(57) CLAIM

The ornamental design for a hernia belt, as shown.

DESCRIPTION

FIG. 1 is a perspective view of a hernia belt fully assembled; FIG. 2 is a front elevation view of the back belt portion of the hernia belt;

FIG. 3 is a front perspective view of the abdominal portion of the hernia belt;

FIG. 4 is a rear elevational view of the back belt portion of the hernia belt,

FIG. 5 is a rear elevational view of the abdominal portion of the hernia belt with a hernia pad inserted;

FIG. 6 is a side elevational view of the hernia pad;

FIG. 7 is a top plan view of the hernia pad;

FIG. 8 is an exploded rear elevational view of the abdominal portion of the hernia belt; and,

FIG. 9 is a side elevational view of the fully assembled hernia belt.

The hernia pads and the back belt are shown separate for ease of illustration.

The broken lines shown in the disclosure represent stitching and not environmental subject matter.

The contrasting shading on the ends of the harness and the ends of the back belt represent VELCRO.
