(57)CLAIM

The ornamental design for a cord winder, as shown and described.

DESCRIPTION

FIG. 1 is an upper front right perspective view of a cord winder, such as may be used with a communications headset, the broken line drawing of cords extending from the cord winder in the drawings herein is for illustrative purposes only and forms no part of the claimed design.

FIG. 2 is an upper rear left perspective view of the cord winder.

FIG. 3 is a front elevational view of the cord winder.

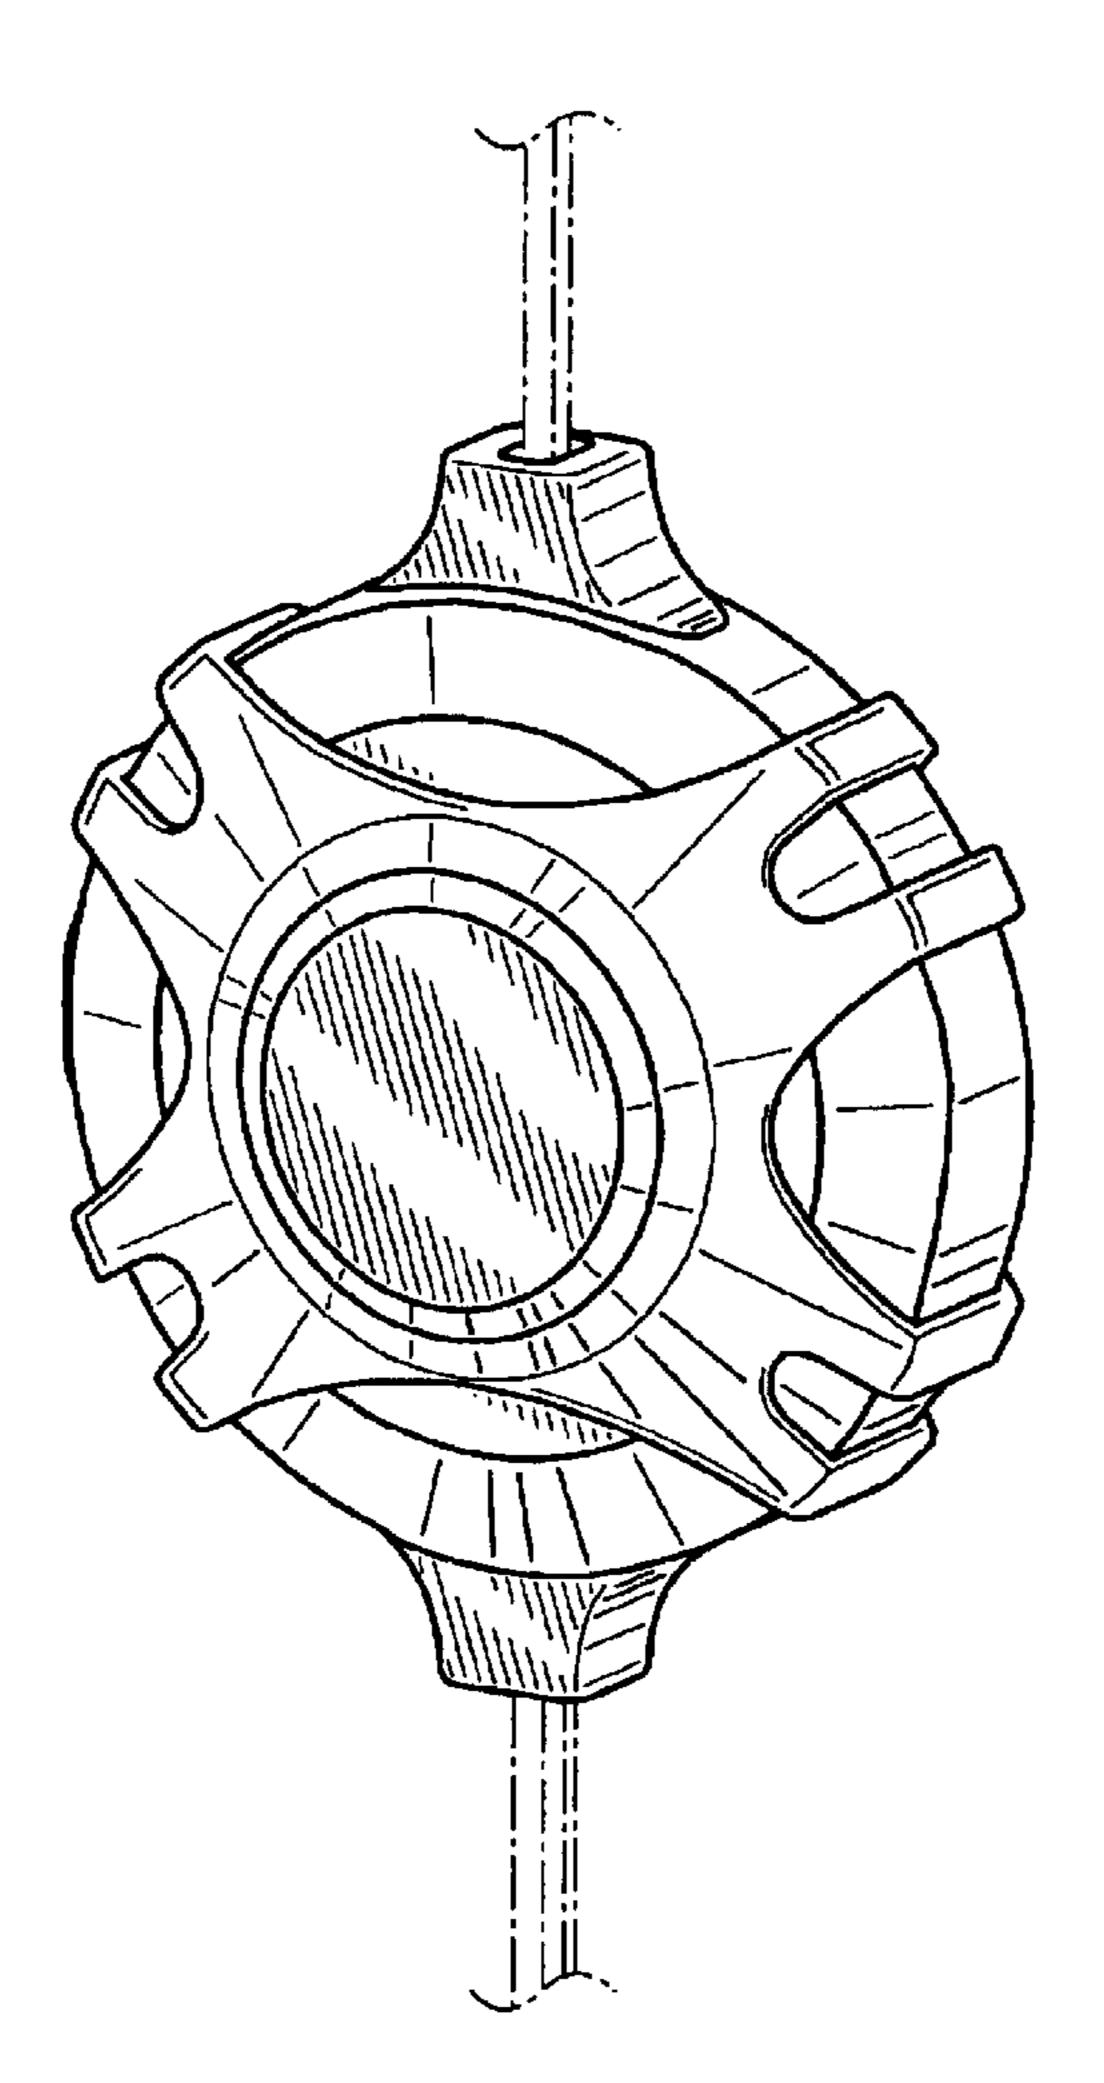

FIG. 4 is a rear elevational view of the cord winder.

