DESCRIPTION

FIG. 1 is a perspective view of surfaces of an air conditioning/heat pump unit showing my new design.
FIG. 2 is a right side elevational view; and,
FIG. 3 is a top plan view.

The characteristic feature of the design is a camouflage pattern on the surfaces of an air conditioner/heat pump unit.
The broken-line disclosure is understood to define the periphery of the air conditioner/heat pump unit itself, which forms no part of the claimed design.
