(57) CLAIM

The ornamental design of magnetic frames, as shown and described.

DESCRIPTION

FIG. 1 is a front view of a first embodiment of the magnetic frames.

FIG. 2 is a front view of a second embodiment of the magnetic frames.

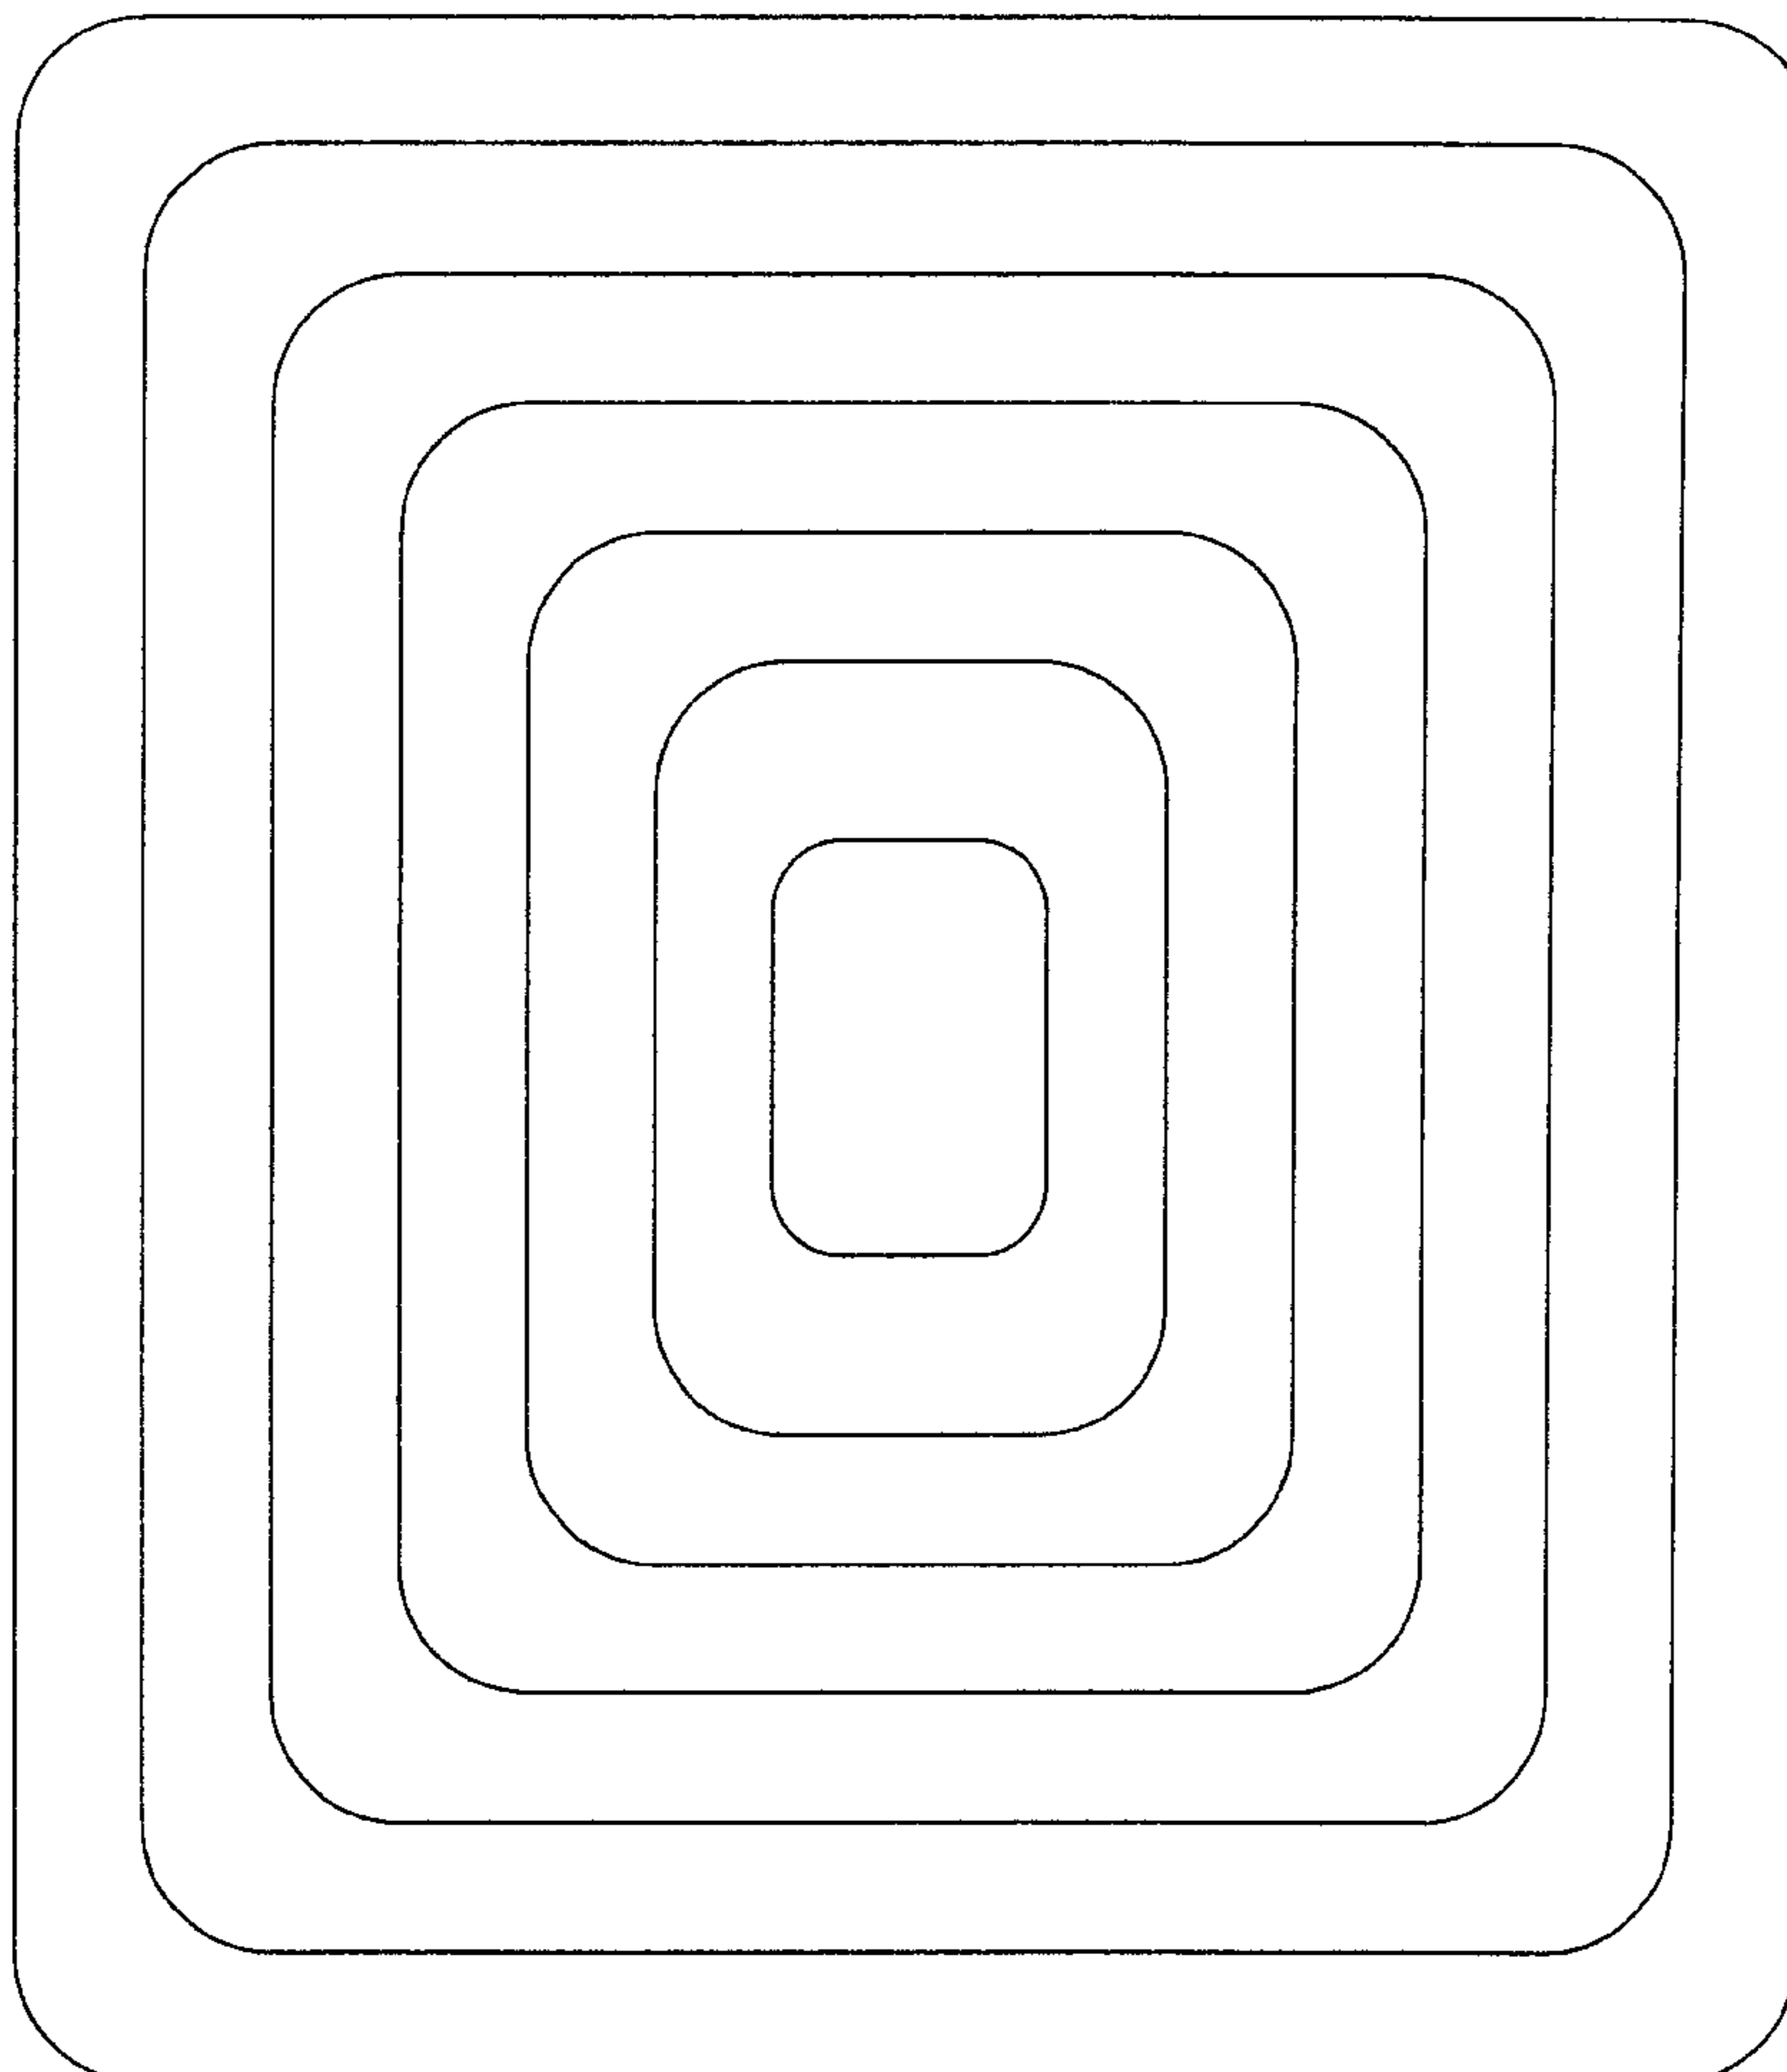

FIG. 3 is a front view of a third embodiment of the magnetic frames.

FIG. 4 is a side view of the magnetic frames; and,

FIG. 5 is a top view of the magnetic frames.

The application is directed to a design for a sheet of ferromagnetic material scored or cut to produce various sized magnetic frames. FIGS. 1-3 depict frontal views of different embodiments of the invention. For ease in understanding the invention, the back views of each embodiment have not been shown. The back views are mirror images of the front views shown in FIGS. 1-3. FIGS. 4 and 5 reflect the side views and top views of FIGS. 1-3, respectively.