FIG. 5 is a left side elevational view of the cord winder.

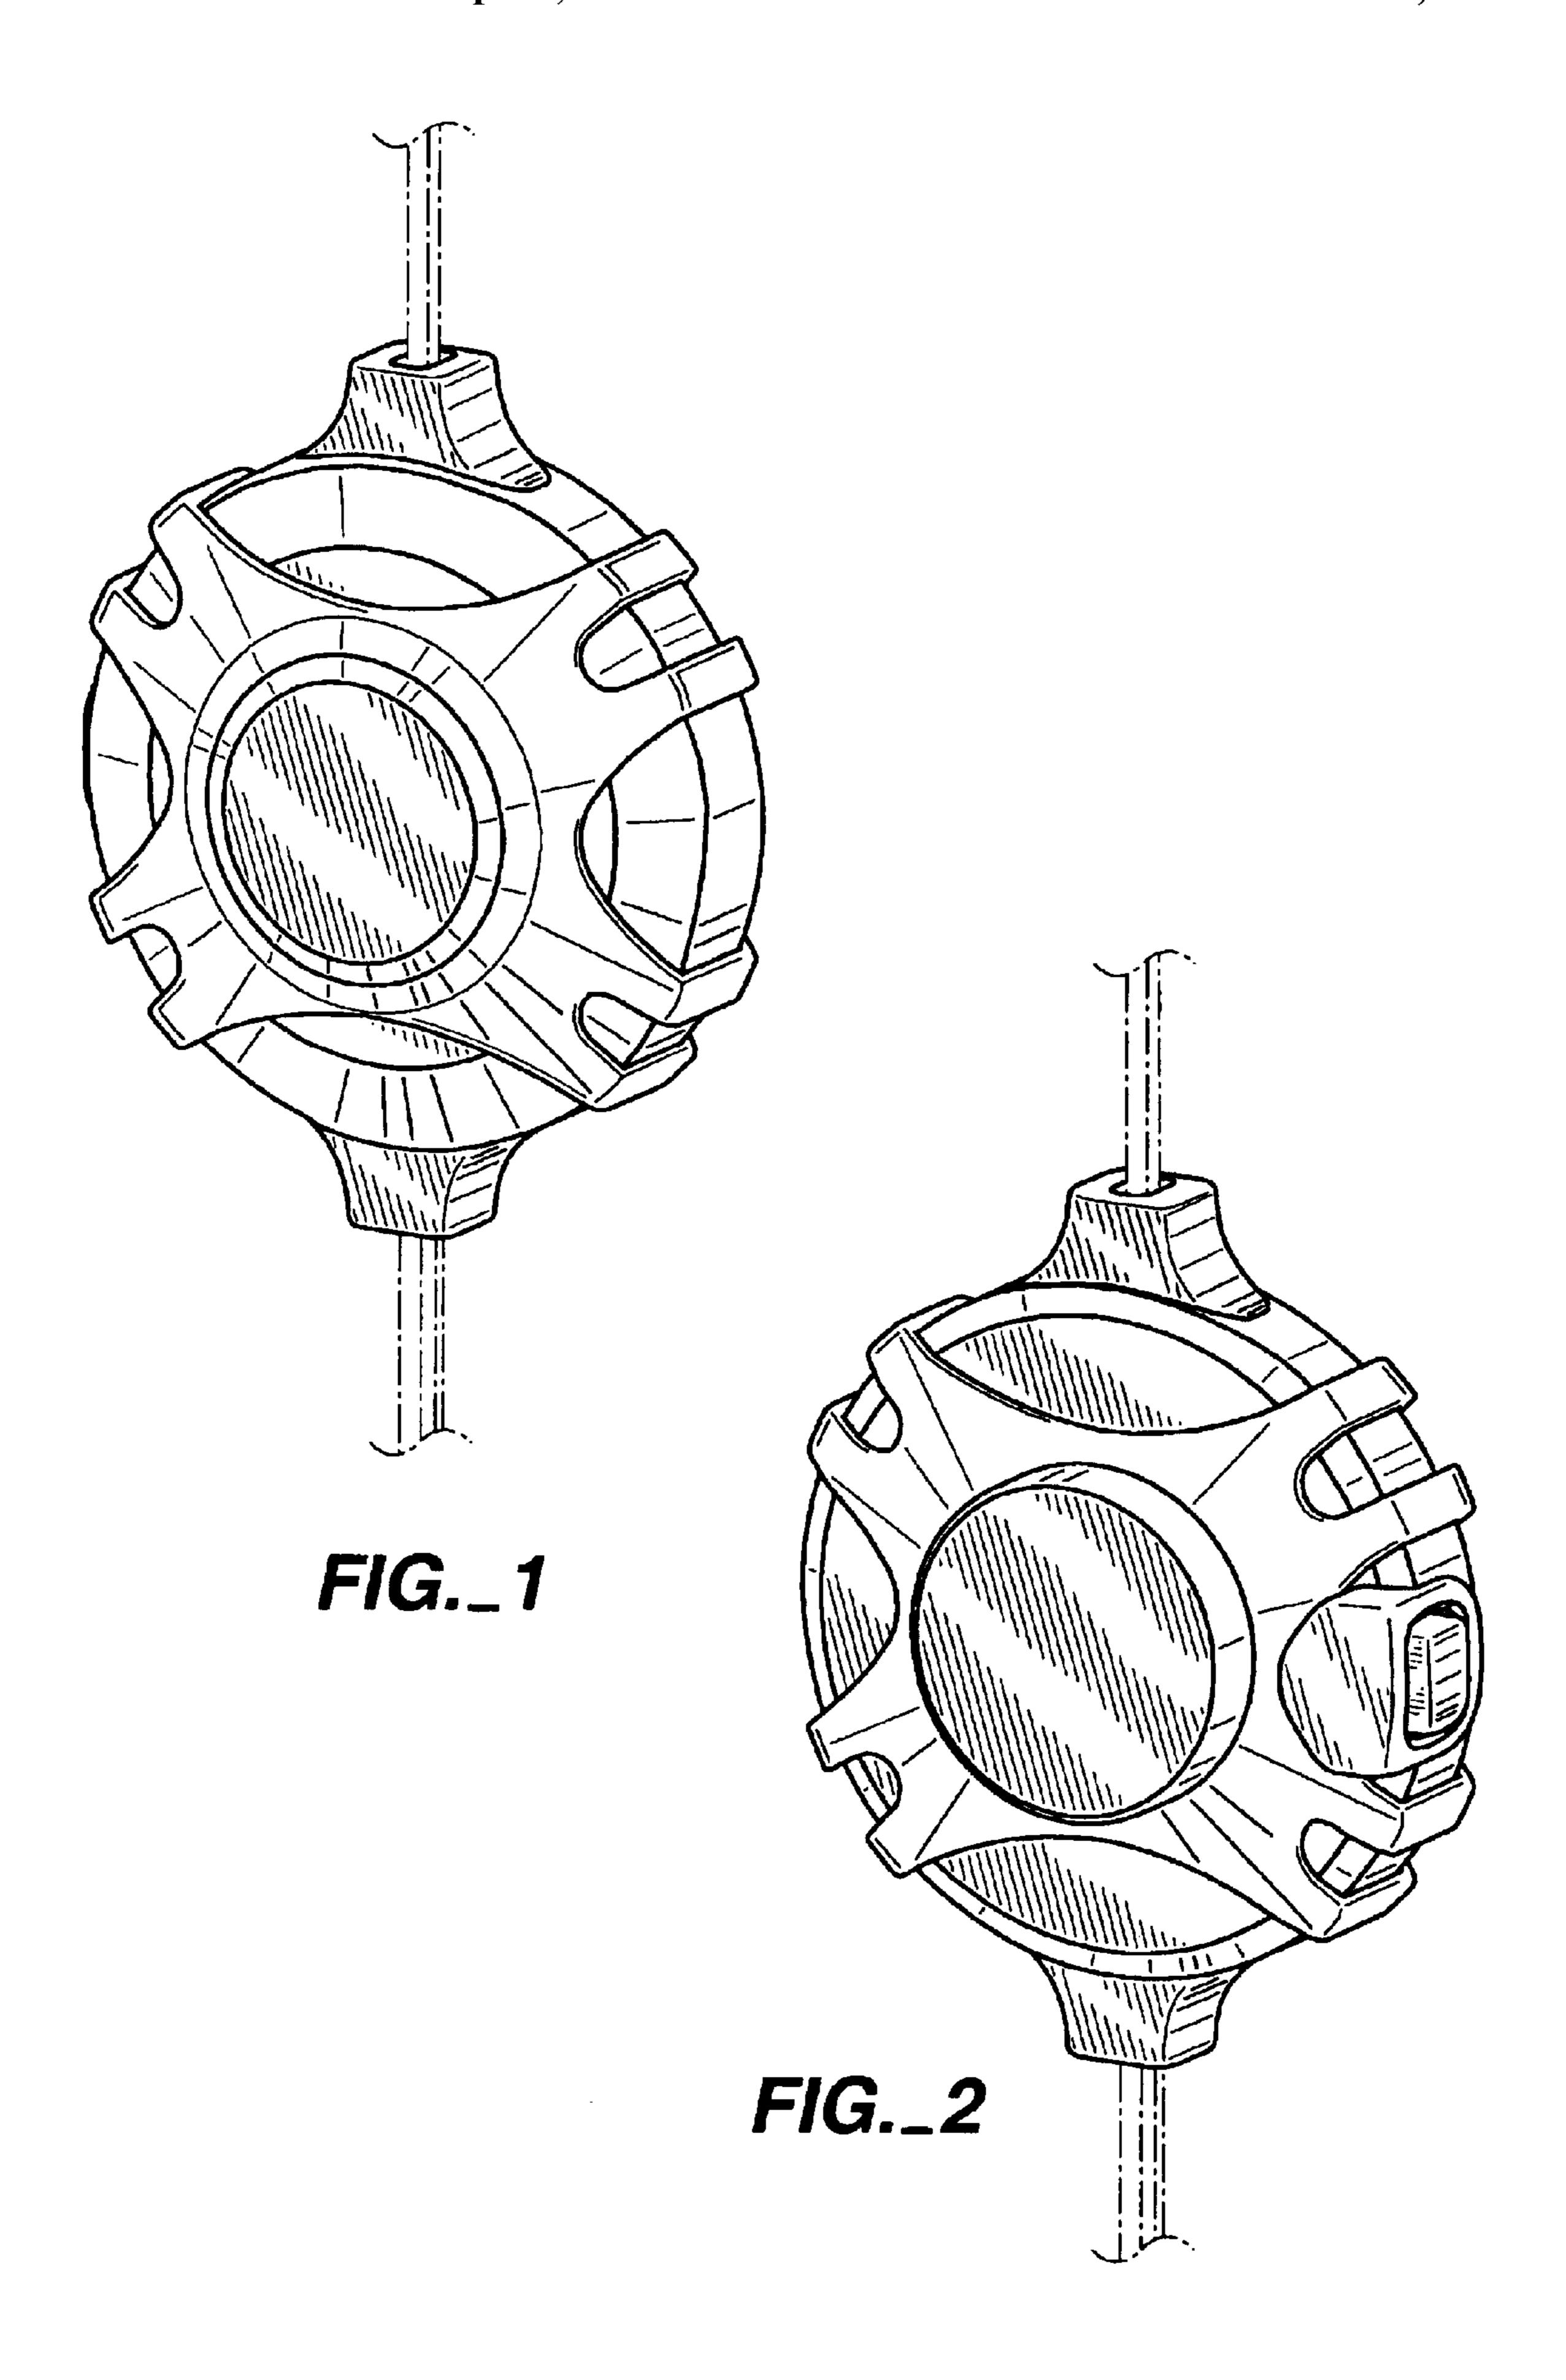

