(57) CLAIM

A concrete paving stone and concrete paving stones, as shown.

DESCRIPTION

The patent or application file contains at least one drawing executed in color. Copies of this patent or patent application publication with color drawing(s) will be provided by the Office upon request and payment of the necessary fee.

FIG. 1 is a perspective view of a concrete paving stone having a varied and non-uniform coloring on the outer surface of the stone, a texture having varied and non-uniform lines, valleys and plateaus on the outer surface of the stone and varied and non-uniform chips along the outer edges of the stone and scratches on the outer surface of the stone, so as to have a novel appearance resembling naturally occurring quarry stone.
