(57) CLAIM

The ornamental design for a set of table height adjusters, as shown and described.

DESCRIPTION

Reference is hereby made to our related and copending Application Ser. No. 09/967,701 which was filed on Oct. 1, 2001.

FIG. 1 is an exploded perspective view of a single three-part table height adjuster, of our new design.

FIG. 2 is a reduced view of our table height adjusters in use, with top members only.

FIG. 3 similarly shows our table height adjusters, with stacked top and bottom members.

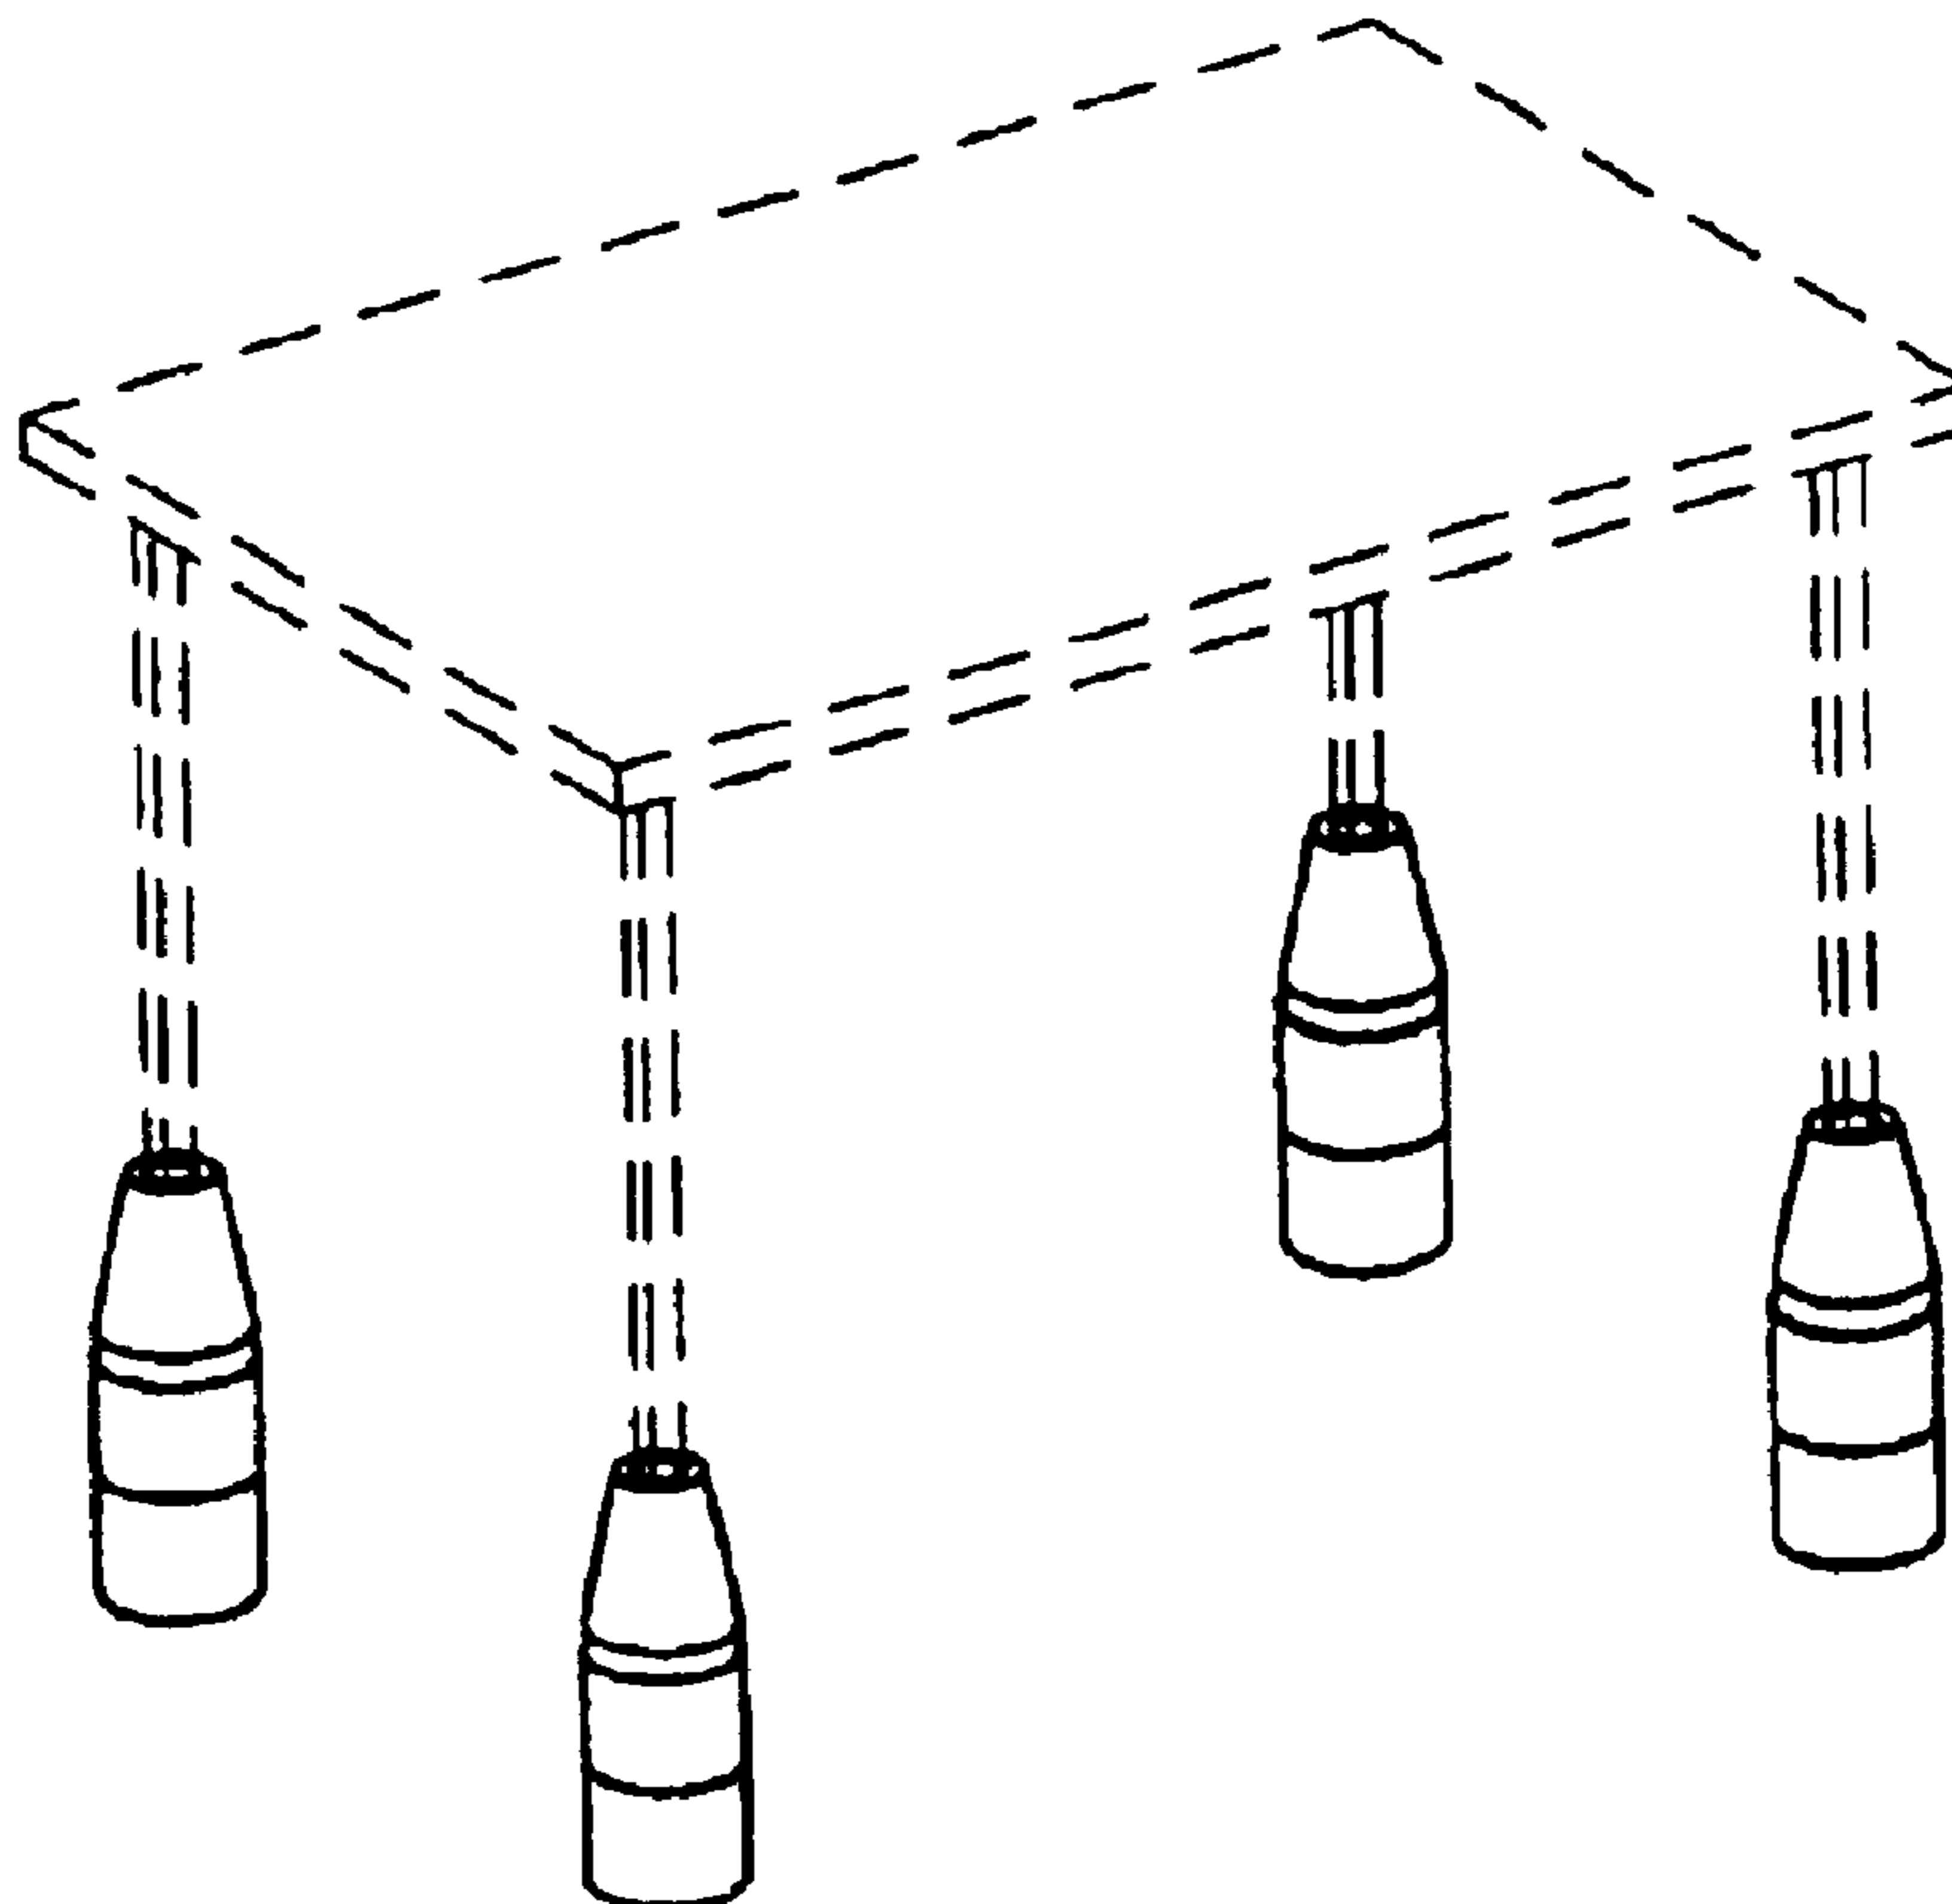

FIG. 4 similarly shows our table height adjusters, with stacked top, middle, and bottom members.

FIG. 5 is an enlarged top view of the top member shown in FIG. 1; and,

FIG. 6 is a sectional elevation view of top, middle, and bottom members stacked together.

The table height adjusters are shown in use, at three different adjustments, in FIGS. 2–4 for clarity of illustration. The broken-line showing of tables in FIGS. 2–4 is for illustrative purposes only, and forms no part of the claimed design.
