(57)CLAIM

The ornamental design for a lantern assembly, as shown and described.

DESCRIPTION

FIG. 1 is a perspective view of the first embodiment of the lantern assembly;

FIG. 2 is a first side view of the lantern assembly;

FIG. 3 is a second side view of the lantern assembly;

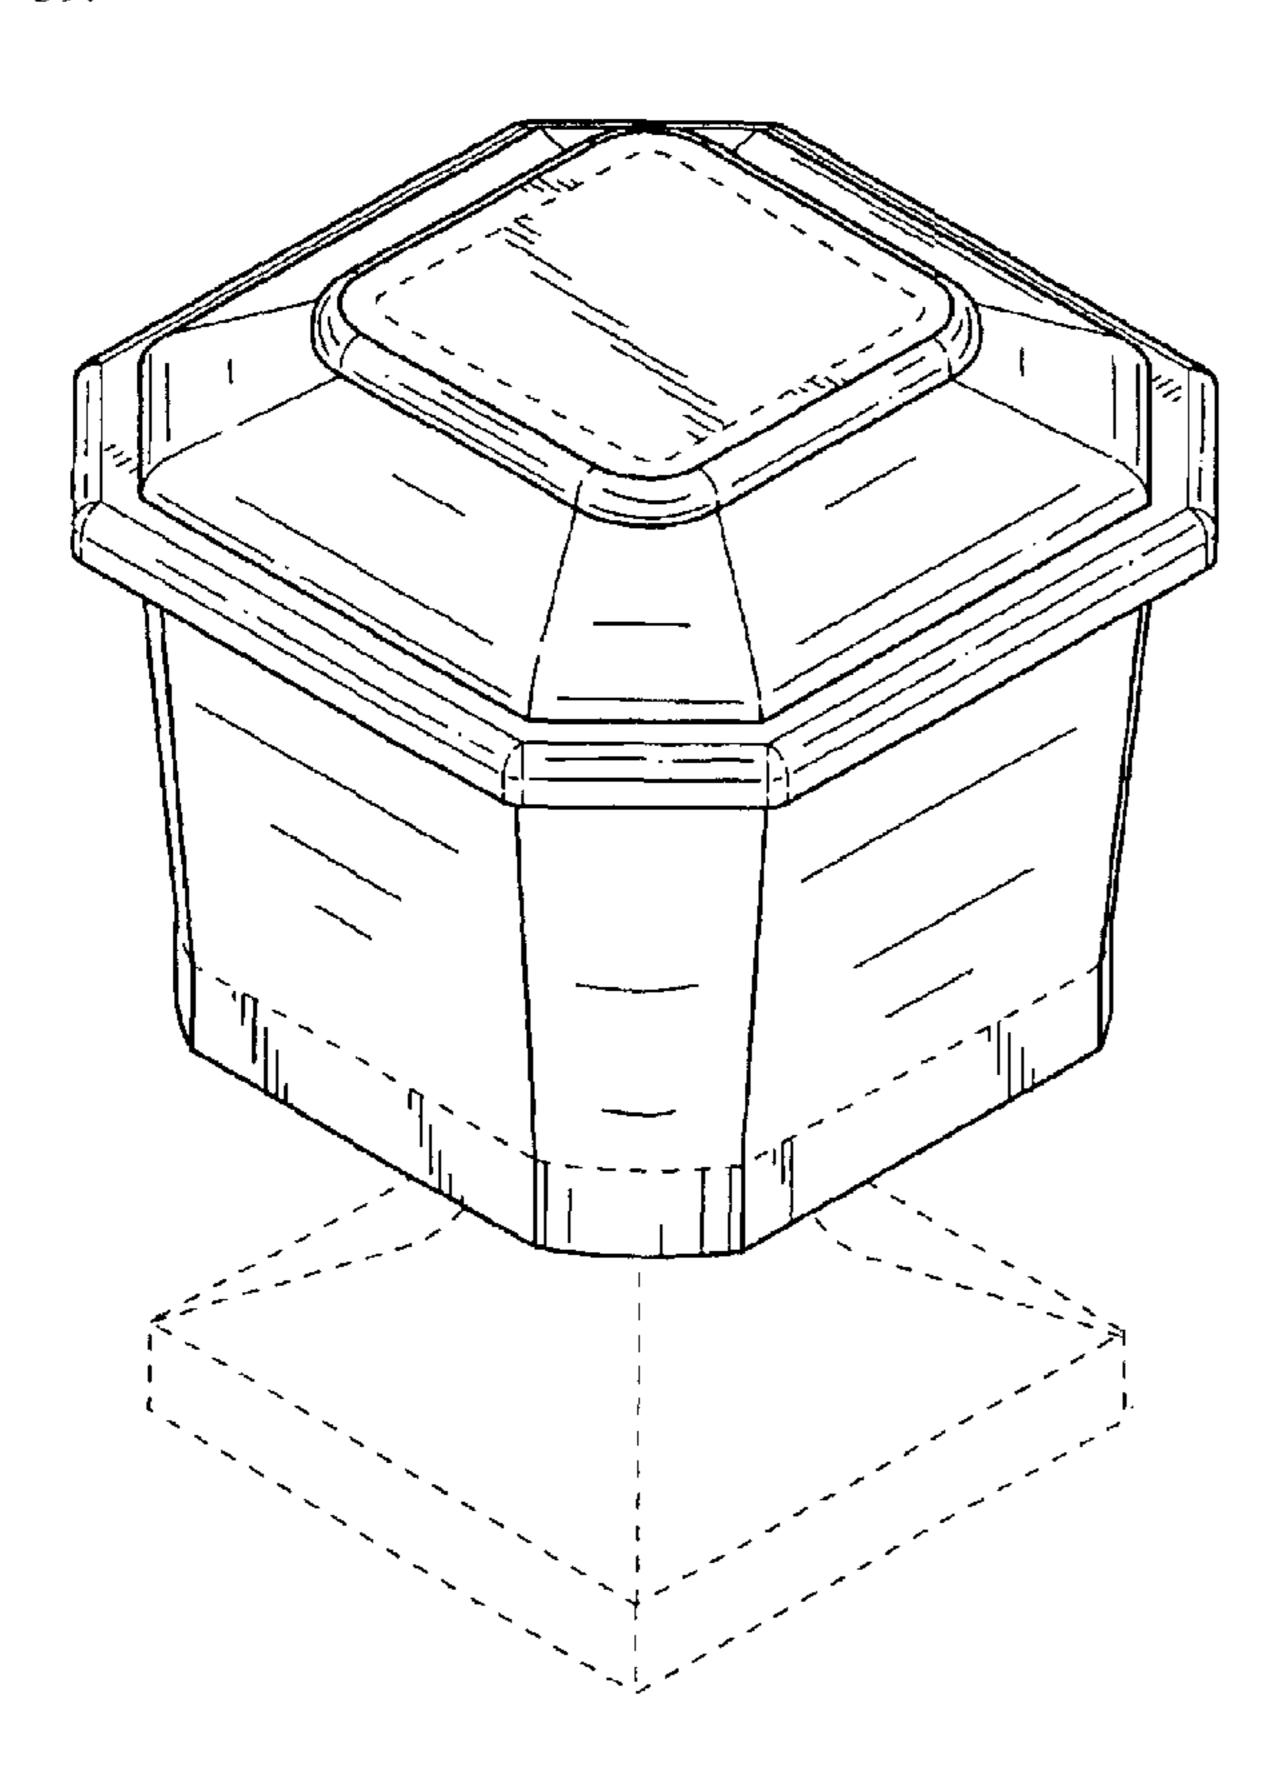

FIG. 4 is a top plan view of the lantern assembly;

