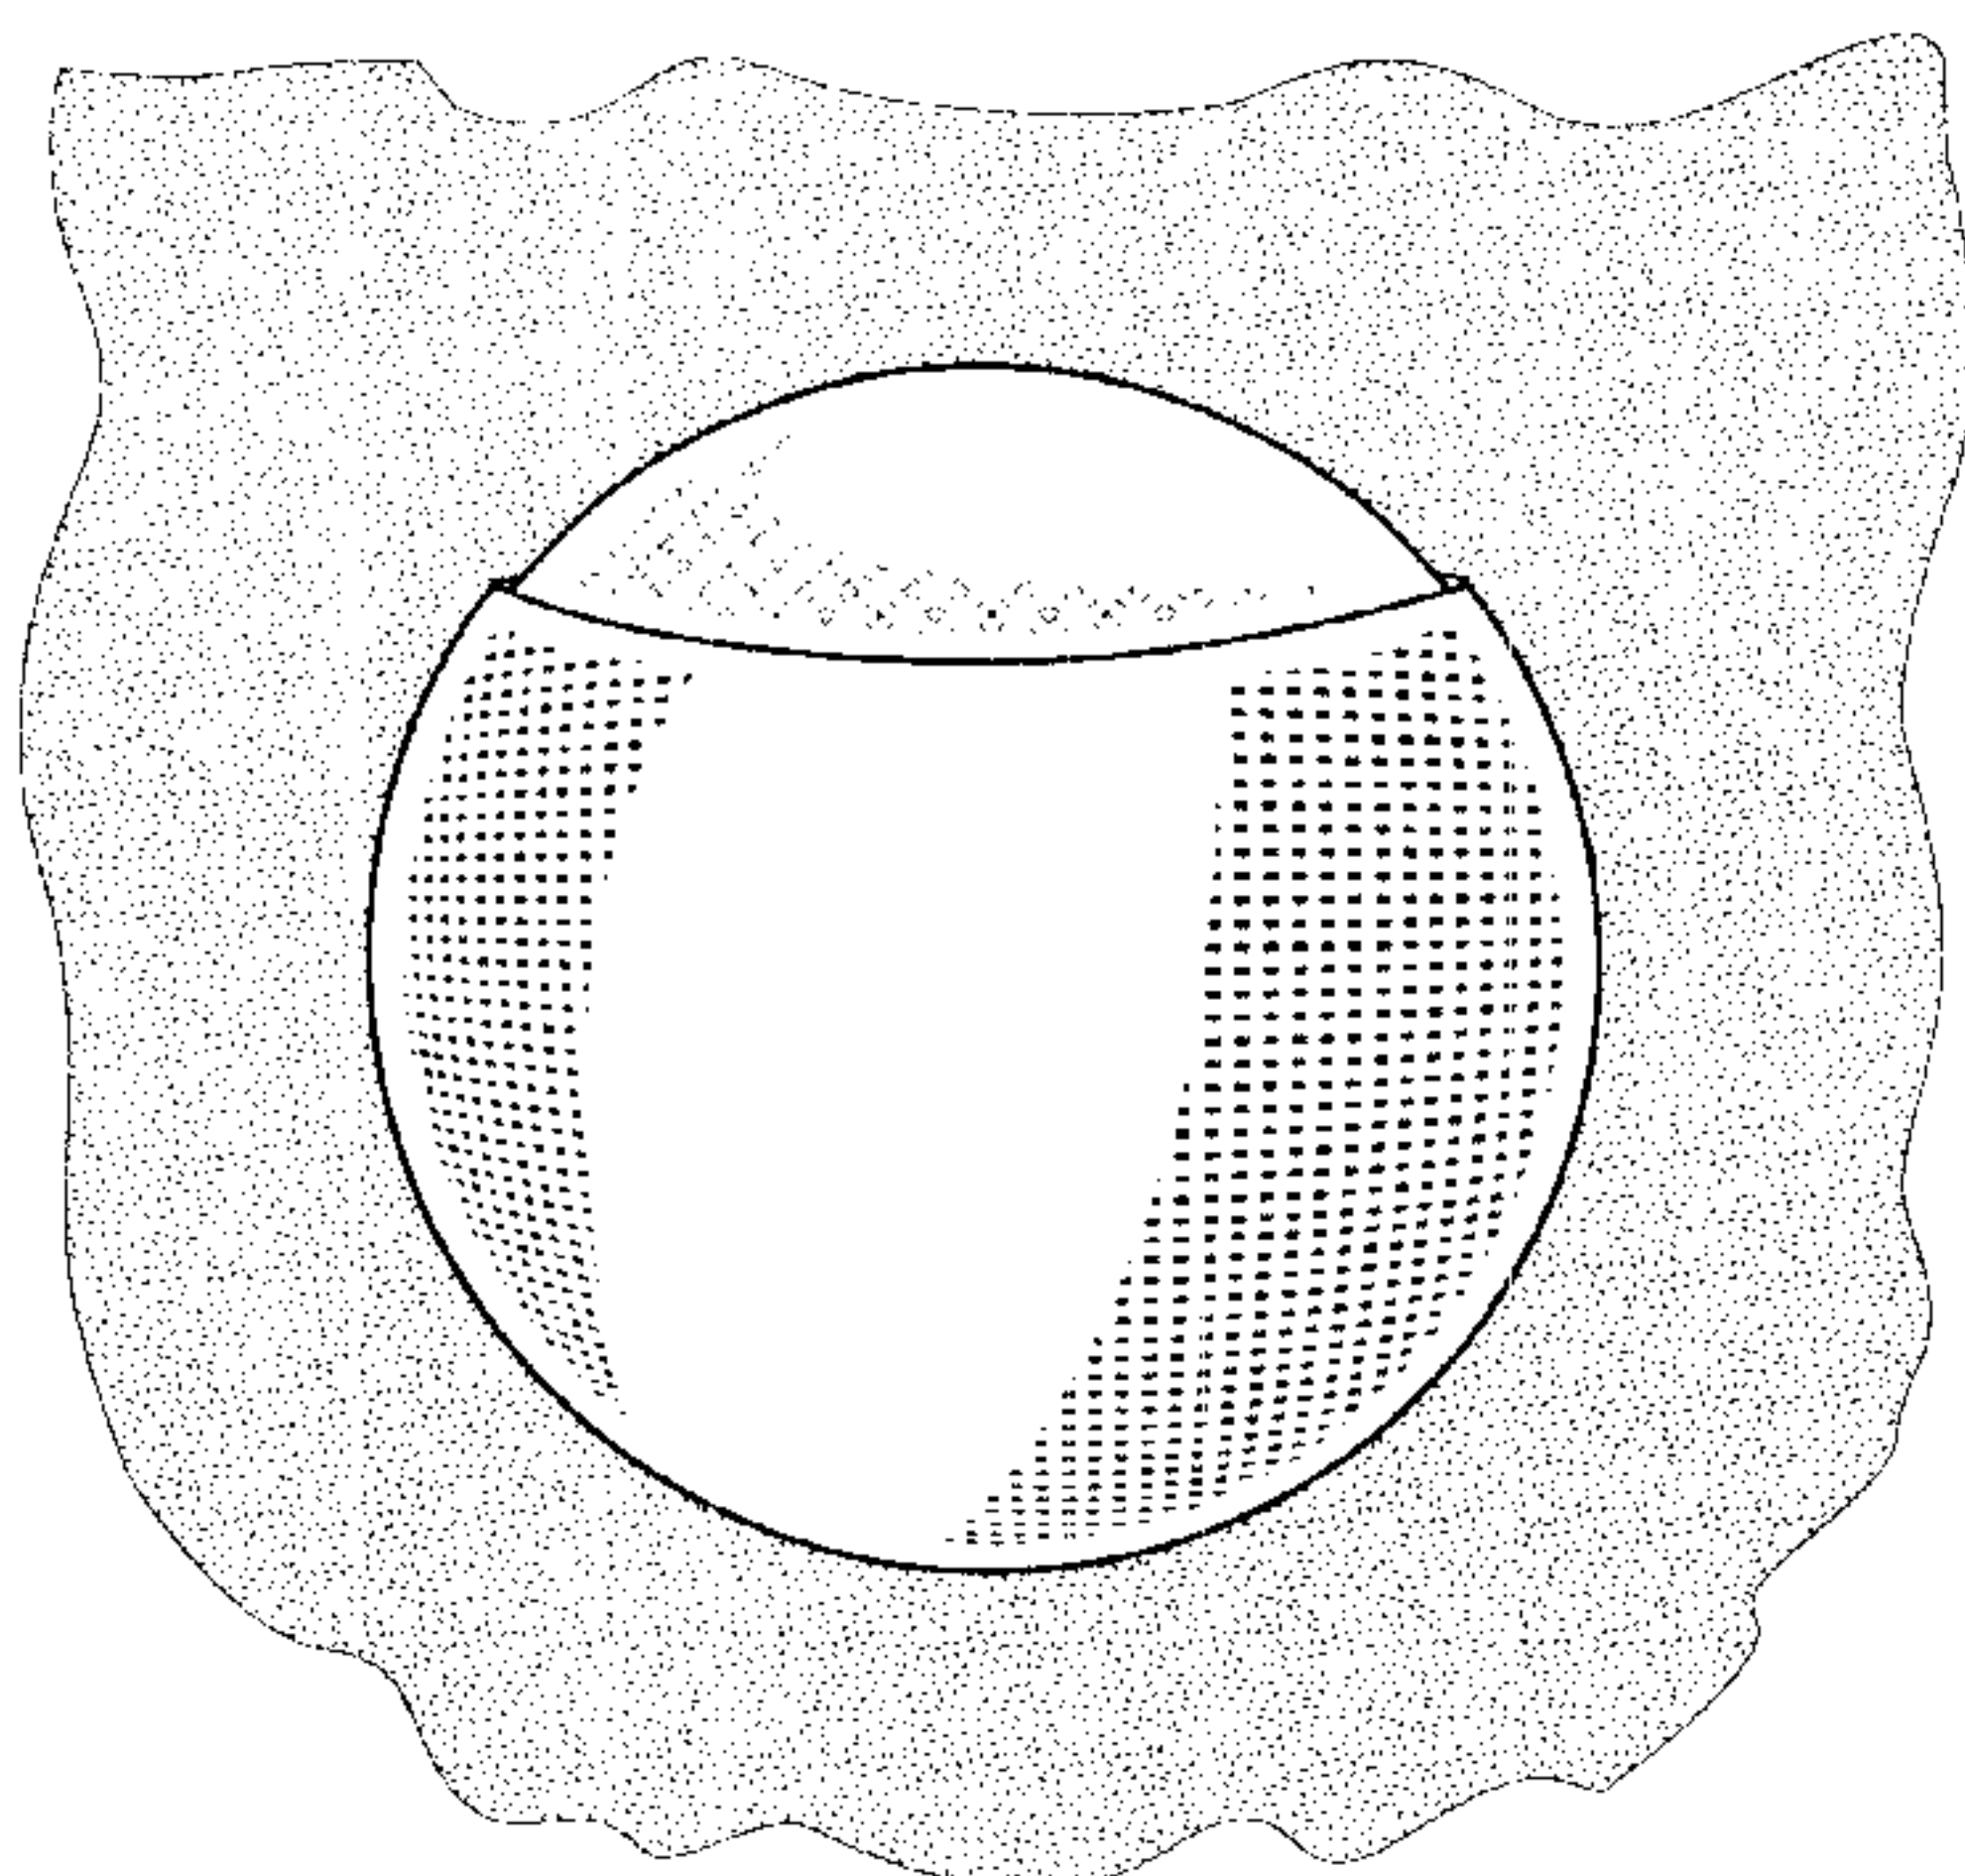

FIG. 6 is a bottom plan view thereof from which only a portion of the bag is viewable;

FIG. 7 is a right side elevational view of FIG. 5 along one axis of the third embodiment, the left side being a mirror image thereof; and,

FIG. 8 is a top plan view of a bag portion with convex circular pocket showing a fourth embodiment of my new design, which differs from the third embodiment only by the inclusion of a top-accessed circular pocket having a different fabric, as indicated by the contrasting shading.

Any broken lines are to show the environment only and are not part of the claimed design.