FIG. 6 is a right side elevational view of the cord winder; and,

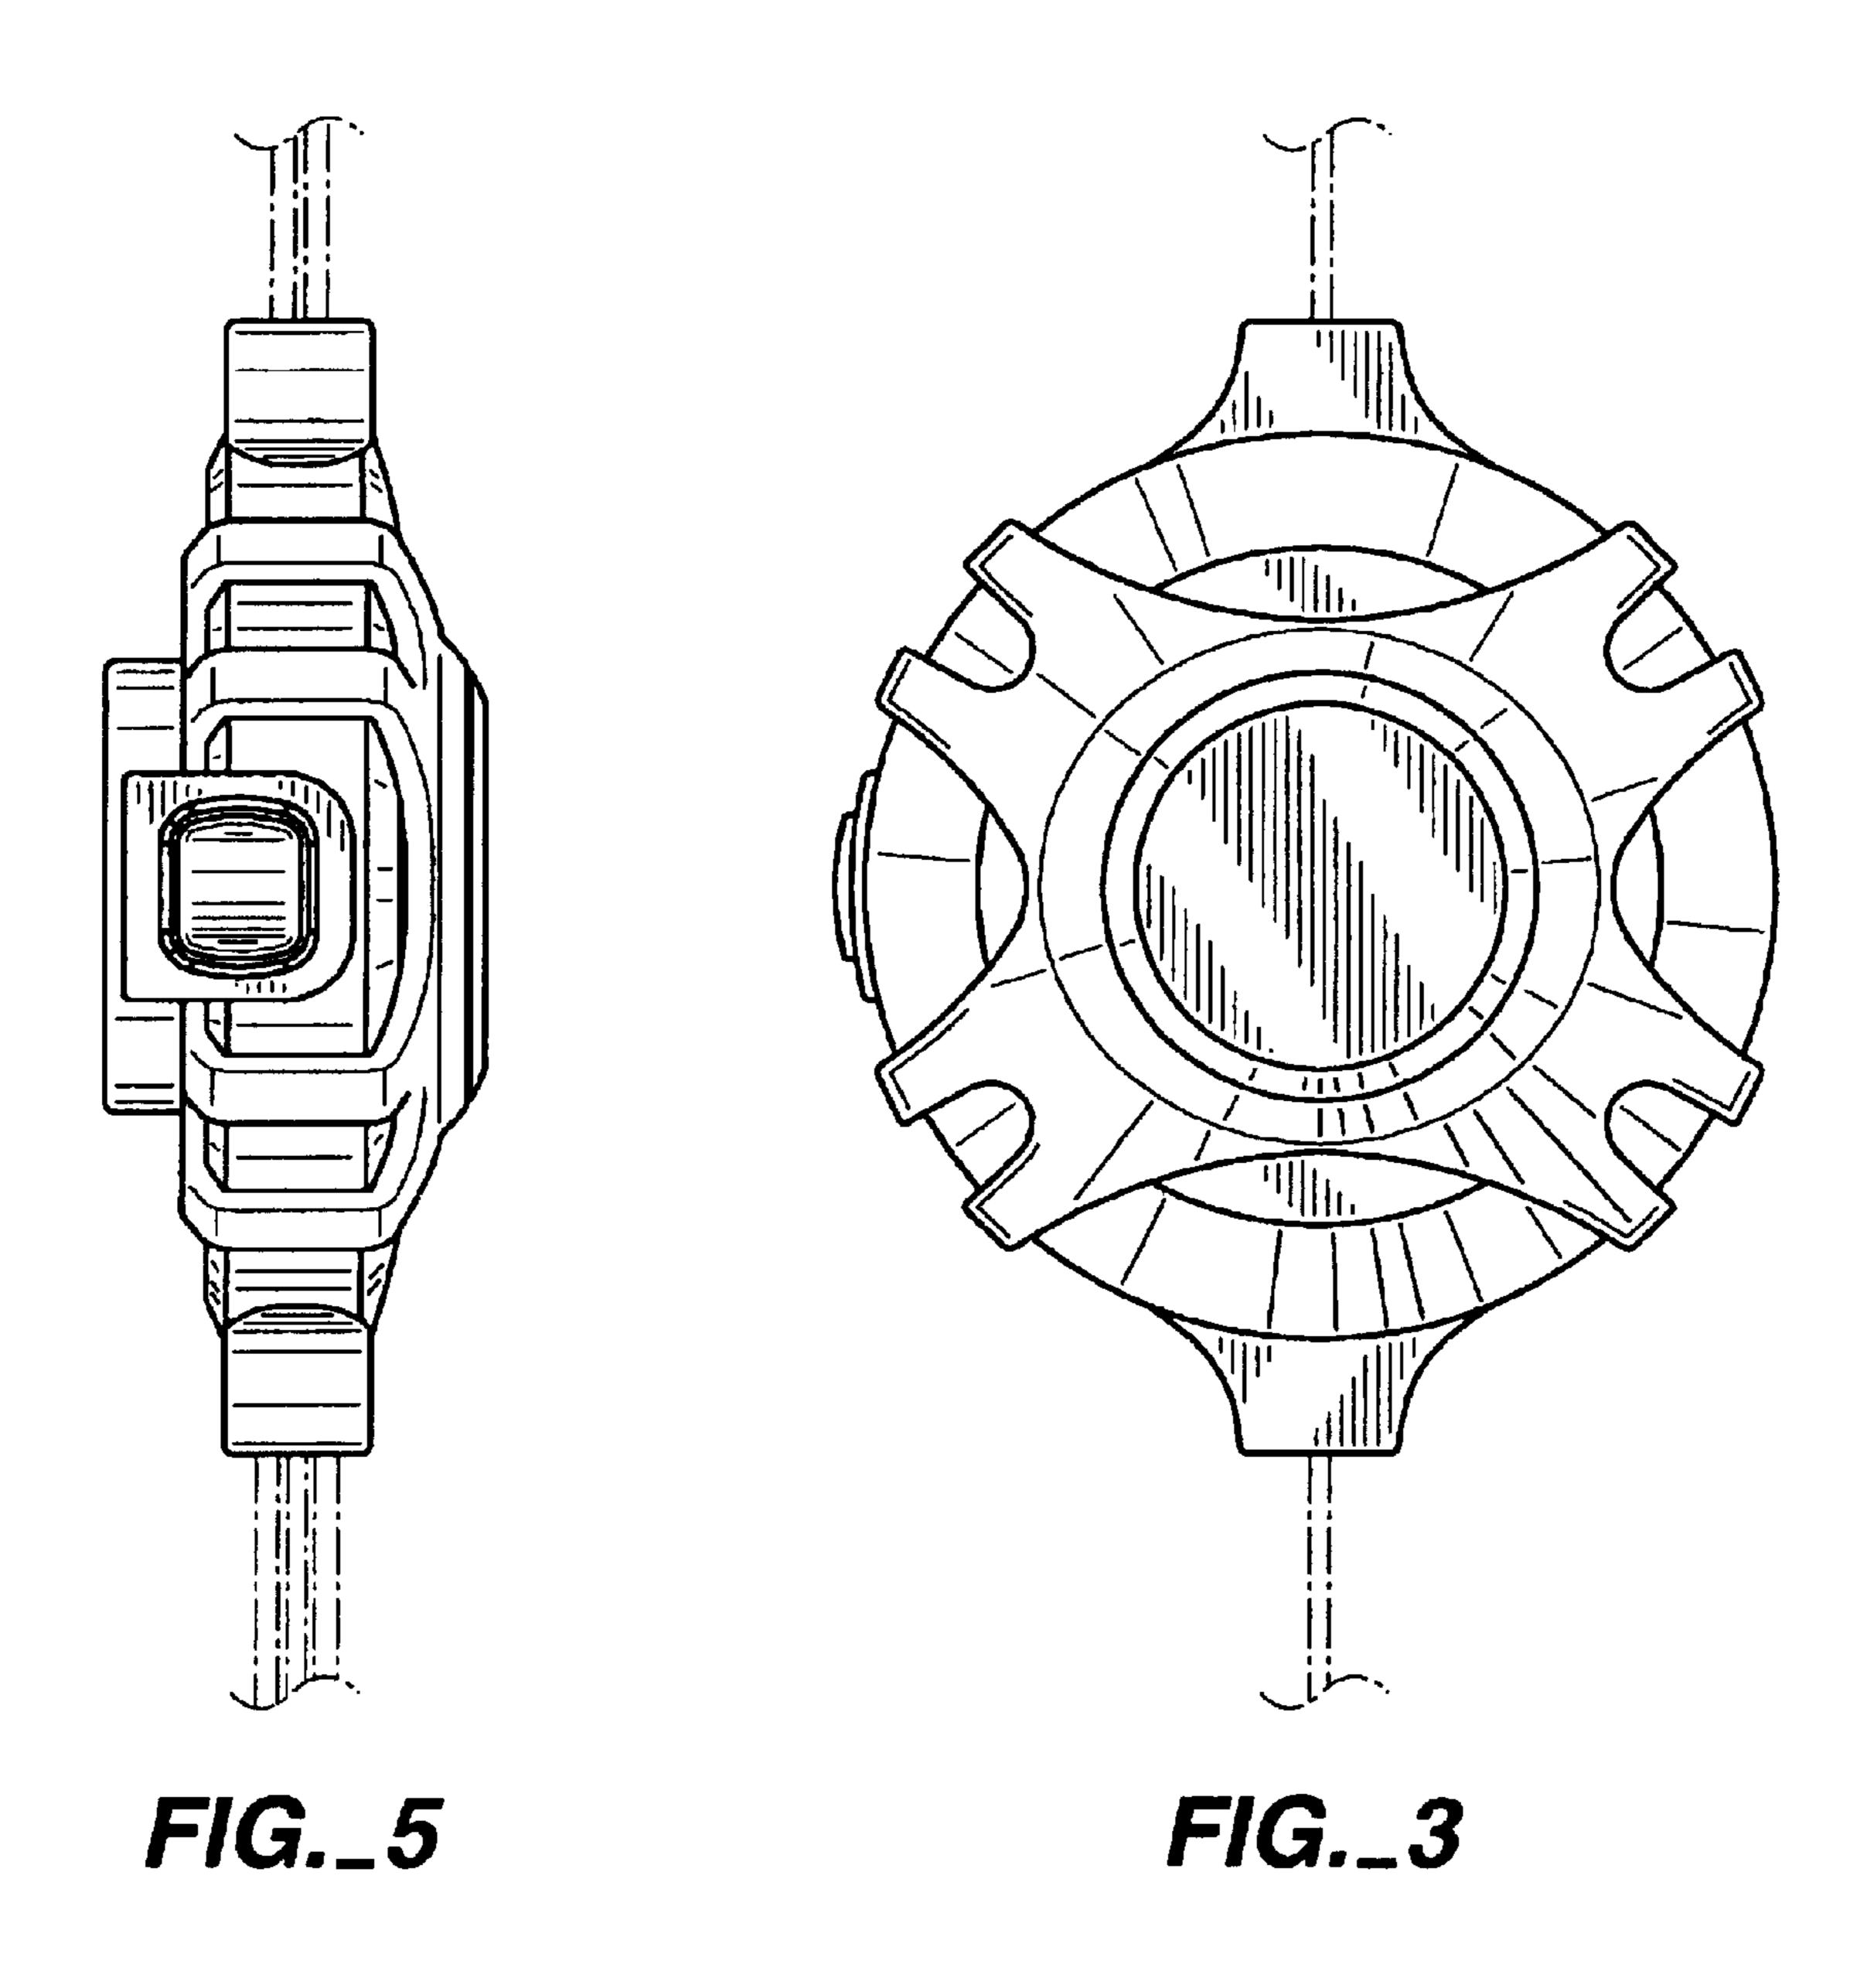

FIG. 7 is a top plan view of the cord winder, the bottom plan view of the cord winder being a mirror image thereof.