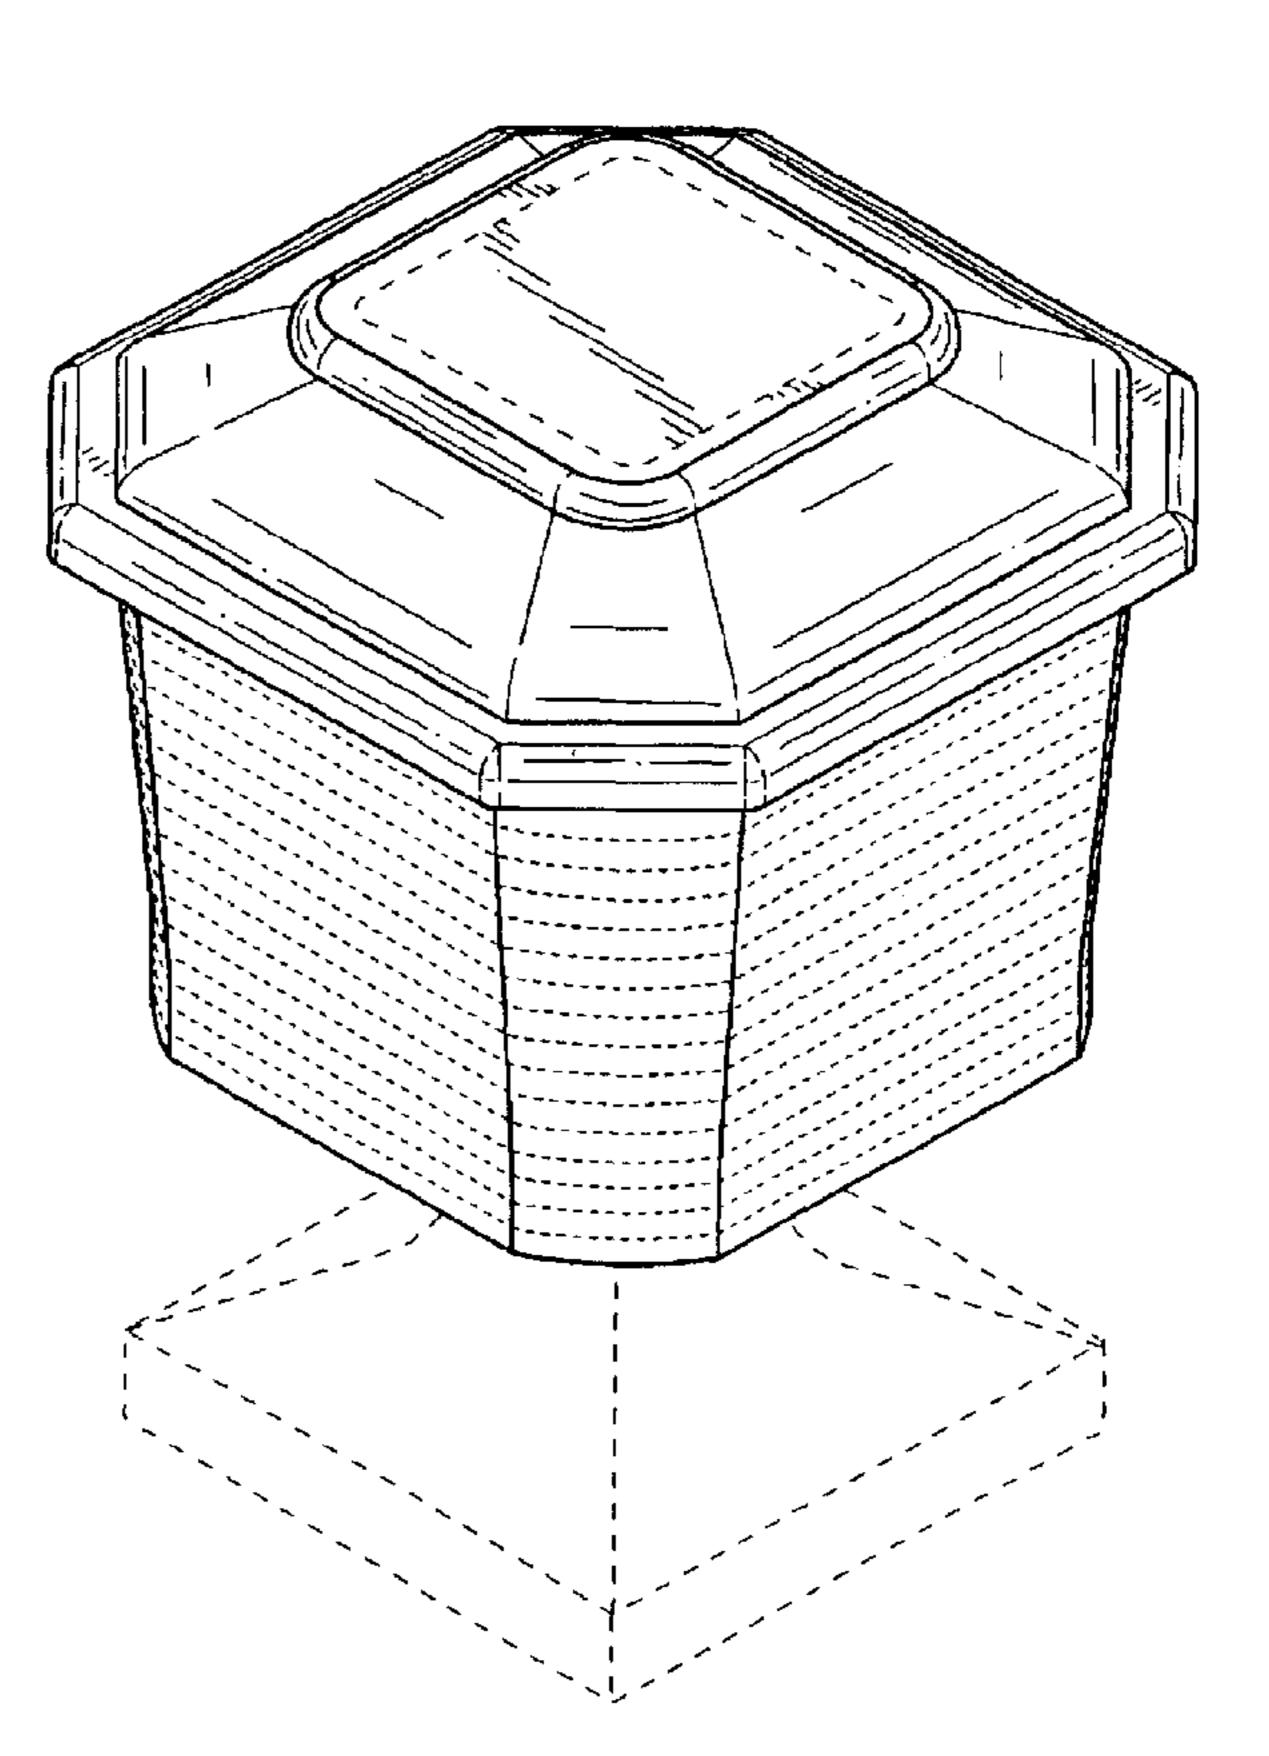

FIG. 5 is a bottom plan view of the lantern assembly; and,

FIG. 6 is a perspective view of the second embodiment of the lantern assembly, the opposite perspective view is a mirror image thereof. The top and bottom plan views are that same as those of the first embodiment.

The purpose of the fine broken lines on the sidewalls of the lantern assembly in FIG. 6 are to illustrate a plurality of horizontally aligned diffusing ridges forming a surface treatment for the lantern assembly. All other broken lines are used to illustrate environment. The broken lines form no part of the claimed design.
